Columbia Co. Boy Killed In Plane

James Raley Harsh, 23, Waitsburg, was killed Thursday night when a small pea dusting plane crashed on the Greenway farm six miles east of Dixie. The plane was one of two dusting peas in that district, according to investigating Walla Walla officers.

Alone in Plane

Harsh was alone in the plane and apparently had just completed work and was getting ready to return to his home field, according to the report, and cause of the crash was not determined.

When Harsh became overdue at the field the second plane started back to the territory and discovered the wreckage.

The pilot had been employed by the pea dusting company since operations started earlier in the summer.

Served in Navy

Harsh, a wartime navy pilot, was commissioned November 15, 1944, at Corpus Christi and was discharged from the service in the spring of 1946. A former student at W.S.C., he had planned to continue his studies in the coming fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harsh of Huntsville are the parents and four sisters also survive. They are Mrs. J. E. Wilson of Pasco, Mrs. Gordon Leid and Mrs. Mount Shaffer of Waitsburg and Mrs. Raymond Livingstone of Spokane. The deceased was a graduate of Waitsburg high school.

He is survived by his wife at the family home, four step children, Gus Hawks, Dayton, Clyde Hawks, Imperial Beach, Cal., Gladys Marll Dayton, Ellen Brisbois, Spray, Oregon, and seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Lawrence and Jim and three sisters, Dilla Harsh, Audrey Jennings and Leah Herman.

HARTING-DeRUWE

The marriage of Miss Florence DeRuwe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Remie DeRuwe of Tucannon and John Harting, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harting, pioneer residents, was solemnized at an eleven o'clock ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic church of this city Wednesday morning in the presence of 60 invited guests.

The impressive service was read by the Rev. Father J. Callanan of St. Patrick's church, Walla Walla, and Miss Katherine Howard, Walla Walla, was organist. Miss Frances McGrann of Pomeroy was maid of honor, and J. Neil Hamilton, Dayton, best man. Elmer DeRuwe and Jack DeRuwe, cousins of the bride, were ushers.

The church was decorated with baskets of madonna and regal lilies, pink roses and blue delphinium. The bride was lovely in white tulle, with a shoulder-length veil which fell from a halo of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and other dainty white flowers in the center of which was a lovely orchid which she wore as a corsage with her going away costume. For "something borrowed and something blue," which traditionally brings luck to a bride on her wedding day, she carried a blue and white lace-edged handkerchief which had been carried by Mrs. George F. McWhirter of Spokane as a bride and by seven brides in all. The bride had also tucked a dime into one of her slippers in keeping with an old custom popular with brides of many generations. Miss McGrann was costumed in blue marquisette and her Colonial bouquet and head dress were pink roses and sweetpeas.

A reception was held at the beautiful country home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. Refreshments were served from the dining table, which was dressed in a lace cloth and decorated with summer flowers and lighted tapers. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated in pink and white, and was topped by a miniature bridal couple. At the side were quaint wedding cake decorations brought from Scotland by a friend of the DeRuwe family. The bride cut the first slice of her cake in the time-honored manner, and just after this ceremony Miss Mary Virginia Jackson sang "Because," accompanied at the piano by Miss Katherine Howard.

The couple received many beautiful and useful wedding gifts and these were assembled in one of the rooms of the DeRuwe home, where the guest register in charge of Mrs. McWhirter was signed.

At the close of the reception, a wedding dinner was served members of the bridal party, with Mesdames Laura Harris, Maude Jackson, Lena Marquis and Agnes Henriod as hostesses. Later Mr. and Mrs. Harting left on a wedding trip to the coast, and for going away the bride chose a navy blue ensemble with matching accessories.

Both young people are graduates of the Dayton high school. The bride is a graduate of Holy Names, Spokane, and has most recently been teaching at Touchet. The bridegroom received his higher education at the State College of Washington and is now employed as secretary-manager of the Columbia County Farm Bureau.

Among the guests from out of town attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pollchow and daughter, Oregon City; Mrs. Matt C. Weber, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Delany, Starbuck; Mrs. J. J. McGrann and Miss Frances McGrann, Pomeroy; Mrs. O. A. Groom; Mrs. Florence Hughes, Freewater; Wm. Hughes, the Rev. Father J. Callanan and the Rev. Father Albert F. Austen, Walla Walla; Miss Marguerite Fly, St. Maries, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kerckhof, Louis Jr. and Lothaire Kerckhof, Prescott; and Mrs. and Mrs. George F. McWhirter, Spokane.

SOCIETY ITEMS

Hartings Have Golden Wedding

Golden chrysanthemums added their color to the golden theme used Sunday when friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George Harting gathered at the library basement to pay them honor on their golden wedding anniversary.

Golden weddings seem to have become a tradition in the Harting family. Mr. Harting's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam Harting, celebrated their golden anniversary in Dayton in 1929. A flower basket, which was used at the Adam Hartings' celebration, was used at Sunday's party. Also on display were family photographs and a pillow painted with gold, which was a gift to the elder Hartings long ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harting were married at her parents' home in Dayton on November 12, 1902. Mrs. Harting was the former Carmelia Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson. She was born in Cainsville, Missouri, and Mr. Harting was born in Russell, Kansas. They have spent their entire married life here. They are the parents of two children, Elsie (Mrs. Henry) Polchow of Oregon City, Oregon, and John Harting of Dayton. They have two granddaughters, Mrs. Harry Jones of Roseburg, Oregon, and Jackie Harting, Dayton, and one great-granddaughter, Karen Jones, who is three months old, and whom they saw for the first time Sunday.

A feature of the celebration was the large three-tiered wedding cake, iced in gold and decorated with golden leaves and roses. Both the cake table and the serving table were laid with hand-crocheted cloths made by Mr. Harting's sister, Mrs. Dora Ellis. An arrangement of yellow and white chrysanthemums centered the serving table.

Mrs. Ida Groom, another sister of Mr. Harting, was the only member of the original wedding party who also attended the golden wedding.

Serving during the afternoon were Mrs. Orville Harting, Mrs. Leo Harting, and Mrs. Harry Jones, 2 to 3; Mrs. Earl Harting, Mrs. Remie DeRuwe, and Mrs. Sanford Skillman, 3 to 4; Mrs. Arnold Harvey, Mrs. Austin McLain, and Mrs. Hubert Harting, 4 to 5. Miss Jackie Harting was in charge of the guest book.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Chapman, Toppenish, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellis, Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corkrum and family, Mrs. Elmer Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Skillman, Mrs. E. M. Peterson, Mrs. Estella Gross and daughter, Mrs. Arch Collard, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLain, Bertha Skillman, Mrs. W. J. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Remie DeRuwe, all of Walla Walla.

Local Junior Livestock Preview At Dayton Fairgrounds, Saturday, 28th

The annual 4-H and FFA livestock preview has been set for April 28 at the Columbia county fairgrounds. This show without question promises to be one of the largest of its kind in Dayton.

Entries will include about 25 steers and will show fine results of the boys' and girls' work in the past year. Other entries will include 15 lambs and 20 pigs with several promising prospects showing up.

An additional feature to this year's preview will be the showing of the 1950 Columbia County Fair calf scramble calves. These calves have been fed since September and will show the results of the feeding done by the individual as well as type differences. Those who will be watching with greatest difference are the donors of the calves. These are C. J. Thronson, Carlos Thronson, Dewey Donohue, John Harting, Dayton Branch Seattle-First National bank, Arden Archer, Columbia County Fair and Delbert Howard.

4-H and FFA judging will begin at 9 o'clock. There will be classes in sheep, swine and beef. We have been promised teams from several other schools and counties.

Judges for the event have been promised from the Spokane Junior Livestock show and State Extension service.

In the second panel, John Harting and his daughter, Jackie, and Harry King. They were honored by a birthday party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Delany. John is "the same age as Jack Benny," Jackie is six and Harry 80, and a pioneer of the Tucanon.—C-D photo.

The center trophy was retired this year with three consecutive wins and marked the 12th time in the last 13 years that Columbia county 4-H'ers have won the Spokane award for herdsmanship.

50-Year List Is Growing

And still the roll of 50 year residents continues to grow.

GEORGE HARTING

George Harting was born in Russell county, Kansas. After arriving in Columbia county he spent the first summer in town and then went with his parents to their present mountain farm. George now operates a farm a little below the original farm.

And he still votes in the same precinct he first voted in (Bundy). One thing George likes about this county is the fact there is always enough rainfall to insure good crops.

Mrs. Harting Is A Busy Woman

Mrs. Albert Harting was in our office the other day advertising fryers for sale. In the course of conversation, we learned that she is a busy woman. She this year is raising 1200 turkeys, and has 500 fryers developing for the market and 500 other baby chicks which will come on in due time.

We asked about running the two fowls together, which is considered hazardous, and learned that her chickens are on one side of the river and the turkeys on the other, thus keeping them sufficiently separated that neither has ill effect on the other. But that seems like spreading her work out over a large area. However, she says she likes it and does it over the protests of her husband, who thinks maybe she works too hard.

Last year Mrs. Harding dressed and sold 800 fryers. Her turkeys didn't do so well that year. She got hold of some spoiled feed which poisoned the poults and they died like flies.

10 Dec 1970

HONORARY FARMER—Mrs. Leo (Marcia) Harting, Route 2, has become the first female to receive honorary chapter farmer standing in the history of Dayton chapter, Future Farmers of America. The recognition was presented to Mrs. Harting by Chapter President Jerry Moyer during the 40th anniversary banquet Saturday evening, December 5. At the right, admiring the honor plaque, is Kelly Donohue, chapter vice president.

Mrs. Harting, who received the honorary membership by a vote of the chapter members, is the first woman in the district, and possibly the state, to be awarded the degree. Previously, she had been named "honorary chapter mother" for her long record of service to the Dayton organization.

An ardent supporter of all Future Farmer activities, Mrs. Harting has been particularly helpful during the past 19 years as she has accompanied the boys to the annual Spokane Junior Livestock Show. At the show she has served as chaperone, seamstress, laundress, nurse and mother to an average of 20 boys per year.

In addition she has also contacted local individuals and business firms in Dayton and Walla Walla for support money and premiums to help the young exhibitors at the Spokane show.

Served Since 1951

She has been present at all of the Spokane shows since her oldest son, Bob, began by showing the grand champion carcass swine in 1951. All three of the Harting boys have exhibited grand champions in the Spokane event. Jim won the grand championship with his market lamb in 1962 and Ron, a senior at Dayton High School this year, exhibited the grand champion pen of three market swine in 1969 and won the coveted grand championship over all swine in fitting and showing this year.

A change in the national FFA constitution in 1969 allowing girls in FFA, and consequently the honorary chapter farmer degree to women, enabled the local chapter to elect Mrs. Harting to the honor.

Deer Tosses Farmer For Heavy Landing

Adam T. Harting, 76-year-old pioneer farmer of Columbia county, was tossed over eight feet Monday by a buck deer on which he happened as he was investigating some springs on his ranch which is some nine miles from Dayton on the Hogeye.

As Mr. Harting approached one of the springs he came around a pine tree and was startled to see a buck deer, which seemed equally startled and was just jumping up from a sleep. Instead of running away however, as Mr. Harting states he always thought a well-behaved deer should do, when surprised, the buck made for the observer and tossed him up in the air on a capable pair of horns.

When he came to himself he found that he was lying on the ground with his hand bleeding and clothes torn in addition to a painfully wrenched back. How his hand was cut he cannot say unless it was on the buck's antlers.

A number of deer have been seen in the locality, but this is the first report of aggressiveness on their part.

The "Ring" School

From Jay Rayburn 8/26/2004

It is a remembrance of the old school house that I have in my head. I don't remember it as active, so am guessing maybe 1915-16. Glen and Roy Ring and John Harting are a bit older than I, or should I say was, by 5-10 years.

The school was ½ mile plus, from the Adam Harting place, and ¼ mile from the George Harting place, and ¼ mile plus from the Ring place, with 3 other places within ¾ mile from the school. Two different instances, I had heard it called the "Ring" school. It was on the Dustin Hollow road, and what I knew as the George Harting place, right next to the Rayburn property. They have re-named the road to "Canwright".

KANSAS.

Adam Harting of Mount Pleasant handed us the following song the other day and said we could print it if we wanted to. Mr. Harting was once a resident of Kansas and says while there he succeeded in raising two crops in eleven years. The song was sent to him from his old county.

Once we came to Kansas land
A happy, gay and care-free band;
Our hopes were high, the view was grand,
When we landed here in Kansas land.

And as we gazed on down the years
We saw not then this vale of tears;
For though we've worked and toiled in vain,
She gives us not her golden grain.

CHORUS.

O. Kansas land. Dry Kansas land,
Is this thy child, that stricken band
That wends its way across the plains
In search of sky that sometimes rains,
And hopes and hopes with inward pain
They ne'er will see this land again.

Our Kansas land is hard to beat
For real hard times and drouth and heat,
And tho' we've hoped and watched in vain,
She sends us not her cooling rain.

The frogs that now are three years old,
Have yet to swim, I'm told, I'm told
They do not live, they only stay
They are too dry to hop away.

And things keep growing worse each day
Our hens so weak they cannot lay
What we will do I do not know
The roosters, too, have lost their crow.

We have no wheat, we have no oats,
We have no corn to feel our shoats,
The pigs go squealing down the street,
There's nothing left for them to eat.

Our feed's all stacked there in a row,
It's thistles green you surely know;
The cows they live and do quite well
They give skim milk for us to sell.

The mortagage, too is way past due,
The landlords now they'll sue and sue,
There's nothing left for them to take
But an old boot-jack and toothless rake.

The green grasshopper's with us, too,
Just see him sit and chew and chew,
He hasn't chewed our mortgage yet,
He'll leave us that you bet, you bet.

Now you who in this land doth dwell,
To you this truth we now will tell,
You may as well just smile and stay,
Then you'll look like us some happy day.

Fifty Years Of Wedded Bliss

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Harting Celebrate Golden Wedding — Relatives and Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Harting celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on south Fourth street Wednesday. Many relatives and old friends of the family were present and a delightful afternoon was spent. The Harting home was decorated for the occasion with streamers of gold and white crepe paper, and many baskets of flowers received from friends both at home and abroad. One particularly beautiful bouquet was sent by relatives living in Michigan. The Hartings were the recipients of many presents of lasting beauty and usefulness. Among these was the gift of one hundred dollars in gold from their children.

Mr. Harting was born in Nipperville, Illinois, and Mrs. Harting, whose maiden name was Ruth Ashcraft was born in Clairfield, Pa. They were married in Russell, Kansas, May 8, 1879 by the Rev. Mr. Taylor and for nearly ten years the Hartings continued to live in Kansas .During that time Mr. Harting raised but three crops of grain with the other seven crops being taken by drouth, hailstorms or grasshoppers. Finally becoming discouraged with that country the Hartings came west and settled in this county which has since been their home.

Mr. Harting bought a timbered 160 acres on Mount Pleasant, and immediately got out his wedges and sledges, ground his axe, and began to carve a home out of the forest. He succeeded well, and after years of toil he had 125 acres cleared up with not a stump or tree on it. This ranch is now rented to one of their sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Harting are making their home in town. They are both enjoying the best of health and are surrounded by every worthy comfort. Mr. Harting attributes his good health to the exercise he got in clearing his ranch, and Mrs. Harting says her good health is due to watching him take the exercise.

Mr. and Mrs. Harting are the parents of four sons and three daughters, George Harting, the eldest, Mrs. Thomas Groom, Albert Harting, Mrs. John Ellis, Earl Harting, Mrs. Owen Groom, and Arthur Harting, all of whom were present. They have 16 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. The grandchildren present were: Anna, Lucile, and Earl Groom, Ralph, Elise, and Johnnie Harting, Joe Harting, Leo Harting, Hubert Harting, and Katherine Harting. Among the other guests present at the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. William Balding, Mrs. J. L. McCauley, Mrs. Mary Sanders and G. P. Sanders of Colfax, Rev. and Mrs. I. H. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mills, Maxine Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Groom, Waitsburg, Mrs. Lillie M. Kink and daughter Bertha of Russell, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Buckley of Pasco, Washington, Mrs. Fred Blue and little daughter, Barbara Jeanne of Tenino, Washington, Mrs. Nutten, Mrs. Wiles, Mrs. Byron McCauley, Nettie Rayburn, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Rayburn, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Harvey, and R. E. Peabody.

The afternoon was spent informally, and delicious refreshments were served.
