ANDREW FISH DIED SUNDAY

Andrew Fish died at his home in Dayton Sunday morning.

Mr. Fish was born in Indiana on January 30, 1851, leaving his native state for the west in 1864. He arrived in this part of the state in 1878, and was for many years a prominent farmer in the Alto district.

For a number of years he has made his home in Dayton.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Fish; two sons, F. M. Fish, St. Maries, Idaho, and W. D. Fish, Portland.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at Dayton and interment was made in the family plot at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, this city.

13 Jan 1949

MARY FISH

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Rogg and Watson chapel for Mrs. Mary McDonald Fish, who passed away Thursday afternoon at Brining hospital following a six-weeks illness.

The deceased was born September 2, 1862, at Hareb, Wisconsin. She spent most of her young life in the mid-west and came to Washington in 1901, landing at Dayton, June 24. Two years later to the day she married Andrew Fish and moved to his farm near Alto.

In 1905 the couple moved to Dayton, and in the intervening 43 years Mrs. Fish has lived in the same house on Front street they moved into at that time. Mr. Fish died in January, 1926.

Mrs. Fish was the last of a family of six children. She was a member of the Christian church 43 years. Her only survivors are two nieces and one nephew, Mrs. A. E. Balch, Mrs. Chet Pettichord and Forest Frye, all of Dayton.

Mrs. Luesa Fischer

Mrs. Luesa Fischer, one of Dayton's oldest and best known residents, died at her home Tuesday after a long period of gradually failing health. Funeral services have not been made pending the arrival of her granddaughter, Miss Cora E. Hoss, who is expected today.

The deceased was born in Hanover, Germany July 16, 1843 and came to America April 18, 1872. She first went to Wahash, Minnesota where she lived for eleven years then came to Dayton. She arrived here March 20, 1883 and this had ever since been her home. She united with the Christian church May 16, 1912 and was a devoted member. Mrs. Fischer is survived by one son, William Hoss of this city, and two grandchildren, Miss Cora E. Hoss of Tacoma, and Amos Hoss of Sacramento, California.

Mrs. Bailey Dies, Resident 69 Yrs.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel for Mrs. George W. (Olive) Bailey who died at the family home Saturday. Mrs. Bailey had been a resident of Columbia county 69 years. Death followed an illness which began last spring.

The services were conducted by Rev. Charles Graybeal of the Christian church where Mrs. Bailey had been a life-long member. Her church and her family was Mrs. Bailey's life.

The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Fite, Mrs. Bailey was born at Plymouth, Illinois, and came to Columbia county with her parents when eight years old. She was married to George Bailey in Dayton December 2, 1896, and the couple continued to make this community their home. Until he retired some years ago, Mr. Bailey was a farmer.

Survivors, besides the husband include one son, George J. Bailey of Yakima; four daughters, Mrs. Carl (Evelyn) Bender of Midland, Texas; Mrs. Ruby Morris of Yakima, Mrs. Laura McTravers, and Mrs. Fae Rainwater, both of Dayton; two sisters, Mrs. Kate Cottrel of Ellensburg, and Mrs. Elmer McCauley of Dayton; three brothers, William Fite of Middlepoint, Oregon, Groce Fite of Marshfield, Oregon, and Leonard Fite of Cove, Oregon; 27 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephew

Ina McCauley Funeral Rite Held Wednesday

Funeral service for Mrs. Elmer (Ina) McCauley, 78, native daughter of Dayton, was conducted yesterday afternoon, November 3, from the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel.

The Rev. James Taylor officiated with interment following at the family plot in Dayton City Cemetery.

Mrs. McCauley passed away Monday, November 1, at a Walla Walla hospital. She had been making her home at 718 Edith in Walla Walla since 1967.

Born April 10, 1893, in Dayton, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Fite. In September, 1911, she and Elmer McCauley were married and the couple farmed in the Highland district. Their rural homes were located near the Hardsock Grade and later on the Patit Creek near the Range Grade. In 1967 they retired from the farm and moved to Walla Walla.

Mr. McCauley preceded his wife in death on February 20, 1970.

Mrs. McCauley was a former member of Patit Grange and Dittemore Home Economics Club.

Members of the family include one daughter, Mrs. E. W. (Kathleen) Scott of Prescott; two sons, Leslie McCauley of Walla Walla and Merle McCauley of Denver, Colo.; one brother, Will Fite of Myrtle Point, Oregon; nine grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren.

18 Jan 1945

Word has been received by Mrs. Pearl McCauley of the death of her brother, Roy Fite, of Ione, Calif. He passed away in October of 1944, but for some reason his relatives here were not notified.

Jasper Leroy Fite was born in Columbia county, June 5, 1890, and lived here until the family moved to Myrtle Point, Oregon, in 1902. He served 22 months as cook in World war I and after his return to the United States from France was married to Miss Roberta Brack of Myrtle Point, who passed away in California last July. They spent several months near Dayton, then moved to California which has been their home since.

Besides a daughter he leaves six sisters: Mrs. Pearl McCauley, Mrs. Ina McCauley, Mrs. Olive Bailey, and Mrs. Anna Miles of Dayton; Mrs. Katie Cottrell of Kalispell, Montana, and Mrs. Leona Higgins of Myrtle Point, Ore.; three brothers: William Fite, Myrtle Point, Ore., Groce Fite, Marshfield, Ore., and Leonard Fite, Cove, Oregon.

History
Of Southeastern Washington
1906

DAVID FITZGERALD is a well known business man of Dayton. He is owner and operator of a fine large general blacksmith and machine shop, together with a foundry and does all kinds of iron work. He is a master in the business in every detail and has built for himself a reputation second to no mechanic in the country.

David Fitzgerald was born in Port Huron, Michigan, on February 7, 1863, the son of David and Mary (Burns) Fitzgerald, natives of County Cary, Ireland. The father came to Canada in 1858, and later moved to Michigan, where they now reside. They were the parents of nine children, Louise, Anna, Mary, John, Patrick, Bridget, Nora, Johanna and David. David studied in the common schools of Michigan and when nine began working for two and one half dollars per month, continuing in the same for four years. Then he apprenticed himself to learn the blacksmith trade and then was occupied in this for over three years, commencing with Patrick Brenna and completing with John O'Dougal. Next we see him in Port Huron, then in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, later still in Minnesota, after which he went to Canada to participate in the Reil Rebellion. For a time he was also shoeing horses for the government. After that, he did railroad work, then came to Montana in 1886. Next we see him in Lyon City, Montana, then in Milton, Oregon, after which he returned to Stillwater, Minnesota, and finally in 1892, he settled in Dayton. There he opened a shop in partnership with R. D. Atherton, and later spent two years in Lewiston. Returning then to Dayton, he opened his present shop and in 1901 added the machine shop and foundry. He does first class work and has a fine patronage.

In 1895, Mr. Fitzgerald married Miss Cora Coeman, whose parents live at Clarkston, Washington. Mrs. Fitzgerald was born in Texas and is one of five children named as follows, Robert, Grover, Cora, Mabel and Oney. To our subject and his wife one child has been born, May M. In political matters Mr. Fitzgerald is a strong Republican and evinces a lively interest in all the campaigns. In 1901, he was a member of the city council and served for two years.

Mr. Fitzgerald is a member of the F. & A. M., the I. O. O. F., the Rebekahs, the W. W., and the Women of Woodcraft. Mrs. Fitzgerald belongs to the Rebekahs and the Women of Woodcraft and also to the Christian church. Mr. Fitzgerald has an excellent standing in the community and is known as one of its substantial men.

FRANK FITZGERALD.

Frank Fitzgerald, who is devoting his time and energies to the operation of an excellent farm on section 34, township 13 north, range 42 east, Garfield county, was born in Tennessee, April 17, 1855, a son of Alford and Temperance (Bradshaw) Fitzgerald, natives respectively of Virginia and North Carolina, who were married, however, in Tennessee. In 1860 the family removed to Missouri and later in the same year the father passed away. The mother continued to reside in that state until her death in 1906. All of their four children survive.

Frank Fitzgerald passed the greater part of his boyhood and youth in the state of Missouri, as he was but five years of age at the time of the removal there, and his education was that afforded by the public schools. In 1887 he removed to Garfield county, Washington, and for thirteen years operated rented land but in 1900 bought his present farm of three hundred and twenty acres on section 34, township 13 north, range 42 east. His success has been based upon the sure foundation of hard work and the most rigorous attention to the task in hand.

Mr. Fitzgerald was married September 23, 1880, to Miss May Temple, who was born in Wisconsin, and they have eleven children, namely: Pearl, the wife of S. E. Fanning; Harold, Frank and Justin, all now in the United States army; Letta, the wife of Emery Dye; Alford; Otto; Opal; Louise; and two deceased.

Mr. Fitzgerald supports the republican party at the polls and for years has been a member of the school board, in which connection he has been instrumental in securing gratifying progress in the educational system of his locality. He is well known and highly esteemed and his personal friends are many.

JOHN R. FITZHUGH resides about seven miles southeast from Dayton on a fine estate of over five hundred acres which is valuable and fertile land. He is one of the leading farmers of this part of the country and has gained his holdings by industry and thrift. He was born in Missouri, on September 15, 1864 and his father, Robert A. Fitzhugh, was born in Kentucky, on July 25, 1810. He was a veteran of the Mexican War and was also with Kit Carson for twelve years. He married Joahanna Groom who was born in Kentucky. Her oldest sister was married to young Daniel Boone, a nephew of old Daniel Boone. Captain Fitzhugh of Revolutionary fame was a great uncle and he traces his ancestors back to the Normans at the time of their invasion of England.

Until fourteen years of age, John R. studied in the common schools of Missouri then his mother died and he was thrown on his own resources. He worked for wages until nineteen years of age, when he went to Arnita college, Iowa, and there studied for some time. After that, he went to Nebraska and settled on a homestead. For two and one half years he was engaged there, then sold his property and went to Denver, Colorado, and took up merchandising. Two years were spent in this line and we see him next in Portland, Oregon, where he engaged in teaming in the timber one winter. Then, on July 2, 1891, he came to his present location, and has remained here since. He has a good place, in a high state of cultivation, plenty of horses and other stock and good improvements. When Mr. Fitzhugh landed here, he had a little span of ponies and seventy-five cents in cash. One can readily see with what skill and thrift he has labored since to gain a fine property holding that he has at the present time. On September 26, 1902, Mr. Fitzhugh married Mrs. Minnie Hanger, who was born in Iowa, on February 26, 1873, the daughter of Levi and Ruth (Watts) Carter, the former born in Virginia, in 1830 and the latter in Montgomery county, Indiana, in 1848. To Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh, one child, Vera, has been born, the date being July 13, 1903. Mr. Fitzhugh has two brothers, Frank, deceased and J. W. in Oklahoma; and seven sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Childers, Melvina Parman, Martha Childers, Mary E. Huston, Rachel Hewitt, Missouri C. Baumgardner, and Eliza McClellan.

Mr. Fitzhugh is a member of the K. P. and the Methodist church. In this denomination he has been a local preacher since 1893 and has been instrumental in doing much good. He is an enthusiastic worker in the gospel and takes a great delight in evangelistic labors. He is highly respected through the country and is known as a man of ability and worth.

Since the above was written, Mr. Fitzhugh has sold his farm and has purchased a home in Dayton, where the family now resides. He also owns a farm of fifty-five acres four miles out from Albany, which is a very valuable property.

Tomas Flanagan Dies Suddenly

Victim of Heard Attack—Resident of County Own 50 Years.

Tomas Flanagan, a resident of Columbia county for more than 50 years, died very suddenly at his home in West Dayton near the base of Rock hill Tuesday afternoon at about one o'clock. He was cutting down a tree on his property, and suffered a heart attack which caused his death a short time afterwards. Funeral services will be held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel this afternoon at two o'clock with the Rev. S. M. Mathes of the United Brethren church in charge.

Tomas Flanagan was born may 24, 1863 and came west with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Flanagan, in 1875. He first lived in Walla Walla, later in Lewiston and finally in Columbia county where he remained until his death. In February, 1886 Tomas Flanagan was married to Elva McCubbins, a member of a well-known family of early settlers of Columbia county, and to this union nine children were born, two of whom died in infancy. Besides his widow, Mrs. Elva Flanagan, Mr. Flanagan leaves seven children: Dalles, Starbuck; Delmar, Walla Walla; Earld, Tacoma; Leona, Walla Walla and Mac, Elvina and Lena, all of Dayton. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mac Garvey of Spokane, and 17 grandchildren.

Dies Suddenly in Walla Walla Hospital

Dalles Flanagan, member of a well known pioneer family of Columbia county, died at St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla Friday evening after an illness of but a few days' duration. Funeral services were held from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel of this city Monday afternoon at two o'clock, and interment was made in the family plot at the Dayton cemetery. The Rev. W. O. Gilmore, of the Congregational church, was the officiating clergyman, and the Rev. Mack Cahill, of the First Church of the Nazarene, and Mrs. Cahill sang several beautiful duet numbers.

Dalles Edward Flanagan was born March 3, 1891, in Columbia county where he lived until manhood. He was married to Joey Patrick in the year 1914, and to this union there were born four children, one of whom died in infancy. They lived in Dayton a while, then moved to Attalia where they took up a homestead and lived for three years. They then went to Starbuck where Dalles was employed by the O. W. R. & N. Co. for nine years. Of late they had been living in Dayton. He was of a cheerful disposition, always looking on the bright side of life, and was a kind and loving husband and father. He had always been in rugged health until taken suddenly ill Wednesday night, only two days before his death.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Joey Flanagan and three children, Dennis, 16, Janice, 13, and Clenden, 11, all of this city. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Elva Flanagan, of this city, and these four sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Leona Fisher, Walla Walla; Mrs. Edgar Page, Mrs. Edward Parsons and Mrs. John Werhan, Dayton, and Elmar Flanagan, Walla Walla and Earld Flanagan, Tacoma.

She married H.M. (Max) Clark December 6, 1955 in Coeur d'Alene, Ida.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Earl (Catherine) Rose and Mrs. Carey (Linda) Reed, Seattle; one son, Darrel Page, Montana, 12 grandchildren; her mother; two brothers, Larry Flanagan, Norman, Okla. and Captain Edward Flanagan, Dover, Del.; one sister, Mrs. Ellen Wilbur, Prescott, several nieces and nephews.

12 Aug 1976

Erald Flanagan

Erald (E.T.) Flanagan, 315 S. Willow St., died Friday at Robison's Nursing Home at the age of 84.

Services were conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Hubbard-Rogg Funeral Home chapel by the Rev. Donald Lange. Burial followed in the Dayton City Cemetery with military honors by American Legion Post 42.

Flanagan was born on Eckler Mountain Feb. 15, 1892, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flanagan, Columbia County pioneers. He attended country school and worked on area farms.

Following military service with the U.S. Army in World War I, Flanagan worked in Tacoma. He married Christine De Kay in Walla Walla in 1933, and the couple moved to Dayton in 1934.

Flanagan worked on the construction of the Blue Mountain Cannery and for the Green Giant Co. until his retirement in 1957. He continued to work as a carpenter until four years ago.

Flanagan was a member of Samuel B. Oliver Barracks, World War I Veterans, of American Legion Post 42 and the Dayton Christian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Christine Flanagan, at the home; two daughters, Ethel Clark of Burien and Ellen Wilbur of Prescott; two sons, Lawrence M. Flanagan of Norman, Okla., and Capt. Edward E. Flanagan of the U.S. Air Force in Aviano, Italy; three sisters, Mrs. Edgar Page and Elvina Werhan of Dayton and Mrs. Edward Parson of Walla Walla; 12 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

7 Sept 1988

Christine Flanagan

Christine Flanagan died at her Willow Street home on August 30, 1988.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, September 3, 1988 at the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel. Burial was in the family plot, Dayton City Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Columbia County Ambulance.

Mrs. Flanagan was born on December 26, 1905 in Buffalo, New York to Ryan and Rachel DeKay Ryan. She moved to Northern Idaho with her mother and attended schools in Coeur d'Alene.

On December 23, 1933 she married Erald Flanagan in Walla Walla. They moved to Dayton in 1934, where she has lived since. Her husband died on August 6, 1976.

Mrs. Flanagan was an early promoter of the Columbia County Ambulance system, a member of the Methodist Church and enjoyed crocheting and flower gardening.

Mrs. Flanagan was a member of the American Legion for 36 years.

Mrs. Flanagan is survived by a daughter, Ellen Wilbur of Walla Walla; two sons, Larry Flanagan of Norman, Oklahoma and Edward Flanagan of Vancouver, Washington; 12 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Two daughters, Ethel Clark and Olga Nelson preceded her in death.

THREE VENERABLE LADIES CELEBRATE LONGEVITY

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY—Mrs. Jersey Virginia Donohue, 96, Mrs. Louisa Russell, 94, and Mrs. Laura Fletcher, 84, as they were snapped by Photog Pat Thursday at the celebration of Mrs. Russell's birthday. The festivities were at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fletcher, and many relatives and friends gathered to make the day a memorable one for these long-time close friends. Mrs. Donohue and Mrs. Russell were friends in Kansas before they came west in 1883 and 1880, respectively, and Mrs. Fletcher joined their friendship after meeting here.

Another unusual thing about this trio, is the coincidence that each has been the mother of eleven children.

In a minute, this afternoon, tomorrow, next week. Interminable periods to the impatience of youth. Such promise as next month, next year, in five years; they are unthinkable. But what does such minute spans mean to Mrs. Donohue with her 96 years, Mrs. Russell with 94 and Mrs. Fletcher, 84?

Mrs. Fletcher

Laura Manning was born in Edgar county, Illinois, August 27, 1866. With her family she came west in 1872, by train as far as Boise, Idaho, and from there to Columbia county by covered wagon.

Miss Manning was married to Frank Fletcher, January 12, 1886, and for 78 years she has lived within five miles of Dayton. Frank passed away December 14, 1927, and since then she has lived in her own home, sometimes with some one or the other of her children or grandchildren living with her. Mrs. Fletcher is the mother of 11 children, with seven still living.

They are, the oldest, Harve Fletcher, 62, Starbuck; Elmer, Victor, Dewey and Orie, all of Dayton; Mrs. Otto Winnett, Salem, Oregon, and Glenwood Fletcher, Dayton. She has 26 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Fletcher's greatest zest in life was found in cooking, and she still likes to do it.

"Frank Fletcher is Called By Death" (15 Dec 1927)
"Well Known Pioneer Died at Walla Walla Hospital Wednesday"

Another pioneer of Columbia County was called by death yesterday. Frank Fletcher died at the Walla Walla Hospital at College Place at about 9:45 a.m. after an illness of little more than a month's duration. His condition had seemed to be improving since his removal to the sanitarium a short time ago, and the day previous to his death he was better than he had been in some time. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

Frank Fletcher was born in Michigan, April 13, 1863. For a time he lived in Minnesota and came west with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Charles Fletcher, when about 16 years of age. The Fletchers took up a homestead on the South Touchet where this county was still very sparsely settled and the family had lived here continuously from that time being among the best known of our pioneer residents. Frank Fletcher and Miss Laura Manning, a daughter of another well known early resident of the County, were married here 42 years ago and some time later they acquired a farm on Payne Hollow which they have owned and successfully operated for the last 33 years. Mr. Fletcher was a member of the Christian Church, the W.O.W. lodge and the Odd Fellows, under whose auspices the last mentioned of which his funeral services will be held.

Besides his widow, Mrs Laura Fletcher, Mr. Fletcher is survived by seven sons and one daughter who are: Charles, Harvey, Elmer, Victor, Clewes, Orie, and Glen Fletcher, and

Mrs. Bessie Wennett, all of this county, 15 grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Lee Manning and Mrs. Ed Herman both of Columbia county, and Mrs. Amanda Rose of Pomeroy. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher were the parents of eleven children two daughters and one son of whom died in infancy and early childhood.

"Mrs E.L. Herman Dies at Age of 66" (27 Feb. 1930)

The death of Mrs. Frances Madora Herman, for 25 years a respected Dayton resident, occurred Monday afternoon at the Herman home, after a long illness.

Frances Madora Fletcher was born in Brown county, Minnesota, April 13, 1863. She was a twin of the late Frank Fletcher, who died at Dayton several years ago. When the twins were fourteen, the Fletcher family came west, traveling to San Francisco by rail, which was not such a common procedure in 1877. From California, they came to Seattle by steamboat, and there across to Eastern Washington. Except for a few years spent at Edwaid, her remaining life was spent in Columbia county. On June, 1898, she was married to E.L. Herman and for the past 25 years the couple made their home at Dayton.

Besides Mr. Herman, she leaves one daughter by a former marriage, Mrs. Ruth Hutchens; three sisters, Mrs. Manda Rose, Pomeroy; Mrs Cartara Knapp, Esk; and Mrs. Minnie Manning, Dayton; three grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel, with Rev. A.M. Mathes, of the United Brethren church in charge.

"Pioneer Lady, 85, Funeral Monday" (21 Jan 1954)

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Mrs. Minnie Manning, Columbia County pioneer, who died at the nursing home Thursday after a long period of failing health. A member of the Christian Church, services were held at the Hubbard-Rogg chapel with Rev. W. T. Taylor of the Nazarene Church officiating.

Mrs. Manning was born Minnie Mae Fletcher in Blue Earth county, Minnesota, July 10, 1868. She came to Columbia county with her parents when very young and had lived here about 80 years. The family first settled on South Touchet. She was a sister to the late Frank Fletcher, a well known pioneer, whose sons are now county stockmen and farmers.

Mrs. Manning was married to Alonzo Manning January 29, 1884, and they continued to make this community their home. Mr. Manning died October 31, 1939, following a lifetime of farming.

Mrs. Manning is survived by her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Stearns of Dayton, five grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.

"Laura Fletcher, 89, Died Sunday" (15 Dec 1955)

Mrs. Laura A. Fletcher, 89, died Sunday following an illness of but a few weeks. Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. Charles Graybeal officiating; Hubbard-Rogg conducting, and members of Schuyler Rebekah lodge No. 18 assisting with the Committal services.

Mrs. Fletcher was born August 27, 1866, in Edgar County, Illinois, and came to Columbia County 83 years ago with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Manning. Growing to young womanhood, she was married to Frank Fletcher in 1886.

The young couple took up farming and the stock business and continued until Mr. Fletcher died in 1927. Most of the time since she has made her home at 738 South Third street. She has remained in good health and spirit up until a short time before her death, only the last three or four years she began showing that time took its toll.

She is survived by seven children, Harvey C., Alvey F., Ora C., Elmer E., Victor F. Fletcher & Bessie Wixsett all of Dayton, and Glenwood Fletcher of Richland. There are 26 grandchildren and 46 great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Fine, and two brothers, John and Claude Manning all of Dayton.

Mrs. Fletcher was a member of the Christian Church, Schuyler Rebekah lodge No. 18, Dayton Grange and the Pioneer association. She had a wealth of memories of pioneer times of this community, and was a good neighbor with her home always the center of much activity, even unto the later years.

"Charles Fletcher"

Charles Fletcher, native resident, died at the Dayton Hospital last Thursday following several years of failing health. Funeral services were held from the First Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Elder C. D. Forkall of the United Brethren Church assisted by Rev. Frank Van Aoren and interment was made at the family plot in the Dayton Cemetery.

Charles Fletcher was the eldest son of the late Frank Fletcher and Laura Fletcher, pioneer residents of this county. He was born here November 18, 1886, and grew up on the Payne Hollow farm of the Fletcher family. He followed farming and the livestock industry for many years and was widely known in this and neighboring counties where he had many friends. At one time he served the city as night police.

On February 6, 1910, Charles Fletcher and Miss Sadie Sanders were united in marriage, and to this union one daughter, Virginia, was born. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Sadie Fletcher, the daughter, Mrs. Jack Kitterman, two step-children, Mrs. C. L. Ellis and Marvin Sanders, and two grandchildren, Duane and Gary Kitterman. Mr. Fletcher also leaves five mother, Mrs. Laura Fletcher, one sister, Mrs. Otto Winnett, Grand Coulee, and six brothers, Harvey, Elmer, Victor, Dewey, Orie and Glenn Fletcher all of this county.

"Mrs. Fletcher Dies Monday, Rites Today" (9 May 1957)

Last rites for Mrs. Sadie Bell Fletcher, 71, native daughter of Columbia county, will be held at 2 p.m. this afternoon, May 9, from the Hubbard-Rogg chapel.

The Rev. C. M. Faust, pastor of the Christian church, will officiate. Members of Schuyler Rebekah lodge No. 18 will participate in the service. Interment will be in the family plot at Dayton City Cemetery.

Mrs. Fletcher died Monday afternoon, May 6, at Dunning Memorial hospital. She had been a patient there since she suffered a fractured leg in a fall at her home at Third and Washington on April 18.

"Born in County"

She was born March 3, 1886, in Columbia county, the daughter of Riley and Olive Sumpter Rayburn, who farmed in the Mt. Pleasant district of the county.

She received her education at the schools at Mt. Pleasant and Dayton.

On April 4, 1903, in Dayton she and Dee B. Sanders were married. He passed away on February 14, 1908. On February 6, 1910, she married Charles Fletcher in Dayton. One daughter was born to them.

Airman Terry O. Fletcher Dies in Jet Tanker Crash

Funeral Services Scheduled Today For Dayton Airman

Airman 1/c Terry O. Fletcher, 22, of Dayton, crew member aboard a KC135 Fairchild Air Force Base jet tanker was killed about 6 p.m. Thursday, January 19, when the huge airplane crashed in the foothills of Mt. Spokane while making a landing approach.

Eight other members of the plane's crew also perished in the accident.

Funeral services for Airman Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Fletcher of Dayton, will be conducted at 2 p.m. today, January 26, from the Dayton Methodist church. Officiating will be the Rev. James Taylor, church pastor, and Chaplain Seaber from the Spokane base.

Interment with full military honors will be conducted at Dayton City Cemetery. Personnel from Fairchild AFB will be present to assist in the ceremony.

Flight from Hawaii

The jet tanker left Hickam Field in Hawaii at noon Thursday to escort a group of Air Force jet fighters back to the United States. The craft was scheduled to land at Fairchild shortly after 6 p.m. and was "on schedule" when it disappeared from radar screens at 6:09 p.m. The crew was assigned to the 43rd Air Refueling Sqaudron and earlier in the week had escorted a group of fighter jets to Hickam Field.

Other victims of the air crash of the $3.5 million dollar craft were: Capt. Billey E. Cammack, 33, Matador, Texas, aircraft commander; Capt. Herbert O. Zoeller, 30, Watertown, Wisconsin, pilot; Capt. James O. Wakeland, 27, Godley, Texas, navigator; M/Sgt. Orville Montgomery, 38, Saginaw, Michigan, boom operator; Lt. Col. Clifford J. Agenbroad, 44, Nampa, Idaho, instructor-pilot; Capt. Valentine F. Hamm, 35, Mt. Dora, Florida, aviation physiologist; S/Sgt. Ralph D. Ogle, 33, Watertown, Tennessee, maintenance crew chief; and Airman 3/c Michael R. Keer, 20, whose father is stationed in the Army in Germany.

DHS Grad in 1963

Airman Fletcher was born August 9, 1944, at Prosser. He graduated from Dayton High School with the class of 1963 and entered the Air Force in October, 1963.

He received his basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, and received special training as an aircraft maintenance specialist at Amarillo, Texas. He had been stationed at Larson AFB at Moses Lake until this base was closed.

He and the former Judy Bales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harold Bales of Dayton, were married November 5, 1965, in Dayton. They are parents of a son, Terry Dale, 2½ months. They had been making their home in Spokane at 1214 West 8th.

Family Members

In addition to his parents, wife and son, immediate family members include a brother, Ted; two step-sisters, Diane and Jean; a step-brother, Delbert; and a half-sister, Christi.

Lt. Colonel Agenbroad is a first cousin of Owen Agenbroad of Dayton. Colonel Agenbroad, operations officer of the 92nd Air Refueling Squadron, was a veteran pilot who had been stationed at Fairchild for over six years. He had been in the Air Force since 1943 and had seen action in World War II and in Korea. He was also a former member of the Idaho National Gard.

A memorial service for the nine members of the plane's crew was conducted Monday in Spokane.

Russell E. Fletcher

Russell E. Fletcher, age 87 years, of 224 No. Touchet Road, Dayton, WA died January 21, 2007 at the Booker Rest Home. Funeral services were held Saturday, January 27, 2007 at the Hubbard-Rogg Chapel with Pastor Joe Simmons officiated. Interment was in the Family Plot in the Dayton City Cemetery. Those who wish may contribute to the charity of the donor's choice.

He was born July 13, 1919 in Dayton. His parents were Elmer and Lucy Russell Fletcher. He graduated from Starbuck High School with the class of 1937 and Kinman Business College in Spokane. He served in the Army during WWII as a paymaster clerk under General Hap Arnold. After his discharge he returned to Dayton and married Kae Turner on March 20, 1948. In that same year he began a career with Green Giant Co., retiring in 1980.

He bought and sold cattle as an avocation, attending the local sales yards especially the Saturday livestock sale in Lewiston. He was always eager to teach his children what he knew about cattle. Another passion was finding water on ranches around the county. Using dozing methods himself or from others he drilled and dug wells and springs, it was like prospecting for precious metals to him.

He was a member of the Elks and American Legion. He enjoyed his family and hunting.

He is survived by his wife at home; three sons; David Fletcher, Mike Fletcher and Jim Fletcher all of Dayton; one daughter, Linda Coombs of Dayton; three sisters, Shirley Iverson of Walnut Creek, CA, Janis Martin of Issaquah, WA, and Laura Foust of Walla Walla.; three brothers, H.B.Fletcher of Dayton, Donald Fletcher of Othello and Gary Fletcher of Starbuck. 15 grandchildren and one great grandchild. He was preceded in death by a son, Allen Fletcher.

Blaine Fletcher

Blaine Fletcher, 84, died July 4, 2008 at his home in Dayton, Wa. His parents were Elmer and Lucy Fletcher, life long residents of Columbia County. He attended Dayton High School, Washington State University, The University of California Berkeley, and Vanderbilt University.

He met his wife, Wilda, at WSU. He and his wife traveled extensively throughout the world and visited all fifty states within his lifetime. He loved to travel, dance, follow the stock market, fish, hunt and spend time with his family. He enjoyed talking politics and was a strong proponent of the Republican Party and its principles.

Blaine worked as an economist for The Ford Motor Company, taught agricultural economics at Vanderbilt and Kansas State, and for many years was the farm management specialist in the Extension Department at Washington State University. He established National Management Corporation and operated this business for thirty years, doing computerized cost accounting for ranchers and farmers in eleven western states. A cattle and wheat farmer, Mr. Fletcher retired in 2004. He was a member of Phi Sigma Kappa, the Elks Lodge and various farming organizations.

He is survived by a daughter, Diana Pospisil of Southlake, Texas; two sons, Richard Fletcher of Alta Loma, California and Dr. Ronald Fletcher of Steilacoom, Washington; seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. He is also survived by two brothers, Don and Gary Fletcher, and three sisters, Shirley Iverson, Jan Martin, and Laura Foust. He was preceded in death by his brother, Russell Fletcher.
