THREE VENERABLE LADIES CELEBRATE LONGEVITY

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY—Mrs. Jersey Virginia Donohue, 96, Mrs. Louisa Russell, 94, and Mrs. Laura Fletcher, 84, as they were snapped by Photog Pat Thursday at the celebration of Mrs. Russell's birthday. The festivities were at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fletcher, and many relatives and friends gathered to make the day a memorable one for these long-time close friends. Mrs. Donohue and Mrs. Russell were friends in Kansas before they came west in 1883 and 1880, respectively, and Mrs. Fletcher joined their friendship after meeting here.

Another unusual thing about this trio, is the coincidence that each has been the mother of eleven children.

In a minute, this afternoon, tomorrow, next week. Interminable periods to the impatience of youth. Such promise as next month, next year, in five years; they are unthinkable. But what does such minute spans mean to Mrs. Donohue with her 96 years, Mrs. Russell with 94 and Mrs. Fletcher, 84?

Mrs. Russell

Louisa Boldman was born in Portsmouth, Ohio, January 25, 1857. In 1877 she was married to James Russell in Smithfield, Missouri. In 1880 she headed west via wagon train and came first to Walla Walla, arriving there August 7 that year, after having left home May 6. The next year they came to Columbia county and since she has made her home here except for the last 20 years in which she has lived with her daughter in Pomeroy.

Mr. Russell died in January, 1913. They were the parents of 11 children, eight of whom still live, and are:

The eldest, A. C. Russell, 72, Marysville; Mrs. Ray Bartels, Mosside, Ontario; Mrs. Elmer Ogden, Leavenworth; Mrs. C. C. Bartels, Pomeroy; Lee Russell, Portland; Mrs. Elmer Fletcher, Dayton; Llewellynne Russell, Coeur d'Alene; Mrs. Ed Parker, Redmond. Two of her children have died in the last couple of years.

Mrs. Russell has 27 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren. Her pastime has been and is, piecing quilts. She is now trying to complete a quilt for each of her grandchildren.

Introduction

It should be understood at the outset that no evidence or clue has been found which would enable us to determine the origin of William Russell, fisherman, who appeared at Salem, Massachusetts, in 1673, then about 26 years old and unmarried. All the circumstances of his early life in Essex County suggest that he was an original colonist, that he came alone to America, and that he had no close relatives at Salem. The very complete and well preserved records of Salem and Essex County do not reveal that he was ever associated with any person identified as a kinsman. In none of the earlier Essex County Russell families was there a son William born about 1647 who can be identified with William of Salem.

Until and unless new information is brought to light, we can only conjecture that he may have come from an English coastal area or one of the Channel Islands, and that he probably derived from a family of yeomen and/or fishermen. Uneducated and illiterate, he may have spent his youth and early manhood as an indentured servant in Essex County. The property, social connections, and status which William Russell eventually achieved were the results of his manual labors, first at sea and later on his small farmstead. From very meager beginnings he gradually built up an estate, became a supporter of the church, and a respected citizen who took his small part in the civil affairs of his village.

Many of his descendants assisted in the gathering of records for this genealogy. Most of the data concerning the recent generations were collected in the 1950s, and no special effort has been made to update the records for this publication. Though records of the families and descendants of many of the married Russell daughters have been obtained, they are not included in this book, which - in the interest of reducing expense and permitting early publication - is limited in scope to families bearing the Russell surname.

Except for one branch of the family which migrated to the southwest into Luzerne (now Bradford) County, Pennsylvania, and several families which migrated northward into New Brunswick and Canada, most of the descendants of William Russell of Salem are found in New Hampshire and Vermont, in Connecticut, and in New York, from which families migrated westward through Ohio into the north-central states and westward.

The compiler continues to be interested in pre-1850 American Russell genealogy, and welcomes correspondence and research findings. No attempt will be made to keep track of current vital statistics in the various branches of the family.

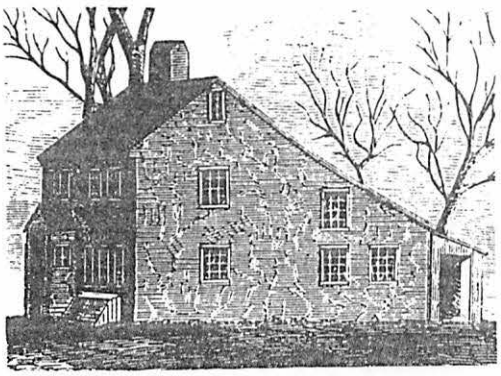
Appendix A - Nurse and Towne Families

FRANCIS NURSE, with his wife REBECCA TOWNE, is said to have emigrated from Yarmouth, County Norfolk, England. A tray maker and yeoman, he first appeared at Salem, Massachusetts, in 1640, aged 19 years. They were married there 24 August 1644. For some 40 years they lived near Skerry's on the North River, between the village of Salem and the ferry to Beverly. On 29 April 1678 he paid £400 to the Rev. James Allen for the 300-acre Townsend Bishop farm in present Tapleyville neighborhood at 149 Pine Street in Danvers, Mass. (See site #95 on the Map of Salem Village on page 5.)



NURSE HOUSE AT DANVERS

His wife Rebecca was accused of witchcraft, convicted, and hung on Gallows Hill at Salem 19 July 1692. Francis's will was made 4 December 1694, mentioning his four sons and four daughters, and his son-in-law William Russell. Francis died 22 November 1695, aged about 77 years. On 23 December 1695 his sons John and Samuel were appointed administrators of his estate, and William Russell was one of the sureties on their administration bond.

Francis and Rebecca (Towne) Nurse had the following children, all born at Salem:

i. John Nurse, b. ca.1645; d. 10 Dec. 1716; m. 1 Nov. 1672, Elizabeth Smith (1662-1673); m. (2) 17 Aug. 1677, Elizabeth Very.
ii. Rebecca Nurse, b. ca.1647; m. 15 Apr. 1669, Thomas Preston; d. 1719.
iii. Samuel Nurse, b. 3 Feb. 1649; d. 15 July 1715; m. 5 Apr. 1677, Mary Smith (1660-1716).
iv. Mary Nurse, m. 25 Oct. 1678, John Tarbell.
v. Francis Nurse, Jr., b. 3 Feb. 1661; d. 5 Feb. 1716; m. 15 Jan. 1685, Sarah Tarbell.
vi. Sarah Nurse, b. 1663; m. July 1700, Michael Bowden.
+ vii. Elizabeth Nurse, m. 25 Oct. 1678, William Russell.
viii. Benjamin Nurse, b. 26 Jan. 1665/6; d. 1748; m. (1) Thomasin Jameson; m. (2) 21 Feb. 1714, Elizabeth (Sawtelle) Morse.

WILLIAM TOWNE was baptized at Great Yarmouth, County Norfolk, England, 18 March 1598/9. He was married at Saint Nicholas Church, Yarmouth, 25 March 1620, to JOANNA BLESSING. They settled at Salem, Mass., by 11 August 1640, living in the part called Northfields until 1651, when they removed to Topsfield, where he died circa 1672, and she died circa 1682.

They had the following children, the first six of whom were baptized at St. Nicholas Church in Yarmouth, England:

+ i. Rebecca Towne, bp. 21 Feb. 1621; executed at Salem, 19 July 1692; m. Salem, 24 Aug. 1644, Francis Nurse.
ii. John Towne, bp. 16 Feb. 1624; d. unmarried.
iii. Susannah Towne, bp. 20 Oct. 1625; d. unmarried.
iv. Edmund Towne, bp. 28 June 1628; d. Topsfield, before 3 May 1678; m. Mary Browning.
v. Jacob Towne, bp. 11 Mch. 1632; d. Topsfield, 27 Nov. 1704; m. Salem, 26 June 1657, Catherine Simonds.
vi. Mary Towne, bp. 24 Aug. 1634; executed at Salem, 22 Sept. 1692; m. Isaac Esty.
vii. Sarah Towne, bp. Salem, 3 Sept. 1648; d. Framingham, Mass., 1703; m. (1) 11 Jan. 1660, Edmund Bridges; m. (2) Peter Cloyes; she also was accused of witchcraft.
viii. Joseph Towne, b. ca.1639; bp. Salem, 3 Sept. 1648; d. Topsfield, 1713; m. by 1665, Phebe Perkins.

William Russell - the progenitor

WILLIAM[1] RUSSELL was born in about 1647[1] and was first mentioned at Salem, Essex County, Massachusetts, on 20 January 1673/4[3] when Michael Shaflin[2] executed the following deed of gift:

To all people to whom these presents shall come, Michaell Shaflin of Salem, in the County of Essex, in New England, tailor, sendeth greeting: know ye that I the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin, for divers good causes & considerations me thereunto moving, with severall conditions & provisions hereafter expressed, & for that good will & afection I beare & have unto William Russell of the same place, fisherman: have given & granted & by these presents doe freely, clearely & absolutely give, grant & confirme, unto the s^{d} Wm. Russell, a certaine parcell of land, containing by estimation betweene one or two acres, be it more or less, as it lyes bounded & is lying to the west end of the land belonging or adjoyning to my now dwelling & is bounded, or is the strip or parcell of land lying betweene the highwaye & the brooke ... provided & it is understoood, & it is conditioned as the true intent & meaning of these presents, first that the s^{d} William Russell ... shal upon his ... owne cost & charges, sett up or make & maintaine forever, a sufficient stone wall fence for a partition fence between the land of me the s^{d} Shaflin & the premises from the highwaye downe to the river or brooke, secondly: the s^{d} William Russell is not to lett or hire it, to any other person or persons, provided I the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin ... will buy it, whoe are hereby to have the first refusall thereof, whenever the s^{d} William Russell ... shall sell the same; & thirdly, that in case the s^{d} Russell ... should in time to come sell the same to me the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin ... that it is to be understood & it is conditioned and agreed upon, that the stone wall afores^{d} is not to be included in the value of the s^{d} land, or house & land, but the s^{d} Shaflin or assignees paying for the s^{d} land, according to the due value thereof, or as any other will give (without the stone wall), the s^{d} stone wall is to be to the use & behoofe of the said Shaflin & his assignees forever, free & cleere. In witness whereof I the s^{d} Michaell Shaflin have sett to my hand & seale, this twentieth day of January in the yeare of our Lord God, one thousand, six hundred, seventy & three ....

The unusual language of this deed, which may be described as a deed of gift rather than a routine sale, rather definitely suggests that there was some relationship between Michael Shaflin and William Russell. Whether it was kinship or simply friendship we do not now know, but we do speculate that this deed may provide one of the few clues to the origin of William Russell. Because Shaflin and Russell had quite different occupations, Russell can not have been an employee of Shaflin. Shaflin was then about 68 years old and had been in Salem for 38 years, while Russell was about 26 years old and probably a newcomer to Salem.

One year later William Russell purchased additional land with a dwelling house near the Shaflin homestead.[4]

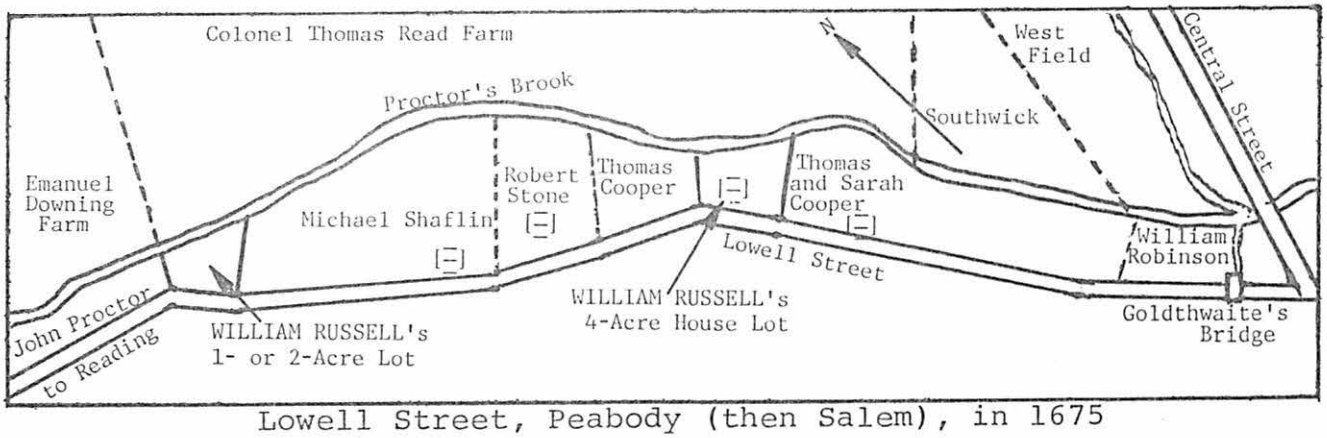
As indicated on the map below,[5] these two lots were in that part of Salem which is now Peabody. Known as Goodman Goldthwaite's Ward in the Middle Precinct of Salem when William Russell lived there, the area became part of Danvers in 1752. His neighbors to the east were Thomas Cooper and wife Sarah (widow of John Southwick). To the west lived Robert and Sarah (Shaflin) Stone on land owned by her father Michael Shaflin.



Lowell Street, Peabody (then Salem), in 1675

William Russell was a fisherman employed on Salem vessels. Among his friends was Elias Whittee, a fisherman employed by Russell's neighbor Robert Stone (son-in-law of the tailor Michael Shaflin). Whittee was drowned at Winter Island from an overloaded boat carrying fish ashore. The inventory of his estate, taken 20 July 1675, included his debt to William Russell of £1.10.0. The list of Whittee's personal possessions is given below to suggest the circumstances of a young unmarried fisherman of this period.[6]

One hatt, one caster hat, 4 yds. broad cloth, 12 yds. narrow cotton, 4 pr. shoes, 2 coates & 2 pr. of britches, 2 waistcoats, 3 old pr. drawers, a parcell of old cloaths, 2 shirts & 4 neckcloth, 1 pr. gloves, 1 gunn, 1 chest & a rayser, 1 line & hooks, one horse & a sadle, and mony Robt. Stone owes him. Total £11.9.11. Charges for his burien, £3.4.0; washing & lodging last winter and diet for five months, £4; for last summer, £1; mony lent him p Wm. Russell, £1.10. Total debts £9.14.0.

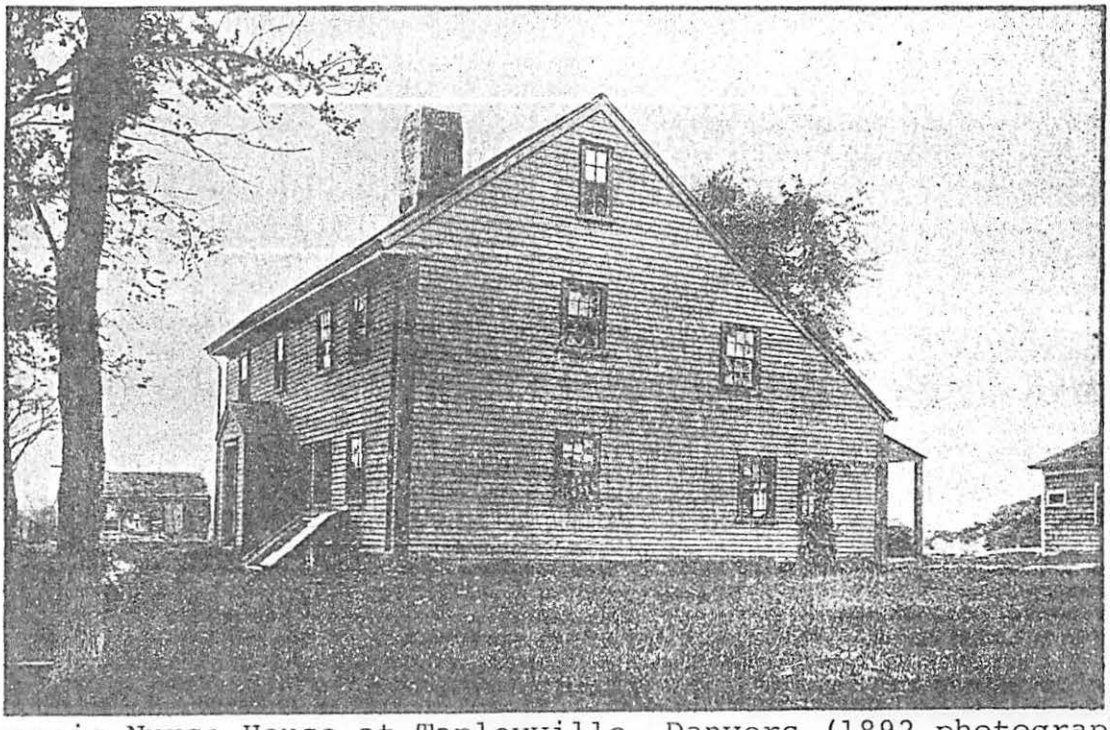
By deed dated 16 November 1677 Mary Ropes, widow and administratrix of George Ropes, deceased, sold for £20 a 20-acre parcel in Salem to William Russell and Thomas Greene.[7] The parcel was bounded on the east by land of Thomas Verry and north by land of Robert Wilson, and had originally been granted to George Ropes by the town of Salem. Agreeing to the sale were Mary Ropes' sons John, William, and Samuel Ropes, and her son-in-law John Homan.[8]

William Russell was among the residents of Goodman George Goldthwaite's Ward ordered on 25 March 1678/9 to appear at Salem Court to take the oath of allegiance.[9] As a freeman he became entitled to the rights and privileges of a permanent citizen of the town and colony. He then owned three parcels of land totaling about fifteen acres and a fairly new dwelling house on the highway from Salem to Reading, and was employed on Salem fishing vessels working the Grand Bank.

In 1678 on the 25th day of the eighth month [October, Old Style] William Russell and Elizabeth Nurse were married at Salem,[10] probably at her parents' new home in present Tapleyville, Danvers, the location of which is indicated as house number 95 on the Map of Salem Village, 1692. Elizabeth's father Francis Nurse, traymaker and yeoman, came to Salem in 1640 and married Rebecca, daughter of William and Joanna (Blessing) Towne from Yarmouth, Norfolk. (See Appendix A - Nurse and Towne Families.) By this marriage William Russell became allied with the Preston, Bowden, Tarbell, Estey, Cloyes, and Bridges families of Essex County.



Francis Nurse House at Tapleyville, Danvers (1892 photograph)

In 1682 William Russell was employed by Philip English, wealthy Salem merchant and shipowner who sponsored the emigration of many young men and women from the Channel Islands to Salem. Russell was shipped on a fishing voyage by his master English, being employed on the ketch Prosperous, Thomas Jegells, Jr., captain. On 30 June 1682 Jegells and others of the ship's company complained at Salem Court, charging Russell with swearing and threatening Jegell's life. He was found guilty, sentenced to be severely whipped, bound over to good behavior, and ordered to be kept in irons until the master and others should come to court and declare themselves satisfied.[11]

On 18 December 1682 William Russell, aged about 35 years, testified in the case of John Pudney, Jr. (convicted of hog stealing). Elizabeth Russell was mentioned in the testimony; she had had a conversation with John Pudney, Sr., at the house of Thomas Bovington in that month.[1] (The Buffingtons were neighbors of the Russells; their dwelling is number 145 on the 1692 map.)

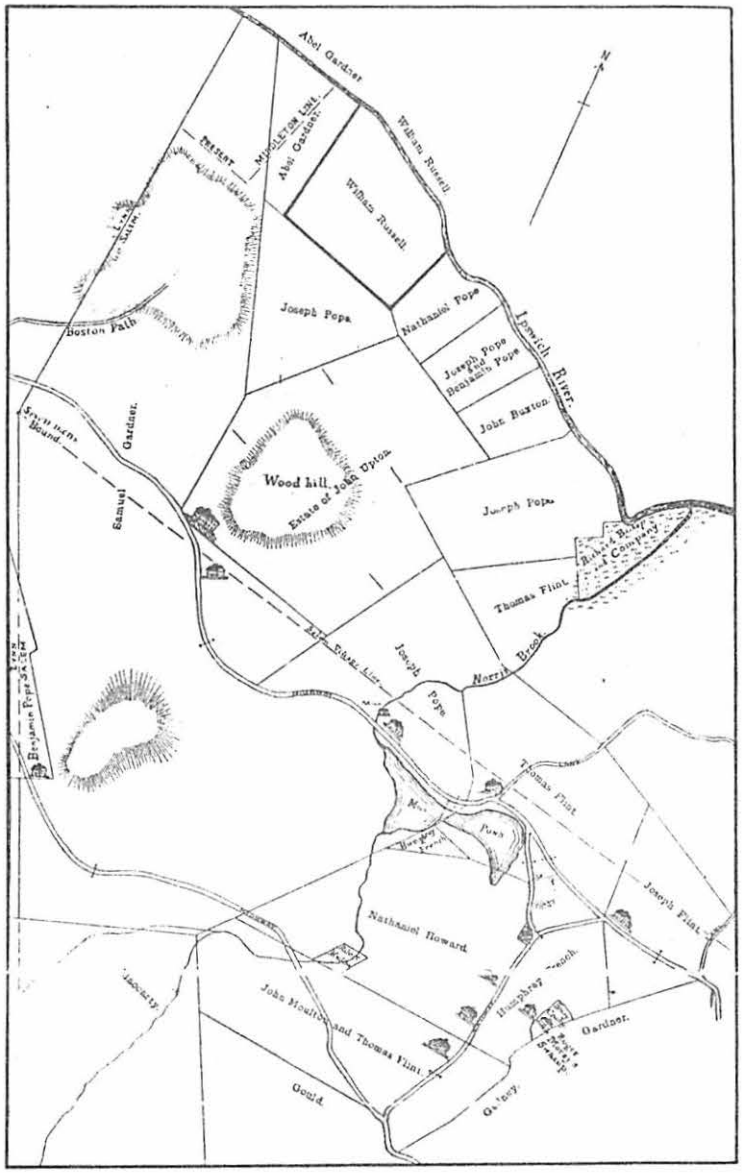
By deed dated 13 October 1685 William Russell of Salem, fisherman, sold all of his Salem property to Joseph Orne of Salem. The property was described as: the four-acre parcel with dwelling house (bounded east by Thomas Cooper and north by Robert Stone), the one- or two-acre parcel lying to the west end of land belonging to Goodman Shaflin (bounded west by John Proctor), and his half of the twenty-acre parcel bought in partnership with Thomas Greene. He signed the deed by mark "W" and acknowledged it when it was recorded 4 January 1685/6. His wife Elizabeth signed a statement 11 November 1686 relinquishing her one-third dower rights.[12]

In 1685 the family moved a few miles away to the town of Reading, Middlesex County, living in that part which was later established as North Reading.[13] The birth of their third child was recorded at Reading in 1688. In 1692 Elizabeth Russell's mother and two of her aunts and William's former employer Philip English and his wife were accused of practicing witchcraft. Rebecca (Towne) Nurse was convicted and executed (on Gallows Hill, point lettered "W" on the 1692 map).[14]

By deed dated 21 November 1694 Abel Gardner of Salem sold a 110-acre parcel in Salem to William Russell of Reading. The land lay on both sides of the Ipswich River and was bounded on the south by John Robinson and Richard Hollingsworth, on the east by Richard Hollingsworth, Joseph Pope, and land formerly belonging to John Sampson, on the north by the town common and Ensign Thomas Flint, and on the west by Abel Gardner.[15] The location of this farm is shown on the map on the following page; it was in Salem Village (later called Danvers).

William Russell and his wife Elizabeth were mentioned in her father's will dated 4 December 1694 at Salem Village, and William was appointed one of the sureties on the administrator's bond 23 December 1695.[16]

Still of Reading, on 27 February 1696/7 William Russell, yeoman, purchased land in Lynn from Josiah Southwick and land from Samuel



A Part of Salem Village in 1700

Paris.[17] In 1699 and 1700 William Russell was seated in the Salem Village meeting house in the third seat before the pulpit.[18] In the period 1703-1713 he paid taxes for the support of the Salem Village minister; in 1713 his tax was the eighth highest in the village.[19] At the town meeting 24 March 1706/7 he was elected one of five members of the town committee for 1707,[20] and in 1707 he was a signer of the minister's rate report.[21]

By deed dated 15 January 1715 his son William granted to him a four-pole-wide right-of-way from his land in Salem Village through his son's land to the highway.[22] On the same day he deeded about three acres at North Reading to his son William.[23] In a deed dated 18 February 1715 his land at Salem was mentioned as being on the down-river side of the Ipswich River adjoining that of his son William, Jr.[24]

On 3 January 1720/21 William and his wife Elizabeth were listed as members in full communion of the Second Church at Reading, though living at South Village (present Peabody) and attending the church at Lynnfield, not yet having been dismissed from the Reading church.[25] By transfer from the Reading church they were received into the Salem church 4 April 1725.[26]

William Russell made his will at Salem 11 January 1731/2. He bequeathed twelve pence each to the five [unnamed] children of his late son William Russell, deceased, and to the four [unnamed] children of his late son Jonathan Russell, deceased. To his son Benjamin Russell he bequeathed an iron chain and an iron spit. He gave two draft chains and cartwheel hoops to his son Ebenezer Russell. He left all the rest of his movable estate to his wife Elizabeth with the provision that upon her death one quarter of it should go to their son Benjamin and three quarters to son Ebenezer, whom he appointed co-executors. He signed his will by mark and it was witnessed by Joseph Swallow and Jonathan and Joseph Upton.[27] See the preceding page for a facsimile of the will.

William Russell having died, on 22 December 1733 his widow Elizabeth Russell signed a statement agreeing to the will, witnessed by Joseph Upton and Bartholomew Buxton, and the will was probated 24 December 1733 at Ipswich Court. At Salem on 28 February 1733/4 his heirs signed an agreement regarding the division of William's property. By this agreement his widow gave up her one-third dower right and inherited real estate to her son Benjamin and son Jonathan's widow Hannah Russell, in return for which they agreed to support her for the remainder of her life. Elizabeth, Benjamin, and Hannah Russell each signed the agreement by mark, and it was witnessed by Thomas Flint and Susannah Russell.[27] See the following page for a facsimile of this agreement.

In September 1710 the children of the executed witches petitioned for reversal of the attainder and restitution for the sufferings and wrongful deaths of their parents. Samuel Nurse represented the children of Rebecca (Towne) Nurse, and on 17 December 1711 the Governor ordered £25 damages be paid to them. William Russell and the other children or their spouses authorized Samuel Nurse to receive their payment, and on 19 February 1711/12 Elizabeth Russell signed receipt for her share.[14]

3. EBENEZER[2] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 7 March 1688, third son of William and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell.[29] In 1709 he paid tax for the support of the Salem Village (Danvers) Church.[43] His intention to marry was published at Andover, Mass., 14 June 1710, and on 25 September 1710 he and Deborah Hibbard were married at Andover.[44] She was born at Beverly, Mass., 19 July 1685, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Bond) Hibbard.[45]

Though Ebenezer paid Salem Village Church tax in 1718,[46] it appears that they lived in North Reading until as late as 1738. The births of their children were recorded at Reading 1712-1730. In 1720 he was a tax payer in the Reading Second Church precinct.[47] By his father's will dated 24 December 1733 Ebenezer was to inherit two draft chains and cartwheel hoops, was appointed co-executor and was to receive three-quarters of the real estate upon the death of his mother.[27]

By deed dated 11 June 1734 Daniel Eaton, Jr., and wife Hannah of Windsor, Conn., sold land in Ellington Parish, Windsor, to Ebenezer Russell, Sr., of Reading, Mass., yeoman, for £40. The land was described as "one certain piece or parcell of land lying in said Windsor, on the east side of the Great [Connecticut] River, being the lott of land laid out to the heirs of Jacob Gibbs of Windsor in the mile and half mile division, as the same is butted and bounded north on land laid out in said division to Josiah Phelps, Jr., east and west on the highway, and south on John Fyler in width thirty rods and a half."[48] Though Ebenezer did not immediately move to Ellington, his son Samuel was there in 1734. On 24 July 1738 Ebenezer, still of Reading, purchased more land at Ellington from Daniel Eaton of Windsor.[49]

Between 24 July 1738 and 3 April 1739 Ebenezer, his wife Deborah, and their younger children moved to Ellington Parish. By deed dated 3 April 1739 James Nichols of Windsor sold land in Ellington Parish to Ebenezer Russell, late of Reading, Mass., now resident of Windsor.[50] Of Windsor he sold land there to his son Ebenezer, Jr., of Salem, by deed dated 1 September 1740.[51] On 24 June 1741 he deeded land in Ellington Parish to his son William of Windsor.[52] In 1752 he was taxed for land in Ellington Parish.[53] By deed dated 15 January 1753 Ebenezer Russell of Windsor sold land in Ellington Society, Windsor, to his youngest son Ellis Russell.[54] On 14 July 1738, Ebenezer Russell of Reading sold land in East Windsor to his son Ebenezer, Jr., of Salem.[55]

Ebenezer Russell died at Ellington Parish, Windsor, Conn., between 15 September 1761 and 12 February 1762. His will is as follows:[56]

In the name of God, Amen, this fifteen day of September, Anno Dominis 1761 - I Ebenezer Russell of Windsor, being infirm of body but of disposing memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament. Imprimis, I resign my soul to God ... and my wordly estate I give and bequeath the same as followeth, my will is that my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate by my Executor. Item, I give to my loving wife Deborah all moveables in the house to be at her dispose. Item, I give to my son Ellis Russell all my real and personal estate, viz. house, barn, and land, and out door moveables, he to maintain my loving wife Deborah so long as she shall remain my widow; he also to pay out to my sons Ebenezer Russell, Samuel Russell, Nathan Russell, and to my daughter Deborah Macintire, and to my grandson William Russell to each of them ten shillings lawfull money only, except my son Nathan Russell whom I give besides the ten shillings my horse bridle and saddle. I nominate and appoint my son Ellis Russell Executor of this my last will and testament. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the fifteenth day of September Anno Domini 1761. Signed, sealed, published, and declared to be my last will and testament.

4. BENJAMIN[2] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., in about 1691, the youngest son of William and Elizabeth (Nurse) Russell.[27] He had reached age 21 by 1712, and was taxed at Salem Village (Danvers) for the support of the minister 1712-1718.[19] He and Sarah Elson were married at Salem on 18 June 1714.[58] She was born there 7 October 1692, a daughter of Samuel and Mary Elson.[59] Benjamin and Sarah had children baptized at the Salem South (Peabody) Church 1721-1738.[28]

Benjamin was a husbandman. He was appointed co-executor by his father's will dated 11 January 1731 at Salem.[27] Of Salem, he and Daniel Wilkins of Middleton signed a request for appointment of a guardian for his late brother Jonathan Russell's minor children, for whom a guardian was appointed at Salem Court 29 October 1733.[42] By an agreement dated 28 February 1733/4 he and his sister-in-law Hannah Russell (widow of Jonathan) agreed to support his mother Elizabeth Russell for the remainder of her life in exchange for her dower share in the estate of her husband William Russell, Sr.[27]

By deed dated 21 March 1765 he sold land to his son Benjamin, Jr.[60] He, or his son of the same name, was appointed administrator of the estate of Samuel Flint of Middleton 3 April 1769.[61]

No record is found of the deaths or probates of Benjamin or Sarah Russell in Essex County, and there were no other grantor deeds from him in Essex County 1729-1765.

Children of Benjamin and Sarah (Elson) Russell, all baptized at Salem South (Peabody) Church:[28]

21 i. Sarah Russell, bapt. 1 Sept. 1717; d. Sutton, Mass., 1738-41; m. Salem, 27 May 1736, Amos Goodale of Sutton; one child, Amos, b. Sutton, 23 Apr. 1738.[58,62,63]

+ 22 ii. Benjamin Russell, Jr., b. Salem Village (Danvers), 15 January 1718/19; bapt. 30 Aug. 1719.

23 iii. John Russell, bapt. 7 May 1721; d. before 1738.

24 iv. Mary Russell, bapt. 30 August 1724.

25 v. Elizabeth Russell, bapt. 21 September 1729; m. intention, Salem, 15 Dec. 1744, Jabez Hayward of Reading; had daughter Sarah b. Reading, 20 May 1756.[29,58]

+ 26 vi. John Russell, bapt. 5 November 1738.

17. NATHAN[3] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 2 September 1718, son of Ebenezer[2] and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] He and SARAH ———— were married in about 1742 and had children recorded at Windsor, Conn., in the period 1743-1758.[105] By deed dated 5 December 1749 Nathan sold 25 acres of "equivalent land" to his brother Samuel Russell of Windsor.[118] In 1752 he was taxed for land in Ellington parish, Windsor.[53] By deed dated February 1756 he bought land in Ellington from his brother Samuel Russell of Windsor.[120] To Nathan were bequeathed ten shillings and a horse bridle and saddle by his father Ebenezer's will dated 15 September 1761 at Ellington.[56]

Nathan Russell died shortly before 1 July 1799, on which date his son Hezekiah was bonded as administrator of the estate of Nathan Russell of Ellington, with Daniel Sampson of Stafford, Conn., as his surety. On 6 January 1800 the court ordered the sale of Nathan's estate.[130]

An old Russell house built by 1782 is thought to have been Nathan's. It is located on Old Somers Road just north of Crystal Lake Road on the west side of Russell Brook in Ellington.[131]

Nathan and Sarah Russell had the following children born at Ellington parish and recorded at Windsor, Conn.:[105]

67 i. Ruth Russell, b. 23 Aug. 1743; no further record.
+ 68 ii. Hezekiah Russell, b. 18 Mch. 1745.
69 iii. Mercy Russell, b. 11 Nov. 1751; had daughter Ruth Russell b. at Ellington 7 Apr. 1780, joined Ellington Church in 1822, and d. at Ellington 24 Jan. 1838.[132]
+ 70 iv. Elijah Russell, b. 14 Apr. 1754.

71 v. Sarah Russell, b. 3 July 1756; d. Ellington, 15 Dec. 1820, age 64; m. Ellington, 7 Nov. 1777, John Charter, Jr. (ca.1749-1826);[132] nine children recorded at Ellington 1779-1797.[132]

+ 72 vi. Nathan Russell, Jr., b. 15 July 1758

Possible child of Nathan and Sarah Russell:

73 vii. Isaac Russell, had son Joel Russell born at East Windsor, Conn., 16 July 1772.[133]

18. WILLIAM[3] RUSSELL was born at Reading, Mass., 18 May 1721, son of Ebenezer[2] and Deborah (Hibbard) Russell.[29] In about 1741-4 he married ELIZABETH ————. By deed dated 24 June 1741 he purchased land in Ellington parish, Windsor, Conn., from his father.[52] By deed dated 23 February 1741/2 he bought additional land in Ellington from his brother Samuel Russell.[112]

Of Windsor, he died intestate and on 1 July 1746 administration on his estate was granted to his father Ebenezer Russell and his relict Elizabeth Russell. Their account of his estate was approved by the court on 4 April 1747.[134]

The widow Elizabeth Russell was taxed for land in Ellington parish, Windsor, in 1752.[53] The will of his father Ebenezer Russell, dated 15 September 1761, named grandson William Russell.[56] At Windsor on 6 May 1762 William's widow Elizabeth Russell married Eleazer Kingsbury of Tolland, Conn.[105] In 1772 they and Ebenezer and William[4] Russell sold land in Ellington parish, East Windsor.

Only known child of William and Elizabeth Russell:

+ 74 i. William Russell, Jr., b. ca.1742.

68. HEZEKIAH[4] RUSSELL was born in Ellington parish, Windsor, Conn., 18 March 1745, oldest son of Nathan[3] and Sarah Russell.[105] He died at Orwell, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, 3 January 1823.[300] In the late 1760s he married LYDIA GROVER, as his first wife. She was born ca. 1745-1746, probably a daughter of Ebenezer and Zerviah (Larrabee) Grover of Tolland, Conn.[301] She died at Orwell, Pa., 11 October 1819, age 73 years.[302] She and Hezekiah are buried in Orwell Valley Cemetery, 8th row.[300] Captain Hezekiah Russell, age 78, and Mrs. ELEANOR OSBORNE, age 74, both of Orwell, were married by the Rev. Elihu Buttles, 22 October 1822.[303]

From Ellington Parish, East Windsor, Conn., Hezekiah was a Private in Charles Ellsworth's Ellington Parish Train Band Company, which in April 1775, after the Lexington Alarm, marched from East Windsor to the relief of Boston, eleven days service, including six days of travel. In 1776 he served in Captain Fitch's Company, Lt. Col. Pitkin's 19th Regiment, which arrived for the defense of New York City 24 August 1776. Total of 27 days service, including 14 days travel (144 miles from N.Y.); discharged 6 September 1776. He is said to have served throughout the War and to have been at the Battle of Bunker Hill.[304]

By deed dated 26 November 1781 Hezekiah received land at Tolland Center, Conn., by judgment from Joseph Kilburn.[305] On 6 December 1785 he was appointed a member of the East Windsor school committee. He was a voter at East Windsor 12 September 1786.[110] In 1786 he was Ellington Town surveyor of highways and tax collector.[306] In 1790 he was head of family at Ellington, with three men age 16 or more, two boys under age 16, and nine females.[178] Of Ellington, by deed dated 28 March 1799 he was deeded land in North District, Tolland Town, by Abijah Ladd.[307]

On 1 July 1799 he was bonded as administrator of his father's estate at Ellington.[130] In 1799 he and his wife were members of the Ellington Congregational Church.[110] He was head of family at Ellington in 1800, he and wife age over 45, with male and female age 16 to 25, and male and female age 10 to 15.[308] By deed dated 20 May 1807 he deeded land in Lord District, Tolland Township, to Roswell Russell.[309] On 7 April 1812 he and Roswell Russell received a mortgage loan for land at Lord District from Samuel Cutter.[310] He was excommunicated from the Ellington Congregational Church in April 1813.[110]

Before 1812 they settled at Orwell Hill, Ransom Corners, in Orwell Township, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, where his son Dan had previously settled. Hezekiah was a voter in Orwell Township in 1812, and a member of the Orwell Library Company.[311] In 1820 he was living alone in Orwell Township, age over 45 years, next door to his children Roswell, Hezekiah, and Roxanna.[312]

Children of Hezekiah and Lydia (Grover) Russell, all probably born at Ellington, Conn. [order uncertain]:

207 i. Mary/"Polly" Russell, m. Stephen Colton; lived in Vt., settled at Rootstown, Portage Co., Ohio, 1805.

208 ii. Hannah Russell, m. [—?—] Merriam; remained in Conn.

210. MICHAEL[5] RUSSELL was born in Ellington Parish, Tolland County, Conn., circa 1770-1771, son of Hezekiah and Lydia (Grover) Russell. In about 1791 he married MARY/"POLLY" GREEN. She was buried in the Old Rome Cemetery on the Parks Farm, Bradford County, Pa. Later in his life Michael lived with his son Michael on Sugar Creek near Towanda, Bradford County, Pa., where he died in Burlington Township, and was buried in Pail Factory Cemetery.

They moved from Connecticut before 1800 and settled in what was then Ulster Township, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, where Michael was head of family in 1800, he and wife aged 26 to 44, with another woman aged over 45, and three boys and one girl aged under 10. His brother Daniel also lived there then.[598] When Orwell Township was established from Ulster Township in 1802, Michael was elected one of the first supervisors, 1802-1804.[592] He was taxed there in 1804 and 1812-1813, and a voter in 1812.[597] He was head of family in Orwell Township in 1810, his household comprised of a man and woman aged 45 or more, a man and woman aged 26 to 44, and man aged 16 to 25, one boy 10 to 15, two boys and two girls aged under 10. He owned one card of cotton or wool, two wool or linen wheels, three horses, twelve horned cattle, and some sheep, and had made 100 yards of cloth in the past year, but did not own a loom.

By deed dated 29 January 1814 Micha Russell of Orwell Township sold 200 acres there for $700 to John and Amasa Dimmick of Orwell Township, bounded north by Micha Russell, Jr., east by John and Amasa Dimmick, south by Dan Russell, and west by unsettled land. By deed dated 11 January 1819 Michael Russell, now of Wysox Township, sold to Hezekiah Russell, 3rd, of Wysox Township, for $100, 37 acres in Wysox Township, bounded north by Michael Russell, Jr., east and west by unknown owner, and south by Samuel H. Gore.

In 1820 Michael was head of family in Wysox Township, Bradford County, a farmer, he and wife aged 45 or more, with two males aged 16 to 18, one female aged 16 to 25, one boy and one girl aged 10 to 15. He was back in Orwell Township for the 1830 Census, he and wife aged 50 to 59, with one man aged 20 to 29, living two houses away from Hezekiah Russell.

Michael and Mary (Green) Russell had the following children:[598]

i. [daughter], b. 1790-1800.

+ 487 ii. Michael Russell, Jr., b. Conn., 1792-1793.

+ 488 iii. Hezekiah Russell, b. 26 June 1795.

489 iv. William Russell, m. Mary/"Polly" Elliott [daughter of John and Elizabeth (Snyder) Elliott of Sheshequin, Pa.]

+ 490 v. Reuben Russell, b. Ulster Twp., Pa., 29 Aug. 1800

(2) William Strope (b. 6 Mch. 1804, son of Isaac and Abigail Strope; d. 10 Apr. 1890); eight Strope children.

492 vii. Sarah/"Sally" Russell, b. Orwell Twp., 7 Apr. 1805; d. 8 Nov. 1862; m. (1) Isaac Vought (1804-1838); m. (2) David Eiklor (1815-1860).

490. REUBEN M.[6] RUSSELL was born in Ulster Township, Luzerne County [now Orwell Township, Bradford County], Pennsylvania, 29 August 1800, son of Michael and Polly (Green) Russell. He died in Rome Township, Bradford County, 29 December 1875, from injuries suffered in a fall out of a hay mow, and is buried in Rome Cemetery. In about 1826 he married SARAH EIKLOR. She was born in Pennsylvania 16 November 1808, a daughter of Andrus and Catherine (Vought) Eiklor, and died 27 November 1877.

By deed dated 1 November 1827 Reuben and Sally Russell of Orwell sold to Peter Allen of Wysox a two-acre parcel on Wysox Creek in Orwell called "Nut Grove," which had been deeded to Russell by Thomas Eddy 31 October 1823. Both signed by mark. Reuben was head of family in Orwell Township in 1830, living near Hezekiah Russell. In 1840 and 1850 he was head of family in Rome Township. In 1850 he was listed as a farmer with real estate valued at $3000.[810]

Reuben and Sarah (Eiklor) Russell had the following children, all born in Bradford County, Pennsylvania:[811]

This was written by Don F. Russell January 1969.

The Russell families had a real part in the early history of Dayton. Grand father F. F. Russell brought his family by wagon train from Russell Kansas in 1884. They settled on the south Touchet river. My father James E. Russell was 9 years old. He started his schooling at the Redford school on Jasper mouantain. It was a long hard climb and walk through the cattle and brush. He said a bull run him up a tree one time where he had to stay for a long time. He finaly tired and went off to feed. This was pretty rough for kids but a lot of them had to do such things.

The town was a medley of buildings strung for 3 blocks up Main street, about as they are now but not near so nice. The Stores Specilized in mostly one line of goods, groceries, or meat, hardware, shoes, drygoods. Jim Edwards was one exception. He carried both groceries, and cloths. The furniture stores were mostly second hand stores. Lars Neilson was about the only Machinery Store. The hardware stores sold some machinery.

The farmers only paid there bills once a year after they sold their wheat in the fall. All other credit was every 30 days. The business had a practice of going from door to door, up and down main street to collect what they owed each other the first of every month.

We had 2 Banks, Broughton National, and Columbia National. I always thought they made you feel like a culprit if you wanted to borrow any money, it was not that way really money was scarce, and few had very much.

The town had 2 or 3 Livery Stables which were always busy. 2 or possibly 3 Black smith shops, which were kept quite busy keeping the farm machinery in shape the farmers did not have shops like they have now. And besides they had to shoe horses, which was a big business in those days, every thing was done by teams. Oscar Torrence had a wagon makeing shop in the back, and Dan Burchett made wagons. One of the big jobs the smiths had to do was to reset the wagon tires, they had to be ~~hot~~ heat real hot, then shrink back on the wheel, quite a trick.

Harvest was always a big event every year, when the big harvest outfits were pulled into the fields. Bill Woodward, George Price, and many others, had large crews of men.. Bill Woodward used to run 3 headers, 4 header boxes to the header, 2 large water tanks to haul the water for the stock and the large cook house, and Steam engine. The water haulers had to move all the feed racks, the cook wagon, and any other thing that needed to be moved. The large seperator was moved by the engine. There was also several grain tanks that hauled the grain to the elevator. 40 men was the usual crew. Sam, and Orley were the big bosses, and they were kept busy keeping all the wagon skinners on the ball. They worked long hours, but fed us like kings.

The combines finely came along they harvested the wheat in one operation, and saved a lot of men, then each farmer could harvest his own grain. The first big Holt machines were ground power, the big bull wheel drove all the machinery, and it took 40 head of horses to pull the rig, and 5 men to operate it. Then came the gasoline engines, and every thing has changed, now 1 man runs the whole thing. They used to sack the grain, and haul it in grain wagons pulled by for horses, and the roads were lined with wagons 60 sacks was a large load. There were lines of them at the elevators, and mills.

Horse trading was a big business, and if you was in the mood to trade horses you had better know horse flesh pretty good or you were pretty apt to get swindled as they handled the truth very lightly, and would tell you anything to make a sale.

On the 4th of July they had big celebrations, and dance platforms were built around at diffrent groves. I remember the one at Mountain Home Park. Dell Thompson owned the grove and built the platform, and run the celebration. There were pop and firecracker stands.

Our family along with many others would go with wagons, heavy loaded with tents, bedding, and lots of good food to last a week. My dad Jim Russell was the old fiddler, and furnished the music they danced after noon and in the evining, and a big time was had by all. We kids used to get a big bang our of throwing fire crackers under the platform while they danced. We can still remember the hard beds we had made from fur bows. But we still had lots of fun.

My father was only 21 when he built his first home on brooklyn hill in 1896. It was a beautiful place to live. W e had few neighbors and lots of elbo room a large garden, berries, small orchard, and barn. We had a large holstein cow that gave lots of milk, and a team of horses. We used to stake the cow on the hill as it was then open country.

We used to sit on the porch on the long evenings, it was so peaceful, after a hot day. The noises of the town used to drift up to us, we could even hear folks talking. The bells of the town rang out so clear. We knew from the sound which one was ringing, all the churches had a bell, on sunday morning it was a great medely. Of course the big school bell would ring every school day.

My folks both worked very hard. mother canned all the fruit and vegetables, milked the cow, made the butter, gathered the eggs. Dad had 160 acres of wood land on the whitney creek branch of the wolf fork, of the touchet. We had a nice log cabin. He made lots of wood and hauled it to town I don't think he got over $2.50 per cord for it but a lot of people made their living that way. Lots of people lived on the diffrent creeks them days.

My Dad worked mostly for the city of dayton, he was water superintendant for a long time. He had a lot to do with the early pipe, and sewer work of Dayton. He had to have charge of the crews of men that were used to dig the diches. He finlly bought a plumbing shop of his own, and worked for him self for many years, till retirement. Milt Koch ran the tin shop in the same building with him for many years.

I received my education in the Dayton schools. My first school was on Dayton Avenue, where I went 2 years. There was the big school on third street, where all the rest of the grades was housed through High school. I worked mostly on the farms. We had to drive mostly eight horse teams on the plows, and harrows. We had to stay on the farms, and we received room and board plus $2.50 per 10 hour day. They would bring us to town on saturday night and come and get us on sunday evenings.

Apple growing was a large part of of our economy it brought thousands of dollars into our county, they gave work to many people young and old. And spread much business up and down main street. Loren Dumas, Omer Erbs, E. S. Ryerson, plus several smaller growers. These men made a big contribution not only to Dayton but the apples were shipped every place. A lot of goodthings could be said about the apple growers. Their lot has not been easy.

I was married to Winnie Startin in 1923. The war was over and the markets were beginning to slip. Conditions every year was getting worse. People could not pay their bills work was hard to come by and wages were growing smaller. Folks were beginning to lose about every thing they had, in 1929 the big crash came. Many farmers lost there farms, town folks lost their homes. Then President Rosevelt took over he organized the W.P. A. and a lot of other things, and saved the day.

I went into the Painting business along about 1927, and worked for 40 years. The last 20 we owned our own Paint and Wallpaper store on main street. where we gained many good friends, and customers. I worked for some of them for 25 years or better.

I was born in 1902, and believe that my generation has seen more advancement than any other since the world begun. The electric light, the phone, Car, Steam engine. Radio, and all the modern machinery we have to day, it has been fantastic. There has always been lots of churches in Dayton, and I found God early in my life. and it has been a privilage to serve him all these years.

We have not had a large place in Dayton althow we have lived hear all our life, we have gave a life of service to the people of Dayton. We hope the roads we have made, and the bridges we have made humanity will be better off by our passing this way.

Written January 1969. Don F. Russell.

Russell family settled in Payne Hollow

The family of James Eugene Russell

Thank you to Delores Robanske who submitted the following information.

James Eugene Russell was born in Windham, Pennsylvania on March 29th, 1874. In 1884 he moved with his parents to Dayton.

The Russell family made it's first home in the new territory at the head of Payne Hollow. They later moved to a homestead North of Dayton, close to the New Hope school house. At this site, James Russell learned to dance and play the fiddle. For the last sixty years of his life, he was an old-time fiddler.

While he lived in Dayton, James Russell worked at a variety of tasks. He operated his own plumbing shop, worked for the City of Dayton for 17 years, and at one time served as the City's Water Superintendent.

After he retired, he was an active member of the Columbia County Pioneer Association, and served as its president at one time.

In October of 1895, James Russell married Minnie May Burtchett. They made the Dayton area their home, and reared their family of five children there. The children were born in the original family home, built a little at a time, on Brooklyn hill, by James. The Brooklyn hill is now more commonly known as reservoir hill on Whitman Street.

In 1913-14, James Russell had a new house built on the old McCubbins property on North Cottonwood Street. When the structure was completed, the Russell family moved in, and the residence became the family home for the rest of their lives.

James and Minnie Russell were parents of the following descendants:

Floyd Eugene Russell, born April 15, 1897 in Dayton; died December 16, 1944 in Dayton.

Carolyn (Carrie) Russell Woodward, born October 24, 1899 in Dayton; died February 20, 1938 in Dayton.

Don Franklin Russell, born August 29, 1902; still living in Dayton.

James Harold Russell, born November 28, 1904 in Dayton; died October 31, 1973 in Dayton.

Edna Faye Russell Quigg Speelman, born June 2, 1911 in Dayton; still living in Dayton.

Grandchildren of James Russell still living in Dayton are Hubert Russell, LaRita White, David Quigg and Delores Robanske.

RUSSELL GENEALOGICAL HISTORY
ACCORDING TO AN INQUIRY IN "THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER (NOV. 1976)

William Russell of unknown parentage or origin, first appears at Salem, Massachusetts, December 1674, a fisherman. He was married October 25, 167 8 to Elizabeth Nurse in Salem, Massachusetts. He died shortly before December 22, 17 33 (probate). His wife was a daughter of Francis and Rebecca (To wne) Nurse and was living in 1734 with a son Benjamin at Danvers, Massachusetts. Rebecca (Towne) Nurse and her sister were tried, convicted and hung for being witch es in Salem in 1692.

Ebenezer Russell was born at No rth Reading, Massachusetts March 7, 1688 and died at Ellington Connecticut, between September 15, 1761 (will) and February 12, 1762 (probate). He married Deborah H ibbard at Andover, Massachusetts, Septe mber 25, 1710. She was born at Beverly Massachusetts July 19, 1685, the daughter o f Samuel and Mary (Bond) H ibbard; and died after her husband, probably at Ellington, Connecticut.

Nathan Russell was born at Reading, Massachusetts, September 2 1718; and died at Ellington, Connecticut, 17 99 (administration) H e married ca 1742 Sarah-----

Captain Hezekiah Russell was born in Ellington Parish March 18, 1745; and died at Orwell Pennsylvania January 3, 1823 and is buried in Orwell Valley Cemetery, 8th row. He married ca 1766-70, Lydia--- who was born 1745-46 and died October 11, 1819, age 73; buried with husband (inscription).

Michael Russell was born probably in Ellington, Connecticut, ca 1771 and died at Sugar Creek, Towanda, Pennsylvania. Buried in Pail Factory Cemetery. Married ca 1788-9, Polly Green born ca 1771 and buried in Old Rome Cemetery o n Parks Farm.

Reuben M. Russell was born in Ulster Township, Lu zerne County, Pennsylvania, August 29, 18 00; and died at Rome Township, Bradford County, Pe nnsylvania, December 29, 1875. (Inscriptiom, Rome Cemetery) He married ca 1826-7 in Pennsylvania to Sarah Eiklor. She was born in Pennsylvania, No vember 16, 1808, daughter of Andrus and Catherine (Vought) Eiklo r and is buried at Ro me, Pennsylvania. Their son Franklin's age was given as 8 in the 1850 census at Rome Township.

This is not 100certian that positive proof shows Michael Russell was Rueben Russell's father, just circumstantial evidence. Census records show there were only four Russells in the area, (Bradford County Pennsylvania) in 1800 who had families. Alban Russell of Braintrin To wnship (which is not in the immediate area), William of Wilksbarrie (which is far to the southwest) and Dan and Michael Russell of Ulster Township. Ul ster Township was later re-named Orwell and Rome Townships and is wh ere Franklin Russell was born. Dan and Michael were brothers as noted in Heverly's "History of Bradford County, Pennsylvania", published in 1926. Craft's "History of Bradford County" published in 1878 proves H ezekiah was Dan's fathe: and Dan's children are mentioned.

In the 1810 census there were three Russells listed in Orwell Township; Dan, Michael and Edmund. None of Edmunds children were born before 1810.

This is not 100% certain. I have not yet found positive proof that MICHAEL RUSSELL was RUEBEN RUSSELL'S FATHER. There is circumstantial evidence, however. Census records show there were only four RUSSELLS in the area (BRADFORD COUNTY PENN.) in 1800 who had families. ALBAN RUSSELL of BRAINTRIN TOWNSHIP (which is not in the immediate area), WILLIAM of WILKSBARRIE (which is far to the southwest), and DAN and MICHAEL RUSSELL of ULSTER TOWNSHIP. Ulster Township was later renamed ORWELL and ROME Townships and is where FRANKLIN RUSSELLwas born. DAN and MICHAEL were brothers I've found from Heverly's "HISTORY OF BRADFORD CO. PENN." published in 1926. I had already found all of DAN'S children and thet his father was HEZEKIAH from CRAFTS' "HISTORY OF BRADFORD CO." published in 1878.

In the 1810 census there were three RUSSELLS listed in ORWELL TOWNSHIP, DAN, MICHAEL AND EDMUND. I have found all of EDMUNDS children, and he had no sons born before 18 10.

There is a question as to when RUEBEN was born. The 1850 census lists him as 40, the 1860 census as 60, and the 1870 census as 75 years old. I'm sure it is the same RUEBEN as his wife was SALLY each time. All three list his birth place as PENN. I'M guessing he was born about 1800. But in any case, only MICHAEL could have been his father if he was born in ORWELL between 1800 and 1810. Two RUSSELL'S Dan Jr. and RUEBEN are the only RUSSELLS listed in ROME in 1850. DAN Jr. is the son of DAN, and Dan was the brother of MICHAEL.

HEZEKIAH RUSSELL born about 1745, probably in TOLLAN COUNTY, PENN. Died Jan 3, 1823 in Bradford County Penn. Revolutionary War Veteran. Fought in the battle of Bunker Hill. First wife, LYDIA. Second wife ELEANOR OSBORNE. SOME OF HIS CHILDREN-----
1. DAN born 1770 in Conn. Died 1850 Bradford Penn.
2. MICHAEL born about 1770 to 1775 in Conn.
3. ROSEWELL born about 1786
4. ROXANNA
5. HEZIKIAH

MICHAEL RUSSELL, listed in 1800 census of Penn. as having 4 children and by 1810--6 children. Wife's name unknown. Among children --
1. Michael born 1793 in Conn. Still alive in 1870.
2. Rueben born probably about 1800, wife SALLIE born about 1810

RUEBEN'S CHILDREN----
1. HIRAM? born about 1828. Probably not a son but lived in house-1850
2. MILES bo rn about 1835
3. CHARLES born about 1837
4. FRANKLIN born Feb 18, 1841--father of JAMES
5. STEPHEN born 1843.
6. MAHALA born 1845

There is a question as to when Rueben was born. The 1850 census lists him as 40, the 1860 census as 60, and the 1870 census as 75 years old. Rueben's wife was listed as Sally each time. All three lists his birth place as Pennsylvania. He possibly was born about 1800. In any case only Michael could have been his father is he was born in Orwell between 1800-1810. Two Russells, Dan, Jr. and Rueben are the only Russells listed in Rome in 1850. Dan Jr is the sone of Dan and Dan was the brother of Michael. They were the sons of Captain Hezekiah. Russell born about 1745, probably in Tollan County, Pennsylvania. Died January 3, 1823 in Bradford County Pennsylvania. He was a Revolutionary War Veteran and fought in the battle of Bunker Hill. His first wife was Lydia---. His second wife was Eleanor Osborne. His children were:---

1. Dan born 1770 in Connecticut. Died 1850 in Bradford, Pennsylvania.

2. Michael born 1770-75 in Connecticut.

3. Rosewell born 1786

4. Roxanna

5. Hezekiahah

Michael Russell, born 1771 in Ellington Connecticut was the father of Rueben M. Russell born August 29, 1800 in Ulster Township, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania. He married Sarah Eiklor. They had six children

1. Hiram born about 1828. Probably not a son but lived in the house--1850.

2. Miles born 1835

3. Charles born 1837

X 4. Franklin born February 18, 1841 (father of James)

5. Stephen born 1843

6. Mahala born 1845

Our family history begins with Franklin Francis Russell born February 18, 1841 in Rome, Bradford County, Pennsylvania. He married Esther Melissa Velia, born May 12, 1843 in Port Bryon, New York. Seven children were born to this union;-----

1. Issac Franklin Russell, born June 7 , 1863 in Windham, Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Died 1945 in Moscow, Idaho.

2. Sarah Anna Russell Gower, born June 5, 1865 in Windham, Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Died June 24, 1891 at her father's home on the South Touchet, Dayton, Washington

3. Ruby (Rueben) Jane Russell Passow Fain, born July 19 1867, in Windham, Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Died Feb 1944 at Washtucna Washington.

4. Emily B. Russell-Born July 6, 1868, Litchfield, Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Died March 27 , 1869, Windham, Bradford County Pennsylvania.

5. James Eugene Russell, born March 29, 1874, Windham, Bradford County, Pennsylvania. Died May 20, 1953 at his home in Dayton, Washington

6. Lola Melissa Russell Gemmell (Schroder, Stowe) born August 26, 1880 at Russell, Russell County, Kansas. Died. May 7, 1957 at Walla Walla, Washington.

7. George Velia Russell born October 23 , 1885 in Columbia County Dayton, Washington. Died in Lewiston, Idaho.

Family facts of Franklin Frances Russell aren't too well known to the family. We know he was a carpenter. In Pennsylvania the family lived in a large house that boasted two or three stories high. The upper story of the house was used as a ballroom for ballroom dancing by the community, also for other festive occasions.

The family left Pennyslvania when James was four years old to migrate to Kansas. Frank Russell "felt hemmed in" and decided to find wider spaces. This he found in Kansas for a short time. The lure of the west in general and Columbia County in Washington in particular--as related by a brother ## who had been here earlier was not to be denied.

The town of Russell, Russell County, Kansas was founded by an uncle of Franklin Russell. Russell and Waddell were freighters and their families were massacred at Russell Kansas. The old family home in Kansas, now in the center of a huge oil field, is maintained by the oil firm which now owns it. Lola Melissa Russell was born in this stone house that is now a historical shrine. The house had been built by F.F. Russell.

James E. Russell was ten years old when he came to Dayton with his parents from Kansas in 1884. The family had started their westward trek six years earlier from Pennsylvania. The Russell family joined (126) a 128 wagon emigrant train to come west. At Greeley, Colorado the wagon train was held up for several days. Indians had just ambushed a group of settlers and had massacred the lot. Soldiers from the fort accompanied the train for several days when it finally got under way once again as it traveled through Indian country.

Mules and horses supplied motive power for the wagons. Emigrants from Missouri and Arkansas used mules while those from Kansas utilized horses.

The wagon train came west over the OLd Oregon Trail through LaGrande, Pendleton, Walla Walla and thence to Dayton, reaching this tiny settlement after a three months journey from Greeley. The Russell family was the only one reaching Dayton, as the others left the train at Boise, Walla and various towns along the way. In Salt Lake City, the Mormons tried to talk F.F. Russell to stop there, they offered him a good deal but his wife wouldn't permit it.

The families used Buffalo chips for their campfires. Theye were bleached and dried bones piled high which were used as fences for homes along the way or as barricades as needed.

The first home of the Russell family in the new territory was at the head of what is now Payne Hollow. They later moved to a homestead north of Dayton close to the New Hope school house. There is where James learned to dance and play the fiddle. He has been an old time fiddler for the last 60 years preceding his death.

This is not 100% certain. I have not yet found positive proof that Michael Russell was Rueben Russells father. There is circumstantial evidence, however. Alban Russell of Braintrin Township (which is not in the immediate area), William of Wilksbarrie (which is far to the southwest), and Dan and Michael Russell of Ulster Township. Ulster Township was later renamed Orwell and Rome Townships and is were Franklin Russell was born. Dan and Michael were brothers, I've found fr Heverly's "History of Bradford Co., Penn." published in 1926. I had alrady found all of Danns' children and that his father was Hezekiah from Crafts' "History of Bradford Co." published in 1878.

In the 1810 census ther were three Russells lisbed in Orwell Township: Dan, Michael and Edmund. I have found all of Edmunds children, and he had no sons born before 1810.

There is a question as to when Rueben was born. The 1850 census lists him as 40, the 1860 census as 60, and the 1870 census as 75 years old. I'm sure it i same Rueben ashis wife wasSally each time. All three list his birth place as Penn. I'm guessing he was born about 1800. But in all case, only Michael could habe been his father if he was born in Orwell between 1800 and 1810. Two Russells, Dan Jr. and Rueben are the only Russells listed in Rome in 1850. Dan Jr. is the son of Dan, Dan was the brother of Michael.
