Mary Malinda "Maud" (Hastings) Griffin

with an unidentified young woman whom I probably should know and to whom I am probably related, maybe one of the Cairncrass cousins.

Vancia (Anderson) James Griffin: "Aunt Vancia" was a "lady" in the old sense. She taught everyone how to eat at a formal table. When I visited her, I remember her ironing by hand, bed sheets. She tried to teach me to tat one winter, failed. I didn't know she had been married before (to Louis James) until one day shortly after Uncle Rodney died and two ladies (sisters of Louis James) came to visit. Aunt Vancia had been a milliner. I have seen and will try to find pictures of her in some of her magnificent hat creations.

Rodney Hastings Griffin

"Uncle Rodney" as we called him, he was actually a great uncle was an accomplished carpenter and wood worker and really nice man with a good sense of humor.

S. Zeno Varnes

Taken July 1907 at Sandpoint, Idaho Zeno was with the USA Survey crew surveying the 6 northern townships of Idaho along the Canadian boundary line East and West through Kootenai River Basin. Paid $1.25 per day. He moved to Dayton with his wife Jennie Fay Griffin Varnes (daughter of Maud and Oscar, sister of Myrtle & Rodney).

Since Uncle Juggs (H.W. King Jr) was born in 1918, I would say this is 1918 or 1919 which would make my mom 4 or 5.

60. William Griffin, a maternal great-great-great-grandfather of Peter Hammer, and the father of Oscar Hammer, was probably born about 1828 in Ohio. In the 1870 Federal Census, William was a 42-year-old Ohio-born carpenter living in Uhrichsville, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. His 40-year-old wife "Marion" Griffin was also a native of Ohio and was listed as a housekeeper. They seem to have owned $1,200 in real estate and $300 in personal estate. At this time, they had five children, all born in Ohio, listed as follows: Oscar (19 years old), Jerry (17), Anna (15), John (3), and Edward (1).

Uhrichsville is the largest town of Mill Township and is the second in size in Tuscarawas County. In 1870, the Federal Census listed 1,541 people in Uhrichsville.

William Griffin was again listed in the 1880 Federal Census was a 52-year-old white male heading a household of eight in Mill Township of Tuscarawas County, Ohio. His 48-year-old wife, "Maryum" (Mary Ann) was listed, as well as 29-year-old "Osker," 26-year-old Jeremiah, 23-year-old Anne M., 15-year-old John W., 11-year-old Edward, and 6-year-old McCrea.

61. Little is known about Mary Ann Griffin, the wife of William Griffin (#60), the mother of Oscar W. Griffin (#30) and great-great-great-grandmother of Peter Hammer.

30. Oscar W. Griffin, the father of Myrtle Griffin (#15), was born in June 21, 1851 in the area of Uhrichsville, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. As a 19-year-old living in the household of his father William Griffin (#60), Oscar was listed as a grocery clerk. On September 24, 1882, Oscar married Mary Malinda Hastings (#31) in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. Mary, called Maude by the family, had come from a farm in Washington Township, Guernsey County, just south of Peola in Tuscarawas County. Oscar and Maude raised their family in Ohio and in the 1900 census, were recorded in Franklin Township, Harrison County (right next door to the east of Tuscarawas County in Ohio). 48-year-old Oscar stated that he had been born in June 1851 in Ohio of Ohio-born parents. His 40-year-old wife, Mary Griffin, stated that she had been born in January 1860, also in Ohio. Living in their household were the following four children: Myrtle (daughter, born April 1883, 17 years of age), Jennie F. (daughter, born July 1885, 14 years old), Rodney H. (son, born August 1890, 9 years old); and Lena D. (daughter, born June 1892, 7 years old). A 10-year-old niece, Anabelle Smith, born in November 1889 in Nebraska, was also recorded in this household. Oscar moved his family to Dayton, Washington in 1908 where he set up a family grocery store business. Oscar Griffin died on January 3, 1925.

31. Mary Malinda (Maude) Hastings was born in Washington Township, Guernsey County, Ohio on January 20, 1860 as the daughter of James Hastings (#62) and Christiana Shepherd (#63). In the 1860 Federal Census, one-year-old Mary lived in the household of her 35-year-old father James Hastings. According to both the 1860 and the 1900 Federal Census schedules, Mary's father was born in Pennsylvania; her mother in Ohio. On September 24, 1882, Maude was married to Oscar Griffin. They reared their family in Harrison County, immediately to the east of Tuscarawas County, but in 1908, Oscar and Mary disposed of their holdings and came out to Washington State to be near their daughters. They purchased the grocery store of A. B. Strong. Mary became very active in the management of the store. After Oscar's death in 1926, Mary assisted her son with the business. In 1935 Mary moved to California. Mary died very suddenly on Thursday, February 12, 1943, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. Z. Varnes of Berkeley, California.

Mary's obituary, taken from the Dayton Chronicle, read in part:

Mrs. Griffin was a member of the Presbyterian church in early life, but affiliated with the Congregational church after coming here. She was a great student of the Bible and taught an adult Bible class more than 25 years. She was a past noble grand of the Rebekah lodge, and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Monday Reading club. She did newspaper work in early life and never quite lost touch with this field. She was alert and interested in everything about her throughout her long life.

Maude was survived by her son, R. H. Griffin (of Dayton); two daughters, Mrs. S. Z. Varnes (of Berkeley, California) and Mrs. Ralph Forbes (of Beach, California); seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Her daughter, Myrtle Griffin King, had died earlier (in 1936). Mable Smith, a niece raised by Oscar and Myrtle as an adopted daughter, had become Mrs. Fred Mazet of California and also survived.

62. James Hastings, a maternal great-great-great-grandfather of Peter Hammer, was born on November 3, 1830. James Hastings was listed as a 25-year-old farmer living in his mother's household in the 1850 Federal Census. James' mother, Mary Hastings, lived in Washington Township, Guernsey County, Ohio, owned $2,400 of real estate, and gave New Jersey as her state of birth. James listed Pennsylvania as his place of birth, although his eight younger siblings were all Ohio natives. By the time of the 1860 census, James had married Christiana Shepherd. Listed as a 35-year-old master carpenter owning $2,000 of real estate and $371 of personal estate, James Hastings again listed Pennsylvania as his place of birth. 30-year-old Christiana would die seven years later. Thirty years after Christiana's death, James Hastings died on July 2, 1897.
63. Christiana Shepherd was born on November 3, 1830. The names of her parents are not yet known. Christiana died on November 8, 1867.

15. Myrtle O. Griffin, a maternal great-grandmother of Peter Hammer, was born on April 18, 1882 in Uhrichsville, Tuscarawas County, Ohio as the daughter of Oscar Griffin (#30) and Mary Malinda (Maude) Hastings (#31). Myrtle accompanied her parents in their 1908 move to Dayton, Washington.

Myrtle was married on September 21, 1910 in Dayton, Washington to Harry Westcott King (#14). At the time of their marriage, Myrtle was a teacher. Their first child, Bernita, was born in Dayton. Their second child, Marjorie, was born on June 1, 1914, also in Dayton. Their next two children were: William Griffin King and Harry Westcott King, Jr.

In May 1937, Myrtle Griffin King died very suddenly at her home on Tucanon. Her remains were taken to Pomeroy for burial, and funeral services were held at the C. M. Vassar Chapel in Pomeroy, with Reverend W. M. Martin officiating. Myrtle was survived by her husband, Harry W. King; two daughters, Miss Bernita King of Spokane and Mrs. Ray Michener of Pomeroy; two sons, Bill King of Walla Walla and Harry King, Jr. of Tucanon; her mother, Maude Griffin of Berkeley, California; one brother, Rodney H. Griffin of Dayton; and two sisters, Mrs. S. Z. Varnes, Berkeley, and Mrs. Ralph Forbes, San Luis Obispo, California.³

A Gun Accident

Last Wednesday Riley Griffen, out on a little expedition after huckleberries and grouse, had an experience with a gun that was not serious but just missed being so. He had a 1906 Winchester 22 from Hanan's shooting gallery and after firing one shot of the fifteen the gun held, the other fourteen exploded in the magazine tube just as he had drawn back the slide to reload. There was one long report and the gun stock was red hot but it all happened so suddenly that Mr. Griffen did not even drop the weapon, though one wrist was slightly hurt in the accident. The magazine tube was partly split open by the force and the shells were welded into it as solidly as if they were an original part of the gun. Mr. Hanan has had more than twenty-four years experience with guns and in that time had not seen a similar occurrence, so will send this miscreant to the factory this week to see what explanation can be offered there for its action.

M. Griffen Final Service Held May 10

Mrs. Margaret Alberta Griffen, 71, resident of Columbia county for 56 years, passed away unexpectedly at her home at 205 E. Tremont Saturday evening, May 6.

Last rites were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 10, from the Dayton Congregational church with the Rev. Charles Knapp officiating. Interment was in Dayton city cemetery.

Mrs. Griffen was born February 24, 1890, in Menomonie, Wisconsin, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Petrick. She and Newton R. Griffen were married April 19, 1908, at Dayton.

She was preceded in death by her husband on January 17, 1955, and by a son, Ray, in March, 1958.

Mrs. Griffen was a member of the Congregational church and the Halpine Society.

She is survived by two sons, Gail Griffen and Jack Griffen, both of Dayton; one daughter, Mrs. Howard (Irene) Phelps of Pendleton, Oregon; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren; two brothers, Herman Petrick of Sacramento, Calif., and Paul Petrick of Kooskia, Idaho; and three sisters, Mrs. Fred (Elsie) Titus of Ahsahka, Idaho, Mrs. Charles (Bertha) Wolfe of Dayton, and Mrs. Effie Burgett of Madison, Wisc.

Services For ^{20 Jan 1955} Pioneer Griffen

Services will be held at 2:30 this afternoon at the Hubbard-Rogg chapel for N. Riley Griffen, who died Monday after a long period of failing health. Rev. J. Logan Peringer officiating.

Mr. Griffen was born at Buffalo Gap, Texas, September 12, 1875. He first came to Dayton January, 1898, with a railroad survey crew that located the Turner branch line out of here to Turner. Later he returned to Dayton and took employment on the construction crew that built the line.

He liked the community so much that he decided to make it his home and on April 19, 1908, he was married to Margaret Petrick and they continued to make this their home.

Riley was a lover of horses and he worked with horses until the gasoline motor put an end to that era. At one time he operated a livery stable here. When the horses were gone, Riley took up carpenter work and followed that trade for many years.

About a year ago he fell and broke his hip and was laid up for many weeks. He had barely gotten over that mishap before his last illness came upon him.

Survivors included the wife, Mrs. Margaret Griffen, four children, Mrs. Irene Phelps of Pendleton, Oregon, Gail, Ray and Jack Griffen, all of Dayton; one sister, Mrs. Charles Begley of Plattsburg, Missouri, and eight grandchildren.

He was a member of Blue Mountain Lodge No. 5, A.O.U.W.

Gail R. Griffen
