Pruitts Celebrate 50th Anniversary

—Photos by Strode's Dawn Ray Studio.

Saturday, October 1, marked the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Pruitt, when the couple celebrated with their four children and guests who were present for the happy occasion.

The serving table was beautifully decorated with a white lace cloth centered with the three-tiered wedding cake with yellow rose buds and "50th Wedding Anniversary" inscribed and flanked on each side with yellow tapers. Red rosebuds, a gift from the couple's granddaughter, Mrs. Les Wolfgram, Boise, Idaho, made up the floral arrangements.

Mr. Pruitt was born in Roscoe, Missouri, 1885, and came west with his family in 1901. Mrs. Pruitt was born in Columbia county, at what is known as Baileysburg, in the year 1888, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Hatley, early time residents of Columbia county. The couple were married October 1, 1905, in the home now owned by Mrs. Joe Casteel, 601 E. Richmond. They have lived most of the time in Columbia county, other than the few years spent in southern Idaho, farming before returning to Dayton.

Five children were born to the couple, Delbert, Olive, Charles D. and Laura, one baby passing away in infancy.

Here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pruitt, Carlin, Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Pruitt, Roy, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ramsey, Carol and Janie, Mrs. Charles Tyacke, Mrs. Pruitt's sister, her daughter, Sharon, and son, Bill Ruddell, North Bend. This is the first time the family have all been together in twenty-nine years.

Taken from the 1905 files of the Columbia Chronicle was the following item:

"Doc" Pruitt and Jennie Hatley were married by Justice Holman Sunday last at the residence of the judge.

Former Dayton Man Battles With Thugs

From Seattle come blazing headlines about the capture of car thieves by State Patrolman Dude Pruitt, formerly a Dayton city patrolman. Art Enter sent us part of the story and a local resident brought us in the story from the Times, part of which follows:

Desperately fighting off a combined attack of blazing gunfire and a lead bludgeon, State Patrolman D. H. Pruitt routed two desperadoes in the quiet streets of Bothell at 11:45 o'clock last night.

Patrolman Pruitt had no idea when he stopped the car on the streets of Bothell last night that it had been stolen a few hours before in Seattle.

"I only knew that they were driving with only their road lights on," Pruitt said.

Pruitt drove his patrol car in front of the other automobile and then returned to the driver, asking him for his identification and automobile registration cards.

The driver reached in his pocket, supposedly to get the identification. He lashed out with a lead bludgeon clenched in his fist. The blow struck Pruitt in the mouth. Meanwhile the driver jumped out of the car in a desperate effort to obtain Pruitt's gun.

Pruitt still was staggering under the original blow. He looked up into the face of the other man in the car. That man had ducked to the rear end of the automobile and was about to fire a gun point-blanket into Pruitt's face.

The sound of the shot echoed a split second after Pruitt had ducked.

Pruitt fell under the impact of a second attack. At this point he was kicked in the face and another bullet thudded past his ears.

Pruitt scrambled to his feet and grabbed the driver in his arms as a third shot rang through the air. By this time the driver, Melvin Taylor, 24, was yelling, "Mike, come give me a hand. He's getting the best of me!"

Instead, the other man, Norman Adams, 26, turned and fled into the darkness. And Taylor seeing that the odds were now against him, plunged into a hollow at the side of the road.

He failed to stop when Pruitt ordered him to halt and Pruitt emptied his gun at the fleeing man, wounding him in the left arm and leg.

A dragnet was set around Bothel immediately and as a result of this Adams was captured hiding in the brush three blocks away. He was taken back to the scene and identified by Pruitt as the man who had shot at him.

Adams denied that he ever had been in the automobile with Taylor.

Meanwhile the sheriff's dog trailed the wounded man to a swamp, where they lost the trail.

Six hours later Taylor knocked at the door at the home of Maud Dawson and said that he had been injured in a scrap with police. The woman called the telephone operator, who notified the officers who were surrounding the area when their man had turned up.

Pruitt said that Taylor implicated Adams when he was taking the injured man to the hospital.

Hospital attendants said Taylor's condition was not critical.

Ben J. Pruitt Dies After Long Illness

Lived Here 30 Years—Is Survived By 11 Children.

Ben J. Pruitt, well known resident of Dayton, passed away Monday night at his home on south Fourth street, after an illness covering a period of two years, during the past six months of which time he was unable to leave his bed.

Mr. Pruitt was born in Missouri October 19, 1871. Thirty years ago the family came west, locating in Columbia county, where they have made their home ever since, with the exception of a few years spent in Okanogan county. Mr. Pruitt engaged in farming in this county for same years, but in recent years the family home has been in Dayton.

Mr. Pruitt is survived by his widow and eleven children. The children are: Mrs. Ernest Davis, Mrs. Glen Ring, Mrs. John VanScoyk, Mrs. Clinton Titus, Mrs. Leo Cox, Richard, Deward, Robert and Bonnie Pruitt, Dayton; Bertha Pruitt, Seattle and Lewis Pruitt, Wenatchee.

Mr. Pruitt was a member of the Odd Fellows, the Modern Woodmen of American and the Royal Neighbors.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this Thursday morning, from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel, with the Rev. W. C. Gilmore of the Congregational church conducting the service. Interment will be in Dayton cemetery.

28 Mar 1968

Dock Pruitt Dies Monday

Dock Pruitt, 82, long-time resident of Dayton, passed away Monday afternoon, March 25, at Robison Nursing Home where he had been residing since September, 1966.

Funeral service will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. today, March 28, from the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel with the Rev. W. W. Phinney of the Assembly of God church officiating. Interment will follow at Dayton City Cemetery.

Mr. Pruitt was born October 14, 1885, in Roscoe, Missouri, and came west with his family in 1901. He and the former Jennie Hatley were married October 1, 1905, in Dayton and with the exception of several years spent farming in southern Idaho had lived in Dayton and Columbia county.

He spent his active life in farming activities and was a former employee of Columbia county and did logging until ill health forced him to retire.

In addition to his wife at the family home, 307 South Third, members of the family are two sons, Delbert L. Pruitt of Salt Lake City and Charles D. Pruitt of Ogden, Utah; one daughter, Mrs. Olive Ramsey of Boise, Idaho; seven grandchildren, several great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Laura, in January, 1967; an eight-month-old son, Thomas Earl, and an infant daughter.

1 May 1969

Jennie Pruitt Dies April 24

Mrs. Dock (Jennie) Pruitt, 80, native daughter of the community, passed away suddenly Thursday evening, April 24, at Dayton General Hospital after being stricken earlier at the home of a friend.

Funeral service was conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 29, from the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel with the Rev. W. W. Phinney officiating. Interment followed at the family plot in Dayton City Cemetery.

Mrs. Pruitt was born November 11, 1888, in Dayton, the daughter of Elijah and Hannah Stanfield, county pioneers. She attended the former Star School and on October 1, 1905, in Dayton was married to Dock Pruitt. He preceded her in death in March, 1968.

From 1915 to 1927 they lived in southern Idaho where he farmed.

Mrs. Pruitt was a member of the Assembly of God church and had been employed in earlier years by the Green Giant Company and at Brining Memorial Hospital.

Members of the family include two sons, Delbert Pruitt, of Salt Lake City and Charles Pruitt of Ogden, Utah; a daughter, Mrs. Olive Ramsey of Boise, Idaho; two sisters, Mrs. Lillie England of American Falls and Mrs. Charles Tyacke of Lyle; six grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

14 Oct 1944

Louise M. Weygandt.

Louise M. Weygandt passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Pruitt Friday morning. The funeral, conducted by Rev. W. C. Gilmore, was held at 10 a. m. Sunday. The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ben Pruitt and Mrs. B. M. Melton of this county, and five sons, Benjamin, Albert, William and Walter of Idaho, and Harry Weygandt of Oregon.

Mrs. Louise Matilda Weygandt was born December 22, 1841, in Michigan. She was married to Richard Weygandt at Springfield, Illinois, May 8th, 1862.

15 Dec 1909

Mrs. Weygandt Dies.

Mrs. Clara Ellen Weygandt, wife of Walter Weygandt, passed away at the family home on uppper Second street, Friday afternoon after a lingering illness, from the effects of tuberculosis. The deceased was 20 years, 5 months and 29 days of age. The funeral services were held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock from the Christian church, Rev. W. H. Harris officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery.

2 July 1904

Killed on the Mountain.

Wednesday morning, about seven o'clock, Thomas Pruitt was killed on the Hatley Mountain grade, now known as the Cahill grade, just above the Pine Grove school house. He was hauling wood to Dexter's brick yard. The brake broke, and fearing the result of remaining on the rapidly running wagon, the driver jumped from his high seat on the top of the wood. His foot becoming entangled in the brake rope, he fell probably between the front and the hind wheel, the latter passing over his neck and breaking it.

MRS. CORA G. BALL

Mrs. Cora G. Ball, 73, former Dayton resident, died at Wenatchee December 17 at 7:30 a. m. The body is being brought here for burial, and funeral services will be held from the Rogg & Watson chapel Thursday, December 19, at 2:30 p. m. with the Rev. Earle C. Miller of the Christian church officiating.

Remembered here as Mrs. Ben Pruitt, the deceased was born in Boscobel, Wisconsin, June 13, 1873. She first came to Dayton in 1902 and made this her home until 1915 when she moved with her family to Tonasket, Washington, where they lived for five years. They returned here in 1920 and remained until 1938. In the meantime Mr. Pruitt died and she moved to the coast. After spending some time in Seattle, she was married to Walter Ball in May, 1942, and Wenatchee had been her home the last four years.

Besides her husband, she leaves four sons: L. E. Pruitt of California, T. R. and B. D. Pruitt of Seattle, and Durward Pruitt of Morton, Wash.; six daughters: Mrs. D. E. Davis and Mrs Harry Pierce of Dayton, Mrs. Elsie Abel and Mrs. Helen Van Scoyk, Wenatchee, Mrs. Opal Batterman of Coulee Dam, and Thelma of Tacoma; and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Ball was a member of the Christian church for many years.

Obituaries

"Mrs. Pugh Passes Away" (6 Apr 1912)

Mrs. Elizabeth Pugh passed away, Wednesday, at the home of her son, John Pugh, of Eckler mountain, aged about 70 years. The funeral was held Friday from the Christian church at 11 a.m., Rev. Porter officiating.

The deceased was born in Ohio, coming to Columbia county 25 years ago with the family, the husband, N. Pugh, passing on 15 years ago.

The deceased is survived by 5 sons - John Pugh, of Eckler mountain; Frank Pugh, of Prosser; M. Pugh, of Portland, I. Pugh, of Cottage Grove, Oregon, A. Pugh of Olympia; 1 daughter, Mrs. McCrary, of Eckler mountain; 2 sisters & 3 brothers, one of whom is J. Vance of Huntsville.

"Pioneer of Eckler Mountain Passes" (17 Oct 1929)
"Funeral Services of John Pugh Held Tuesday Afternoon"

John Pugh, pioneer resident of Eckler mountain, was found dead Sunday morning by Glen Hutchens, who went to the residence to borrow a gun. Mr. Pugh had apparently died from a stroke of apoplexy as he started to make a fire in the morning, & was found lying by the stove. Authorities were notified & the body was brought to the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel Sunday.

Neighbors last saw Pugh alive Tuesday evening, when a group visited at his home & played Checkers. Homer Hamilton reported that he was on the place Wednesday to return a fork that he had borrowed, and, seeing no one at home had leaned the fork against the house & left. The fork was still there Sunday, which first led to the supposition that he had been dead since Wednesday. Appearances pointed, however, to the supposition that he had not been dead over 24 hours.

Mr. Pugh was born in Ohio in 1776, & spent most of his life in the mountain home, in comparative seclusion. He was a prolific reader, & well versed in literature, writing a number of poems. He was a man of high character & will be missed by his many friends as a familiar landmark of Ecklen mountain.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. James McCreary, & a brother, Frank, both of Dayton.

The funeral was conducted at 2 o'Clock Tuesday afternoon from the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel. Rev. W.C. Gilmore officiated at the services.

"Francis J. Pugh Laid to Rest Here Saturday" (7 Jan 1932)

The funeral of Francis J. Pugh, pioneer resident who passed away December 29, was held Saturday afternoon from the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel. The service was conducted by the Rev. W.C. Gilmore, pastor of the Congregational Church, & the Rev. Mack Cahill, of the Nazarene Church. Interment was in the Dayton Cemetery.

Mr. Pugh was born in Belmont County, Ohio, Jan 26, 1868, & lived there until he was 12 years of age, when the family moved to Nebraska. From there Mr. Pugh came to Washington, some 42 years ago. He was 63 years & 11 months of age at the time of his death.

On Sept. 14, 1889, Mr. Pugh was married to Miss Anna L. McCreary. One son, Robert, was born to this union & survives his father. Later Mr. Pugh was united in marriage with Mrs. Ella Johnson. She, with a son, Edwin Pugh, & a daughter, Mrs. Edna Williams, & several grandchildren, survive.

MR. AND MRS. E. L. PULLIAM
(Vitart portrait)

Fiftieth Anniversary Is Celebrated by Pulliams

Goldenweds — Mr. and Mrs. E. L. (Roy) Pulliam—observed their anniversary Tuesday, Feb. 5, with a special service at the Pilgrim Holiness Church, where both are members.

The original wedding was solemnized Feb. 2, 1908 in the United Brethren parsonage of Dayton with the pastor, the Rev. Dave Brink, officiating. The bridegroom, native of Wright County, Missouri, had come to Dayton originally in the fall of 1889. The bride, Bessie Bell Crall, was born and reared near Dayton.

Were Homesteaders

After their marriage, the couple homesteaded for four years in Douglas County and then farmed near Dayton for several years. Walla Walla was their home from 1930 to 1943, Mr. Pulliam being employed during that time as a painter.

In 1943, they moved to Soap Lake and operated a cabin court for 10 years becore returning to Walla Walla. They now make their home at 522 East Sumach Street where they operate an apartment house and Mr. Pulliam is employed as a painter at the Grand Hotel.

They have three children: Mrs. Zelma King of Truckee, Calif., Mrs. Arthur (Frieda) Stott, whose husband is pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at Grangeville, Idaho; and Mrs. Lois Nelson, Sacramento, Calif. There are also 11 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Friends of the Pulliams gathered at the church Tuesday evening when, after congregational singing, Kenneth Snyder was heard in a solo, "O Promise Me." Miss Margaret Evans played the wedding march as the goldenweds approached the altar, accompanied by Mrs. Mae Mathews and Walter Van Dyke as their attendants.

Pastor Evans read the service, and the couple re-affirmed their vows with a prayer and brief talk by the pastor concluding the ceremony. Later Miss Evans sang "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," accompanied by Mrs. Evans.

A reception followed at the parsonage honoring the couple and refreshments were served.

Golden Wedding Surprise Held For Pulliams

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, who make their home on the South Touchet, five miles from Dayton, were surprised Friday evening, September 4, by members of the United Brethren church in honor of the couple's Golden Wedding anniversary.

Members of the church surprised the couple with a gift. Refreshments were served during the evening.

W. A. Pulliam and the former Rosella Cobb were married September 3, 1909, in Dayton. He was born in Texas and came to this area as a boy of 12 years of age. Mrs. Pulliam is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cobb. She was born at Prescott.

Following their marriage in 1909, the couple farmed in the Hatley Gulch district and at Huntsville. They moved in 1932 to their present home on the South Touchet.

They are members of the Masons lodge and the Order of Eastern Star, the Farm Bureau and the United Brethren church.

They are parents of two sons, Vernon, of Walla Walla and Gerald of Seattle. Their two grandchildren, Gerald Jr. and Jerilyn, make their home with them. A son, Chester, passed away in 1947 and a daughter Beulah, has also passed away.

GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, who make their home on the South Touchet, five miles from Dayton, observed their 50th wedding anniversary September 3. The couple was honored with a surprise party on September 4 in observance of the occasion. Pulliam and the former Rosella Cobb were married in Dayton.

Mrs. Mary Cobb Was Pioneer of Northwest

Huntsville—Mrs. Mary Josephine Willard Cobb, who passed away here last Tuesday, was born May 2, 1848, at St. Louis, Missouri. When she was four years old her parents moved to California, where she lived until she was married to William A. Cobb in 1870, when they went to Nevada to make their home. In 1882 the lure of the west brought them west again. Driving through from Nevada in two covered wagons, Mrs. Cobb, in true pioneer spirit, drove one of the teams herself all the way, with her young son sitting on the seat beside her.

Less than a year was spent in Walla Walla, when they bought a ranch near Prescott, which was their home until the year 1900, when they came to Huntsville, where her husband passed away in 1909.

Mrs. Cobb was a member of the Baptist church until she came to Huntsville, when she joined the United Brethren church. She was a sincere Christian woman, loved by all who knew her. The last eight years of her life were spent in total blindness, an affliction which she bore with great patience. She passed away May the 17th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pulliam.

Two children died in infancy. Seven children, twenty-four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren are left to mourn her departure. Her children are: Frank W. Cobb, Friday Harbor, Mrs. Mabel Cobb Montgomery, Weston; Leo Cobb, Colfax; Edgar Cobb, Yale, Idaho; J. F. Cobb, Huntsville; Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, Huntsville; Mrs. L. G. Beckley, Pilot Rock.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Waitsburg Methodist church.

Found Dead in Road

Early this morning Mr. Tim Tehan, son-in-law of Mr. George Pulliam, found the body of Mr. Pulliam in the road near the old Pulliam ranch, which lies to the west of the Dumas orchard, and which Mr. Tehan rents. The county officers were notified and the body brought to the Hubbard & Rogg morgue. An inquest may probably be held to ascertain the cause of death.

Mr. Pulliam was sent to the state hospital at Medical Lake several years ago, but more recently was discharged. Since that time Mr. Pulliam has been traveling over the country and about three weeks ago returned here from Texas and was at the house of his daughter Mrs. Tehan where he remained a day or so. Since that time it is not known where he has been.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

MRS. GEORGE PULLIAM

Mrs. George Pulliam, 76, early resident of Dayton, died at her home at 721 Catherine street Monday afternoon after a brief illness.

Mrs. Pulliam was born in La Salle county, Ilinois, July 4, 1868, and four years after her marriage in August, 1884, she came to Dayton to live.

The family first lived in town. then moved to Eckler mountain where they remained for 15 years and carved a home out of the wilderness, clearing it by hand, with Mr. Pulliam going over the entire place with a grubbing hoe and Mrs. Pulliam burning the brush. They finally got the place under cultivation, built a home and barns, and then sold it to buy a place on the Patit where they lived for 13 years.

In 1927 they moved to Orchard Station where they lived until last year when they retired and settled in Walla Walla. In August of this year Mr. and Mrs. Pulliam observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary with two of their three children present.

Mrs. Pulliam was a member of the Church of God and the W.C. T. U.

Survivors include her husband, George Pulliam, 83, of Walla Walla; two sons, E. L. and M. L. Pulliam, both of Walla Walla; a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Snode of Dallas, Ore.; a sister, Mrs. Hattie Watson, Long Beach, Calif.; six grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

GEORGE W. PULLIAM

George W. Pulliam, 84, pioneer resident of Dayton, died at a Walla Walla hospital Sunday afternoon following a lingering illness.

Born, December 11, 1861, in Sturgeon county, Mo., he came here more than 50 years ago. Later he farmed near Waitsburg, and moved to Walla Walla in 1927.

Surviving are two sons, E. L. and M. C. Pulliam of Walla Walla; a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Snode, Dallas, Oregon, and a sister, Mrs. Della Davis of Wenatchee.

Mrs. Z. T. Williams Dies at Kent, Wn.

Was Long a Resident of Dayton—Will Hold Funeral Here Friday.

Mrs. Z. T. Williams, who, for many years was a resident of Columbia county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Dieringer of Kent, Washington, Saturday after an illness of but a week's duration. Her body was brought to Dayton for burial, and funeral services will be held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Louella Davis Williams was born in Illinois April 24, 1864 and came to this country with her parents, Marion and Eliza Pulliam in 1868 arriving in Dayton September 14 of that year. She was married to Zackariah T. Williams in 1890 and moved to the farm on Whetstone which was their home for many years. Later they moved to town, and not until a year and a half ago did Mrs. Williams take up her residence in Kent. She was a member of the Baptist church the greater part of her life and a faithful worker throughout her membership. She was a devoted mother and one of the kindest of friends.

Mrs. Williams leaves four children, Mrs. Elmer Bateman, Dayton, Marvin Williams, Boise, Idaho, and Mrs. A. J. Dieringer and Robert Williams, Kent, Washington. One sister and two brothers, Mrs. C. E. Davis of Azwall, Washington, George W. Pulliam of Walla Walla and F. A. Pulliam of Dayton, and five grandchildren also survive.

Francis A. Pulliam

Francis A. Pulliam 76, died at his home on Dayton Avenue Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. Funeral services will be held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Born in Missouri October 29, 1968, he had long been a resident of this community. During late years he had lived in retirement.

Survivors include a son, Marion Pulliam, Portland; five daughters, Mrs. W. C. Briggs, Pullman; Mrs. Elwood Landt, Estianola, Wash.; Mrs. A. J. Pfister, Dixie: and Mrs. Harry Shaviland and Mrs. George Derrick, both of Portland; and several grandchildren. Mrs. Elmer Bateman of this city was a niece.

28 June 1928

MRS. ELIZA PULLIAM, AGED RESIDENT, DIES

Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza Pulliam who died Monday, June 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zack Williams, were held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel Wednesday morning at ten o'clock with the Rev. N. E. Franklin officiating, and interment was made at the Dayton cemetery.

The deceased was born in Lincoln county, Kentucky, September 25, 1842, and crossed the plains in an early day. She had long been a resident of this country and was well known here. Early in life she united with the Baptist church and lived in that body until in later life when she united with the Nazarene church of which she was a faithful member until the end. Her husband died last March, and Mrs. Pulliam is survived by five children, 22 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren.

William G. Pulliam

William G. Pulliam died at the Veteran's Administration Hospital, Walla Walla, on November 1, 1983. He was 67 years of age.

Services were held Friday, November 4, 2 p.m. at the Hubbard Rogg Chapel. Rev. Lyle Arnold officiated. Interment was held in the family plot in the Waitsburg City Cemetery.

Pulliam was born October 9, 1916 in Huntsville, the son of Will and Rosella Cobb Pulliam. He graduated from Dayton High School, and served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He worked as a machinist for the Boeing Company and for General Electric, in Seattle, where he lived until about two years ago. He was a member of the machinists union.

Pulliam is survived by a son, Gerald Pulliam of Dayton, a daughter, Jerilyn Leid of Kennewick, four grandchildren, Kevin and Eric Leid of Kennewick, Yvonne and Gerald Pulliam II, of Dayton; a brother, Charles Pulliam of Walla Walla.

He was preceded in death by two sisters and one brother.

Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

CHESTER ARTHUR PULLIAM

Word has been received here of the death of Chester Arthur Pulliam at Eugene, Oregon, on July 21. Mr. Pulliam was born in Dayton on April 14, 1911.

He was the husband of Ruby Pulliam of Eugene; father of Mrs. Goodwin Taylor of Butte; Phyllis Marlene Pulliam of Eugene; Chester A. Pulliam, Jr. and George Pulliam, both of Eugene; son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pulliam of Dayton; brother of Charles Vernon Pulliam of Walla Walla, and William Gerald Pulliam of Dayton. Two nieces and one nephew also survive.

The remains were sent to Waitsburg for service and interment. Services were held Monday in Waitsburg.

Illness Calls Mrs. Pulliam, Funeral Sat.

Low
31 Dec 1959

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Low Pulliam, 58, native daughter of Columbia county, were held Saturday, December 26, from a Walla Walla funeral home.

The Rev. Lawrence Cousins officiated at the service. Concluding rites were held at the family plot at the Dayton City Cemetery.

Mrs. Pulliam, who had been in ill health for the past year, died Thursday, December 24, in Walla Walla. She was born January 5, 1901, in Columbia county, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Grant Low.

University Graduate

Mrs. Pulliam attended local schools and graduated from the University of Washington. She and Charles V. Pulliam, who survives, were married November 19, 1936, in Walla Walla. She was a member of the Congregational church.

In addition to her husband at the family home at 1607 Evergreen in Walla Walla, survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Jo Ann) Wilhelm of Wilson Creek, and Judy Pulliam, at home; one granddaughter, Marla Wilhelm; two sisters, Mrs. Nelle Thronson and Mrs. Alberta Thompson, both of Dayton; one brother, Don Low, of Starbuck; and several nieces and nephews.

The remains were sent to Waitsburg for service and interment. Services were held Monday in Waitsburg.

Illness Calls Mrs. Pulliam, Funeral Sat.

31 Dec. 1959

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Low Pulliam, 58, native daughter of Columbia county, were held Saturday, December 26, from a Walla Walla funeral home.

The Rev. Lawrence Cousins officiated at the service. Concluding rites were held at the family plot at the Dayton City Cemetery.

Mrs. Pulliam, who had been in ill health for the past year, died Thursday, December 24, in Walla Walla. She was born January 5, 1901, in Columbia county, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Grant Low.

University Graduate

Mrs. Pulliam attended local schools and graduated from the University of Washington. She and Charles V. Pulliam, who survives, were married November 19, 1936, in Walla Walla. She was a member of the Congregational church.

In addition to her husband at the family home at 1607 Evergreen in Walla Walla, survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Jo Ann) Wilhelm of Wilson Creek, and Judy Pulliam, at home; one granddaughter, Marla Wilhelm; two sisters, Mrs. Nelle Thronson and Mrs. Alberta Thompson, both of Dayton; one brother, Don Low, of Starbuck; and several nieces and nephews.

MRS. GEORGE PULLIAM

Mrs. George Pulliam, 76, early resident of Dayton, died at her home at 721 Catherine street Monday afternoon after a brief illness.

Mrs. Pulliam was born in La Salle county, Ilinois, July 4, 1868, and four years after her marriage in August, 1884, she came to Dayton to live.

The family first lived in town, then moved to Eckler mountain where they remained for 15 years and carved a home out of the wilderness, clearing it by hand, with Mr. Pulliam going over the entire place with a grubbing hoe and Mrs. Pulliam burning the brush. They finally got the place under cultivation, built a home and barns, and then sold it to buy a place on the Patit where they lived for 13 years.

In 1927 they moved to Orchard Station where they lived until last year when they retired and settled in Walla Walla. In August of this year Mr. and Mrs. Pulliam observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary with two of their three children present.

Mrs. Pulliam was a member of the Church of God and the W.C. T. U.

Survivors include her husband, George Pulliam, 83, of Walla Walla; two sons, E. L. and M. L. Pulliam, both of Walla Walla; a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Snode of Dallas, Ore.; a sister, Mrs Hattie Watson, Long Beach, Calif.; six grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

GEORGE W. PULLIAM

George W. Pulliam, 84, pioneer resident of Dayton, died at a Walla Walla hospital Sunday afternoon following a lingering illness.

Born, December 11, 1861, in Sturgeon county, Mo., he came here more than 50 years ago. Later he farmed near Waitsburg, and moved to Walla Walla in 1927.

Surviving are two sons, E. L. and M. C. Pulliam of Walla Walla; a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Snode, Dallas, Oregon, and a sister, Mrs. Della Davis of Wenatchee.

Mrs. Z. T. Williams Dies at Kent, Wn.

Was Long a Resident of Dayton—Will Hold Funeral Here Friday.

Mrs. Z. T. Williams, who, for many years was a resident of Columbia county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Dieringer of Kent, Washington, Saturday after an illness of but a week's duration. Her body was brought to Dayton for burial, and funeral services will be held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Louella Davis Williams was born in Illinois April 24, 1864 and came to this country with her parents, Marion and Eliza Pulliam in 1888 arriving in Dayton September 14 of that year. She was married to Zackariah T. Williams in 1890 and moved to the farm on Whetstone which was their home for many years. Later they moved to town, and not until a year and a half ago did Mrs. Williams take up her residence in Kent. She was a member of the Baptist church the greater part of her life and a faithful worker throughout her membership. She was a devoted mother and one of the kindest of friends.

Mrs. Williams leaves four children, Mrs. Elmer Bateman, Dayton, Marvin Williams, Boise, Idaho, and Mrs. A. J. Dieringer and Robert Williams, Kent, Washington. One sister and two brothers, Mrs. C. E. Davis of Azwall, Washington, George W. Pulliam of Walla Walla and F. A. Pulliam of Dayton, and five grandchildren also survive.

Francis A. Pulliam

Francis A. Pulliam 76, died at his home on Dayton Avenue Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. Funeral services will be held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Born in Missouri October 29, 1968, he had long been a resident of this community. During late years he had lived in retirement.

Survivors include a son, Marion Pulliam, Portland; five daughters, Mrs. W. C. Briggs, Pullman; Mrs. Elwood Landt, Estianola, Wash.; Mrs. A. J. Pfister, Dixie; and Mrs. Harry Shaviland and Mrs. George Derrick, both of Portland; and several grandchildren. Mrs. Elmer Bateman of this city was a niece.

MRS. ELIZA PULLIAM, AGED RESIDENT, DIES

Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza Pulliam who died Monday, June 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Zack Williams, were held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel Wednesday morning at ten o'clock with the Rev. N. E. Franklin officiating, and interment was made at the Dayton cemetery.

The deceased was born in Lincoln county, Kentucky, September 25, 1842, and crossed the plains in an early day. She had long been a resident of this country and was well known here. Early in life she united with the Baptist church and lived in that body until in later life when she united with the Nazarene church of which she was a faithful member until the end. Her husband died last March, and Mrs. Pulliam is survived by five children, 22 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren.

William G. Pulliam

William G. Pulliam died at the Veteran's Administration Hospital, Walla Walla, on November 1, 1983. He was 67 years of age.

Services were held Friday, November 4, 2 p.m. at the Hubbard Rogg Chapel. Rev. Lyle Arnold officiated. Interment was held in the family plot in the Waitsburg City Cemetery.

Pulliam was born October 9, 1916 in Huntsville, the son of Will and Rosella Cobb Pulliam. He graduated from Dayton High School, and served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He worked as a machinist for the Boeing Company and for General Electric, in Seattle, where he lived until about two years ago. He was a member of the machinists union.

Pulliam is survived by a son, Gerald Pulliam of Dayton, a daughter, Jerilyn Leid of Kennewick, four grandchildren, Kevin and Eric Leid of Kennewick, Yvonne and Gerald Pulliam II, of Dayton; a brother, Charles Pulliam of Walla Walla.

He was preceded in death by two sisters and one brother.

Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Golden Wedding Surprise Held For Pulliams

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, who make their home on the South Touchet, five miles from Dayton, were surprised Friday evening, September 4, by members of the United Brethren church in honor of the couple's Golden Wedding anniversary.

Members of the church surprised the couple with a gift. Refreshments were served during the evening.

W. A. Pulliam and the former Rosella Cobb were married September 3, 1909, in Dayton. He was born in Texas and came to this area as a boy of 12 years of age. Mrs. Pulliam is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cobb. She was born at Prescott.

Following their marriage in 1909, the couple farmed in the Hatley Gulch district and at Huntsville. They moved in 1932 to their present home on the South Touchet.

They are members of the Masons lodge and the Order of Eastern Star, the Farm Bureau and the United Brethren church.

They are parents of two sons, Vernon, of Walla Walla and Gerald of Seattle. Their two grandchildren, Gerald Jr. and Jerilyn, make their home with them. A son, Chester, passed away in 1947 and a daughter Beulah, has also passed away.

GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, who make their home on the South Touchet, five miles from Dayton, observed their 50th wedding anniversary September 3. The couple was honored with a surprise party on September 4 in observance of the occasion. Pulliam and the former Rosella Cobb were married in Dayton.

Mrs. Mary Cobb Was Pioneer of Northwest

Huntsville—Mrs. Mary Josephine Willard Cobb, who passed away here last Tuesday, was born May 2, 1848, at St. Louis, Missouri. When she was four years old her parents moved to California, where she lived until she was married to William A. Cobb in 1870, when they went to Nevada to make their home. In 1882 the lure of the west brought them west again. Driving through from Nevada in two covered wagons, Mrs. Cobb, in true pioneer spirit, drove one of the teams herself all the way, with her young son sitting on the seat beside her.

Less than a year was spent in Walla Walla, when they bought a ranch near Prescott, which was their home until the year 1900, when they came to Huntsville, where her husband passed away in 1909.

Mrs. Cobb was a member of the Baptist church until she came to Huntsville, when she joined the United Brethren church. She was a sincere Christian woman, loved by all who knew her. The last eight years of her life were spent in total blindness, an affliction which she bore with great patience. She passed away May the 17th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pulliam.

Two children died in infancy. Seven children, twenty-four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren are left to mourn her departure. Her children are: Frank W. Cobb, Friday Harbor, Mrs. Mabel Cobb Montgomery, Weston; Leo Cobb, Colfax; Edgar Cobb, Yale, Idaho; J. F. Cobb, Huntsville; Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, Huntsville; Mrs. L. G. Beckley, Pilot Rock.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Waitsburg Methodist church.

Found Dead in Road

Early this morning Mr. Tim Tehan, son-in-law of Mr. George Pulliam, found the body of Mr. Pulliam in the road near the old Pulliam ranch, which lies to the west of the Dumas orchard, and which Mr. Tehan rents. The county officers were notified and the body brought to the Hubbard & Rogg morgue. An inquest may probably be held to ascertain the cause of death.

Mr. Pulliam was sent to the state hospital at Medical Lake several years ago, but more recently was discharged. Since that time Mr. Pulliam has been traveling over the country and about three weeks ago returned here from Texas and was at the house of his daughter Mrs. Tehan where he remained a day or so. Since that time it is not known where he has been.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

MARCELLUS PUMPELLY:—D. G. Pumpelly, father of the subject of this sketch, was a native of Maine, and the mother, Julia A. Sears, of Ohio. Marcellus was born in Milford, Clermount county, Ohio, November 6, 1842. The family moved to Missouri in 1860, and two years later Marcellus left that distracted State on account of the rebellion, and crossed the plains to Oregon. For five years he teamed between the Dalles and Bannock City, Idaho, when he went to Polk county, Oregon, and farmed until 1872. He then went to Walla Walla, and in February, 1873, took up his present ranch, twelve miles northeast of Dayton. He has 400 acres, equally divided between grain and pasture land. A view of his residence is given elsewhere. February 22, 1877, he married Rosetta Rockhill, a native of Indiana. They have two children—Dan, born March 28, 1880, and Ben, April 4, 1882. Their first boy, Mark, born August 23, 1878, has passed away. Mr. Pumpelly belongs to Patit Lodge, No. 10, I. O. O. F., of which he was a charter member.

She married Levi C. PRYOR, son of Frederick PRYOR and Tobitha WILKINS, circa 1847, in OH. (He had married Catherine ALBERT, 14 Mar 1839, Muskingum, OH[28] and had two children: Tobitha "Visa" E. born 1840 and Cecelia born 1844, both in OH.) Born, 6 Nov 1815, in OH. Died, 6 Apr 1900, in Scotland, MO, age 84. Buried in Hickory Grove Cemetery near Arbela. They are on the 1850 census in Jackson, Muskingum OH. He bought land in Section 10 of Scotland, MO in 1851 and 1854.[29] They are on the 1860 and 1870 census in Harrison, Scotland, MO.

The grandfather of Levi PRYOR, Timothy PRYOR, was originally from PA, but came to OH and settled on the Muskingum River about 1798. His son Frederick PRYOR was born in PA and was 11 years of age when he came to OH. He and his wife had 13 children, one of whom was Levi C. PRYOR.[30]

Charles W. PRYOR was in the 1887 Walla Walla census as a single man living near the WEATHERFORDS. There was a news article in the Columbia County News announcing the birth of his son 2 April 1895. In the news of 23 March 1895 it was reported that, "Grandma PRYOR who has been on a prolonged visit with relatives in and around Waitsburg, is now with her sons, C. W. and W. A. PRYOR."[31] She was on the 1900 census with Wm. A. PRYOR.

"Charles PRYOR and his younger brother Will came from Missouri in 1889. Charles bought a farm 1½ miles from Covello but kept it only a short time before selling it and buying another on the road to Dayton where the family of four children grew up. They were Eldon, William, Dwelly and Nellie. Will worked for his brother until he bought a farm just east of Whetstone. They also acquired additional land as PRYOR Bros. The Will PRYORS had a son, Forrest."[32] Children:

103 i. Dudley F.[4] PRYOR. Born, 7 Jan 1852, in Scotland, MO. Died, 31 May 1917, Luray, Clark, MO, age 65. He married Mary L. EVANS, 22 Jan 1874, in Scotland, MO. Born 1850, in KY.

108 vi. William A. PRYOR. Born, 16 Mar 1866, in Scotland, MO. Died, 16 Mar 1916, in Dayton, Columbia, WA, age 50. He married Katie L. ALBRIGHT, 14 Mar 1888. Born, Feb 1867, IA.

37. Hannah Louise "Kitty Ann"[3] TURNER (John Meredith, 7). Born, 6 Aug 1830, in Fauquier, VA. Died, 16 Mar 1870, in Knox, MO, age 39.

She married Samuel Grandville MARTIN, son of William MARTIN and Elizabeth W. BROWN(9), circa 1849, in Licking, OH. Born, 9 Sep 1825, in VA. Died, 3 Feb 1879, in Knox, MO, age 53. Both were buried at Mt. Tabor Cemetery, near Hurdland.

Samuel G. MARTIN migrated in 1851 to Scotland, MO from Licking, OH with his brother William Willis MARTIN and other members of the TURNER family. Samuel MARTIN purchased 40 acres from John and Mary TURNER in 1853.[35] He lived there until 1864 when he moved to Knox County where he farmed until his death in 1879.[36]

"The MARTINS came from Missouri [to Washington State] in 1889 and settled at Whetstone. The parents originated in Virginia where they were neighbors of the TURNERS. Mason MARTIN'S mother was a sister of Ben TURNER'S father. A son of Mace, Dewey and his wife Alferetta live in Dayton where their son Dorsey operates the Dorsey Inn and Cafe. Charley MARTIN was the principal farmer in the MARTIN family. He sold his farm of 520 acres to Bill CARLTON about 1905 and retired. Dave MARTIN, father of Ruth BACON ran a livery stable in Dayton."[37] Children:

109 i. Joseph Warren[5] MARTIN. Born, 24 Nov 1850, in Muskingum, OH. Died, 11 Dec 1929, in Knox, MO, age 79. He married, first, Louisa Jane ROSS, 24 Dec 1871, in Knox, MO. Born, 12 Jun 1853. MRS. JEREMIAH M. CAMP

JEREMIAH M. CAMP

JEREMIAH M. CAMP.

Jeremiah M. Camp, one of the prosperous and highly esteemed residents of Walla Walla, was for many years actively engaged in farming in Whitman county, where he still owns a large tract of valuable land, but is now living retired. A native of Ohio, he was born May 10, 1837, and is a son of John and Deborah (Martin) Camp, both of whom were born in Connecticut, the former in 1801. The parents removed to Ohio at an early day in the development of that state and there the mother passed away in 1856. Two years later the father removed with his family to Knox county, Illinois, and devoted the remainder of his life to the operation of a farm there. He died suddenly in 1865. There were five sons in the family but only three are now living.

Jeremiah M. Camp passed the days of his boyhood and youth in his native state and is indebted for his education to its public schools. Following his marriage, February 12, 1858, at the age of twenty years, he became a resident of Knox County, Illinois. In 1862 he enlisted there in Company I, Eighty-third Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and served at the front until the close of the Civil war in 1865. Although he took part in a great deal of hard fighting he was never wounded nor imprisoned. After being mustered out at Chicago he returned to Ohio, where his wife was then residing, and they continued to make their home in that state until 1867, when they went to the vicinity of Washington, Iowa, where Mr. Camp engaged in farming for three years. In 1870 he went to Kansas and in 1883 came to Washington. After staying for a time in Walla Walla county he removed to Whitman county, where he took up a homestead. He at once gave his entire time and attention to the task of developing that farm and as the years passed made many improvements thereon. In 1904 he retired and took up his residence in Walla Walla, where he now lives. He still owns sixteen hundred and sixty acres of land in Whitman county, all in a high state of cultivation, and derives therefrom a gratifying income. The success which he has gained is doubly creditable in that it is due to his quickness to see and take advantage of opportunities, his good management and his hard work.

On the 12th of February, 1858, Mr. Camp was united in marriage to Miss Lucy Ann Merritt, also a native of Vinton county, Ohio, and they traveled life's journey together for fifty-two years, Mrs. Camp dying in Walla Walla on the 8th of October, 1911. They became the parents of nine children, as follows: Louis and Ida, both deceased; Hattie, the wife of William Barber, of Anthony, Kansas; A. I. and George, both residents of Whitman county, Washington; May, the wife of Theodore Harris, of Oklahoma; Sadie, the wife of Charles Pryor, of Dayton, Washington; and Archibald and Ira, both residents of Whitman county. The wife and mother was a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. Camp has voted the republican ticket since he cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln. He has never been active in public affairs, preferring to concentrate his efforts upon his farm work, and in so doing he has not only won financial independence but has also contributed to the development of this district along agricultural lines. Through his membership in the local Grand Army post he keeps in touch with the other veterans of the war and finds great pleasure in recalling the experiences of those days.

CHARLES W. AND WILLIAM A. PRYOR are among the representative agriculturists of Columbia county. They are natives of Scotland county, Missouri, sons of L. C. and Martha M. (Turner) Pryor, natives of Ohio and Virginia respectively. Since their residence in this county they have thoroughly identified themselves with its interests and have aided very materially in the development of its natural resources.

Charles W. Pryor, the elder brother, was born August 31, 1856; he grew to maturity in the State of his birth and there made his start in business. It was in the month of May, 1884, that he came to Washington; for two years he worked by the day, and at the end of that time rented land in Wilson hollow which he cultivated for five years. At the end of that time he purchased a tract of land a mile and a half from Covello, raised one crop there, and then sold the place. He then bought the place he has since occupied, acquiring 320 acres on the Telegraph road, seven and a half miles from Dayton. His principal crop is wheat although he produces some barley and oats; the land is separated into three fields for convenience of sowing grain and raising live-stock. The season of 1893 he had 180 acres under cultivation, but he usually summer-fallows one-half his total acreage. Mr. Pryor was married in Missouri, September 28, 1879, to Miss Martha Padgett, a native of that State; she died in 1883. He was married a second time, July 9, 1891, when he was united to Miss Sadie Camp, a daughter of Jeremiah and Lucy Camp; Mrs. Pryor is a native of Kansas. Mr. Pryor adheres to the principles of the Democratic party. During his residence in Wilson hollow he served as School Trustee, discharging his duties in this office to the entire satisfaction of the public.

William A. Pryor was born March 16, 1866. At the age of nineteen years he left the scenes of his birth in Missouri, and went to Kansas, locating near La Crosse in Rush county, where he continued to reside three years. He then emigrated to Washington; for four months he was employed by his brother, and then they engaged in farming in partnership. In 1889 he purchased 240 acres of land in Whetstone hollow. In November, 1891, he bought another tract consisting of 320 acres, adjoining his brother's present place. He cultivates almost the entire acreage, but summer-fallows about one-half; he harvests abundant crops of barley, wheat and oats, and succeeds well in all branches of husbandry. Politically he affiliates with the Democratic party, and has represented this body as Clerk of school district No. 31.

Mr. Pryor was married in Kansas, March 14, 1887, to Miss Katie Albright, a native of Iowa, and a daughter of David and Maria (Shuey) Albright. One child has been born to them, a son named Charles Forest.
