In the summer of 1865, the three sons of John Meriedith Turner (John D., Charles Daniel and Thomas Lee and the one son of Daniel Meridy Turner left Missouri for Oregon. The biographer of John D. Turner states, "In 1865 they crossed the plains with ox teams to Oregon, being six months in making the journey." John D. Turner and James Daniel Turner went to yamhill County. Charles Turner and Thomas Turner settled in Clackamas County. Page 41

JOHN D. TURNER: "in 1865 they crossed the plains with ox teams to Oregon, being six months in making the journey. On their arrival they located in Yamhill county, that state, where they lived for about six years and in March, 1871, came to Washington. They took up their abode on Whiskey creed, in what is now Columbia county but was then a part of Walla Walla county, and the father preempted a quarter section of land, upon which he continued to reside until called to his final home." Page 56

There was still a part of the Turner family that remained in Missouri after the Civil War. But this great turmoil had caused many to seek another place to live where they could live in peace. In the summer of 1865, the three sons of John Meredith Turner, John D., Charles Daniel and Thomas Lee and the one son of Daniel Meridy Turner, James Daniel Turner went to Yamhill county. Charles and Thomas settled in Clackamas county.

Only Thomas Lee Turner remained in Oregon. The other three left Oregon for Walla Walla County in the Washington Territory. In March of 1871 John D. Turner took up his abode on Whiskey Creek, in what became Columbia County in 1875. James Daniel Turner homesteaded near Alto in the same year. Charles Daniel Turner joined them and homesteaded near Huntsville about 1875. Public land was taken up under the preemption Act of 1841, under which a settler could claim and purchase up to 160 acres for $1.25 an acre or under the Homestead Act of 1862 where a citizen could claim title to 160 acres, provided he or she resided on the land for five years, made improvements, and paid a fee of $34.00. The timber and Stokne Act of 1878 set a fee of $2.50 an acre. Page 65

OF FAUQUIER COUNTY, VIRGINIA

By Gwen Boyer Bjorkman

In 1715 Nathaniel HEDGMAN received a grant of 750 acres "on the north side of Rappahannock River about 35 miles above the falls thereof," and his sons, Peter and Nathaniel, Jr., in August, 1724, increased the family holdings to 4,800 acres by each taking grants of 2,025 acres, described as "on the north side of Rappahannock River opposite to the little ford and adjoining the land of Nathaniel dec'd." (A:61, 62) The North Fork of the Rappahannock was soon to become known by HEDGMAN'S name and the quarter established by his sons between Tin Pot Run and the river below the mouth of Great Run, survived as a landmark on many maps.<sup>16</sup>

Most of these grants were in the nature of frontier land speculations by tidewater landholders who had no intention at the time of becoming residents of the new country, nor, in many cases, of establishing slave quarters. If a "quarter" was settled as a tobacco plantation, the owner erected buildings and established an overseer with slaves under him to cultivate the land.<sup>17</sup>

In 1747 there was recorded in Prince William County three leases for three lives (each for 200 acres) from Peter HEDGMAN. The first lease dated February 1745 was for the lives of Edward TURNER and his sons James TURNER and Edward TURNER. The second lease dated 26 May 1746 was for the lives of William TURNER and his sons William TURNER and John Meridy TURNER. The third lease dated February 1745 was for the lives of James TURNER his son James TURNER and his daughter Mary TURNER. The leases were found recorded together in the Prince William County deed book and the land of William and Edward was adjoining. James TURNER witnessed Edward's lease. Edward TURNER witnessed James' lease. William TURNER'S lease for three lives on HEDGMAN [Rappahannock] River was beginning at Edward TURNER'S corner.<sup>18</sup>

The town of Remington now stands on part of Edward TURNER'S lease. Today, US Route 29 going south from Warrenton to Culpeper as it bridges the Rappahannock River goes over the same land that was leased by our William TURNER.<sup>19</sup> This lease for three lives proves that our John Meridy TURNER was the son of William TURNER.

Here is a transcription of this lease recorded in Prince William County Virginia Deed Book 1:70:

"Hedgman gent. to Turner Lease for Lives Sept. 25 1747 Dd Wm. Turner

Signed, Sealed and Delivered in the presence of John Mauzy                      Joseph Delaney                      William Cagi

The word, granted, in ye 4th line and the word, to consist of 200, in the 25th line & the words, one thousand, in the 30th line & the word, or, in the 36th line being first interlined & also the word 50£ Sterling & in the 34th line and also the words, and the quitrents of the said land, in the 23rd line being all first interlined."

Recorded with these three leases were three more leases from Peter HEDGMAN to Joseph DELANEY, William CAGE and James FREEMAN. William TURNER (by mark) and Edward TURNER witnessed all three of these leases and they were all acknowledged on 26 May 1746.<sup>20</sup> By 1752 William TURNER was in court bringing suit against Joseph CAGE for trespass.<sup>21</sup> By March of 1754 James FREEMAN had died and in September 1755 Edward TURNER, William TURNER and John BARBY were suing the widow and her new husband, John and Elizabeth WELCH, for counter security in James FREEMAN'S estate.<sup>22</sup>

A man named Stephen MCCORMICK (brother of the John MCCORMICK who witnessed Mary JENNINGS will in 1745 along with William TURNER)<sup>23</sup> was overseer on Peter HEDGMAN'S land in Fauquier (HEDGMAN'S Quarter also called Merry Hill).

Stephen MCCORMICK had a long running court case against James TURNER from 1753 until 1755 when the case was dismissed. Edward TURNER, Jane TURNER, William TURNER and Sarah TURNER were each paid for two days travel to court on the 24 September 1754. These may be the wives of Edward and William TURNER. On the 24 March 1755 they were all paid again, 1 day for each, except three days for William TURNER.<sup>24</sup>

Fauquier County was formed on 1 May 1759 from the western portion of Prince William County. The 1759 Fauquier County Tithables List has been preserved. In the list of Thos. MARSHALL we find:

HEDGMAN'S Quarter	} 12 tithables
Steven MCCORMACK & negroes
William TURNER	} 3 tithables
Alexr. TURNER
Edwd. TURNER
James TURNER	} 1 tithable <sup>25</sup>

This shows that Steven MCCORMICK was overseer with 11 Negro slaves on Peter HEDGMAN'S Quarter. James TURNER was living in a separate household. William, Alexander and Edward TURNER appear to be living together. None of the TURNERS own slaves. William and Edward should be the two men (or their two sons) who had the 1746 leases from Peter HEDGMAN. Alexander TURNER was the son of Edward and Jean TURNER, born in 1741 and baptized at Overwharton Parish, Stafford County.<sup>26</sup> Edward TURNER was married to Jane GIBSON of Prince William County. She was named in the will of her father, Jacob GIBSON, dated 2 October 1734, "to my daughter Jann TURNER one young mair."<sup>27</sup>

Peter HEDGMAN, who died in 1765, left a will dated 29 November 1764.<sup>28</sup> In this will he left 500 acres of land in Fauquier County to Margaret MCCORMICK, wife of his overseer Stephen MCCORMICK. This included the 400 acres of land that was leased to William and Edward TURNER in 1746. At the time the will was written in 1764 the land was occupied by James and William TURNER (sons of Edward and William respectively).

"Item I Give unto Margaret MCCORMICK, wife of Stephen MCCORMICK, four hundred acres of Land in the County of Fauquier whereon is now two Tenements Occupied by William TURNER and James TURNER, likewise one hundred Acres of Land adjoining the same which will take in the whole or part of what

James GRIMSLY formerly lived on so as to make the whole Lands to her hereby devised a Tract of five hundred Acres."<sup>29</sup>

At May Court 1767 there was a suit brought by Aminadab SEEKRIGHT Plaintiff against Ferdinando DREADNOUGHT Defendant "In Ejectment for one message and 200 acres of land with the appurtenances situate lying and being in the Parish of Hamilton and county of Fauquier of the demise of Edward TURNER. On the motion of Stephen MCCORMAC he is admitted Deft. in this suit in the room of the said DREADNOUGHT and thereupon by William ELLZEY his attorney he comes and defends the force and injury when etc. and pleads the general issue and agrees to insist on the title only at Trial."<sup>30</sup>

At the June Court 1768 Aminadab SEEKRIGHT Plaintiff against Stephen MCCORMICK Deft "In Ejectment for one message tenement & 200 acres of land with the appurtenances in the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Fauquier of the Demise of Edward TURNER. Discontinued being agreed."<sup>31</sup>

The names being used for the Plaintiff and Defendant seem to be the same as we now use John DOE and Richard ROE. Stephen MCCORMICK, whose wife Margaret had inherited this land, was now trying to eject Edward TURNER from his 200 acres of leased land. The word "demise" can mean either death or "a death or decease occasioning the transfer of an estate." A "message" is "a dwelling with its adjacent buildings and lands."<sup>32</sup>

In March of 1767 the petition of Edward TURNER against John KNOX Executor of Peter HEDGMAN was dismissed because the "Sheriff having returned that the Deft is no inhabitant of this county." So possibly Edward TURNER was the man who originally took out the lease for 200 acres from Peter HEDGMAN in 1746, but he had moved out of Fauquier County. This could explain why his son, James TURNER, was occupying the leased land in 1765 at the time of the writing of Peter HEDGMAN'S will. In the November Court of 1769 Edward TURNER was called "an aged witness." At October Court 1776, Edward TURNER was "discharged from paying county levys for the future." This was usually because of age.<sup>33</sup>

There was no suit for ejectment of William TURNER from his lease. John Meridy TURNER did not seem to have any part in any lawsuits over this land. Stephen MCCORMICK died in 1786 and his wife, Margaret, survived him. He gave her "all of my Estate during her natural life and after her decease to be divided between

Our two children John MACORMICK and Elizabeth Mtjoy MARTIN."<sup>34</sup> There was no record of a will for Margaret MCCORMICK. The MCCORMICKS are remembered for their grandson, Stephen MCCORMICK (1784-1875), who patented a cast-iron mould board plow in 1819.<sup>35</sup>

On the 26 April 1779 John (Meridy) TURNER purchased 150 acres of land for £100 from Reuben and Mary WRIGHT at the Marsh Run, corner to Mrs. ALEXANDER. This was just south of the present town of Bealeton on present US 17. The north end of the plantation was near Marr's Bridge on Marsh Road, now US 17. On the same day Reuben and Mary WRIGHT sold 200 acres to Nicholas WYCOFF described as lying near Marsh Run, Mr. HUNTER, and Rogues Road.<sup>36</sup> Reuben WRIGHT of Fauquier County had patented 422 acres adjacent Col. Charles CARTER, Mr. THORN, Mr. SKINKER and the "Roages Road" on 5 April 1775.<sup>37</sup> "Rogues Road" was another designation for the "Old Carolina Road," portions of which still traverse parts of the county.<sup>38</sup>

In 1775 the population of Fauquier County was about 13,500. About 4,800 of these were slaves owned by about 15 per cent of the white male population, or about 650 persons. At least half of these 650 men owned between one and four slaves.<sup>39</sup> The farmers raised corn to feed themselves and their hogs and cattle. The wife and children tended the vegetable garden. Their only marketable crop was tobacco. John TURNER worked his land with his two sons and his Negroes.

In 1779, John Meridy TURNER, a man in his thirties, was married and had several children. The country was at war with Great Britain, but we found no record of him serving in the Revolution. There was a record for 30 July 1780 of a John TURNER providing supplies (8 pounds of Bacon) for the Revolutionary Army.<sup>40</sup> During the Revolution, the tread of marching feet on the Carolina Road could be heard. In January, 1779, the Saratoga Convention prisoners passed over it on their way to Charlottesville, and two years later "mad" Anthony WAYNE followed with his brigade of the Pennsylvania Line to reinforce LAFAYETTE'S army in the campaign that ended at Yorktown.<sup>41</sup>

The marriage of John Meridy TURNER to Elizabeth was not recorded in Fauquier, but they must have married sometime around 1770. The marriages of their two sons and three daughters were all recorded in Fauquier County. The marriage of Sarah to Lewis BROWN was not recorded. Lewis BROWN was listed in Edward

HUMSTON'S 1787 tax list.<sup>42</sup> John TURNER was in the same list. There were two John TURNERS listed in the Personal Property Tax Books for Fauquier County from 1782 to 1788. In 1788 Willis BROWN was listed in the same household with John TURNER in Edward HUMSTON'S list.<sup>43</sup>

The 1800 Tax List (Charles PICKETT'S List) has:

TURNER, John	1 free male over 16, 5 horses, 2 slaves over 16.
TURNER, Daniel	1 free male over 16, 1 horse
SMITH, Lewis	1 free male over 16, 2 horses. <sup>44</sup>

John TURNER was on the 1810 census with his wife, one son and one daughter (probably his unmarried children, John Meredith and Mary) and seven slaves.<sup>45</sup>

A declaration of war against Great Britain was passed by Congress on 18 June 1812. According to his service record, John Meredith TURNER enlisted at Germantown, Fauquier County, on 25 Aug 1814 (the day after the British attack on Washington D.C.) and was discharged 24 Nov 1814 for a total of three months service. His unit, among others, was positioned for the defense of Baltimore and would have witnessed the British attack on Ft. McHenry in Baltimore harbor on 13 Sep 1814. The Star Spangled Banner was written by Francis Scott KEY during this battle.<sup>46</sup>

Since John Meridy TURNER bought only one piece of land in his lifetime, the best record of his life is his death in 1815. He seems to have lived his whole life in this very small area of Fauquier County, moving from his father's plantation near Remington to his own plantation near Bealeton. That is a distance of about three miles.

Here is a complete copy of his original will:

"In the name of god. Amen, the 16th day of May 1815

Sighn Sealed, published, and declared by the above named John Turner to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator.

Joseph Boteler
John Suddoth
Cossm B Day

At a Court held for Fauqr. County the 26th day of June 1815 This Will was proved by the oaths of Joseph Boteler, John Suddoth, and Cossm B. Day witnesses thereto & ordered to be Recorded and on the motion of Robt. Green, Lewis Suddoth, and Joseph Morgan the Executors therein named who together with, John Suddoth, Geo. Eastham Jr. & Inman Horner their securities who entered into an ackd. bond in the penalty of four thousand Dollars conditioned as the Law directs a certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate thereof in due form. Teste Danl. Withers.<sup>47</sup>

During colonial times, the law in Virginia had been that the wife received her dower (one-third) share in the real estate during her lifetime and the eldest son received two-thirds, and his mother's share upon her death.<sup>48</sup> John TURNER left the whole of his estate to his wife during her life, and then at the time of her death the estate was to be divided (according to his wishes) among all their children.

At June Court 1815 Thomas GREEN, William FRANKLIN, Joseph BOTELER & John SUTHARD [SUDDOTH] or any three of them were sworn to appraise the estate of John TURNER. The inventory was made on 23 August and recorded on the 25 September.<sup>49</sup> The slaves were valued at Laroy $500, Lewis $500, Thomas $500, Nancy $250, Ruth $300, Maria $400, Sucky $400, Richard $150, Wilson $100. The estate, not counting the real estate, was appraised at a total of $3707.75.

The widow, Elizabeth TURNER, was to live out her life on the plantation with the assistance of her slaves and her son, John Meredith TURNER, who stayed with his mother until after her death. In September of 1816, her daughter Mary H. was married to John GARNER by George LEMMON, Episcopal minister. The marriage bond was dated 21 September 1816 and the bondsman was Lewis SUDDOTH, the executor of her father's estate.<sup>50</sup> A prenuptial agreement was signed by John GARNER on the 21 September 1816 stating that he would have no right to the property of Mary TURNER that was to come into her possession at the death of her mother. In this deed he was said to be John GARNER of the County of Hardy. Hardy County is now in West Virginia.<sup>51</sup>

The 1820 census for Fauquier County finds Elizabeth TURNER with ten slaves and what appears to be her son John Meredith TURNER, his wife Harriet and their daughter Elizabeth all living with her.<sup>52</sup>

At the Fauquier Court for 24 January 1825 William BOWER, John B. GIBSON & Aldridge JAMES were sworn to settle the accounts of Joseph MORGAN & Lewis SUDDOTH the Executors of John TURNER. They reported that Elizabeth TURNER had accepted the appraisal of her husband's personal estate as $3,707.75 on the 29 April 1824. This was recorded on the 25 April 1825.<sup>53</sup>

So it would be sometime after this date of 29 April 1824 and before the appraisal of the estate made on 26 August 1828 that Elizabeth TURNER died. On that date John EUSTACE, William HANSBOROUGH, George DUFF & John SUDDOTH were sworn to appraise the estate again. At this appraisal the slaves were not included (since they were given to the children in the will), but the 152 acres of Land was appraised at $2.25 per acre for a total of $342.00. The total estate was then valued at $616.70.<sup>54</sup>

A sale of the estate was held on 4 September 1828 and this was recorded on 23 March 1829 for a total of $624.07.<sup>55</sup> This was quite close to the valuation placed on the estate by the appraisers. This sale shows that the family had gathered at the old home place for the final sale. Even though Daniel TURNER and Hannah SMITH had already moved on to Shenandoah County, Daniel was back for the sale. Hannah had sent her son Alexander SMITH to represent her. Mary GARNER, Samuel OLIVER and John TURNER were also at the sale. Nothing was said about whether they received the slaves at this time or if they were also sold. The proceeds were divided and that was the end of this TURNER family in Fauquier County, Virginia. It had been eighty-two years since William, Edward, and James TURNER took out their leases for three lives.

Since it is interesting to see what the worldly estate of our ancestor consisted of, we will transcribe the full sale list:

The sale of the land was executed in a deed dated 17 October 1828 between Carola G. A. JENNINGS & Mary his wife to Lewis SUDDOTH for $351.12 paid by Lewis SUDDOTH, confirming unto Lewis SUDDOTH one certain tract being "that part of the tract of land on which John TURNER resided at the time of his death & of which he died possessed & on which the dwelling house & other houses stand."<sup>56</sup>

Another deed was recorded on the same date, 31 August 1829, between Carola G. A. JENNINGS & Mary his wife for $351 from

Joseph MORGAN for one certain parcel of land lying on the waters of Marsh Run in Fauquier being a part of the tract of land owned by John TURNER decd. at the time of his death & bounded as follows "Beginning at a large Spanish oak standing at the junction of North Marsh & Elk Marsh runs and running thence to John SUDDOTH and Lewis SUDDOTH to a dead maple standing near the head of the Big Beaver dam thence up the meanders of the Marsh Run to the beginning."<sup>57</sup> It appears that JENNINGS was an intermediary so that the executors of John TURNER could buy his land.

An account of the Executors was made on 26 October 1829 showing they had receipts of $505.90% which (minus what they had spent) left a total balance of $289.98. "The estate of Jno. TURNER decd. in account current with Joseph MORGAN and Lewis SUDDOTH Exors.

The final account of the Executors was made on the 15 Nov 1830. The estate had a balance of $465.54. The six heirs were paid $68.72½ each. They were named as "Lewis BROWN who intermarried Sarah TURNER, John M. TURNER, Lewis SMITH who intermarried with Hannah TURNER per Saml. PERRYS Recpt., Saml. PERRY attorney for Daniel TURNER, Saml. OLIVER who intermarried with Eliza TURNER, Mary H. GARNER." The account was recorded on 29 July 1834.<sup>59</sup>

From this final account in 1830 it appears that all of the children were still living in Fauquier County, except for Daniel TURNER and Hannah SMITH of Shenandoah County who were represented by power of attorney. The attorney was Samuel PERRY who had married Elizabeth McCarty SMITH(23), 25 November 1824, in Fauquier, Virginia. He was in the 1830 Shenandoah County census.

CHAPTER 3

THE THIRD GENERATION

By 1851 most of the related TURNER and SMITH families had left Ohio and migrated further west to Missouri. Only Peter and Harriet LIVINGSTON(35) remained in Ohio. The OLIVERS(12) and part of the MARTIN(9)(87) family moved to Parke County, Indiana.

The TURNER and SMITH families were not the first settlers on the Missouri frontier, but they did arrive in time to receive government land. William H. TURNER(13) patented land in Scotland County in 1836, 1839 and 1840.<sup>1</sup> Michael MILLER(19) patented land in 1839 and 1840.<sup>2</sup> Daniel M. SMITH(26) patented land in 1838 and Lewis T. J. SMITH(27) and Alexander SMITH(25) patented land in 1839.<sup>3</sup>

John Meredith Turner SMITH(21) (who reported that he settled in Scotland County in 1842) surrendered a Land Warrant for 160 acres in 1850.<sup>4</sup>

Shortly after John Meredith TURNER(7) arrived in Missouri in 1851, he presented his War of 1812 Bounty Land Warrant to the nearest U.S. Land Agent in Palmyra on 10 November 1851 and received 40 acres in Harrison Twp., near Arbela.<sup>5</sup> On that same day, five others in the family transacted land deeds: Michael CROSS(32), Willis MARTIN(33), Levi PRYOR(36), Lewis SMITH(27) and Alexander TURNER(16). They received title to 400 acres of land, some selling for as little as 50 cents an acre.

After the death of John Meredith TURNER(7), in 1855 Harriet COOKE TURNER received a warrant for an additional 120 acres which she signed over to her son John M. TURNER(38).<sup>6</sup> He received 120 acres in Adair County on the border of Knox County, a distance south by 25 miles from the other families near Arbela and Etna.<sup>7</sup> Besides John D. TURNER(38) and his family, Charles Daniel TURNER(39) was living in Salt River Township in Adair County with his family and his youngest brother, Thomas Lee TURNER(40) on the 1860 census.<sup>8</sup>

pealing for fifty thousand men. Many southern sympathizers responded to this call. The Confederates were unwilling to risk troops north of the Missouri River so all they did was to harass the Union troops in that section and push forward the enlistment of men for PRICE'S army. During the winter of 1862 many Federal troops left Northeast Missouri and the Confederates took advantage of their absence.

Col. John PORTER, who had been a farmer in Knox County before the war, recruited over 5,000 Confederate soldiers from Northeast Missouri in a little over a half year. After several brilliant victories, on 31 July 1862 at Kirksville he was soundly defeated by the badly outnumbered Union force of General MCNEIL. Recruiting for the South in that section after August 6 was hazardous due to the presence of Federal troops. On August 8 PORTER was driven into southeast Adair County where his men deserted so rapidly that barely five hundred remained with him. He retreated south.<sup>9</sup>

John D., Charles Daniel, and Thomas Lee TURNER were living in Adair County in 1860. Before 1862 Charles Daniel TURNER(39) also retreated south, or at least sent his family south, as his son Jefferson Davis TURNER(128) was born in Sedalia, Pettis County in January of 1862. The only Confederate service record found for Charles TURNER was an enlistment in Boone County, Missouri on 21 September 1862 as a Pvt. in Company A, SNIDER'S Battalion, Missouri Cavalry.<sup>10</sup>

The biography of James T. TURNER(46) says that "He was a soldier in the late war."<sup>11</sup> They did not say which side. There is no Union pension record for him, so he may have been a Confederate. Not all of the family sympathies were for the South. John T. CROSS(79) (son of Michael), served in the Union Army. He enlisted in Company A, 19th Iowa Volunteer Infantry.<sup>12</sup>

During the war, life was very difficult in Northeast Missouri. After the battles of 1862, hostilities in Northeast Missouri ended except for the guerrilla warfare waged by such men as Bill ANDERSON and Bill QUANTRILL. They were savage and merciless in their methods and were largely thieves and murderers attacking both sides. There is a story in John D. TURNER'S(38) family of seeing QUANTRILL'S Raiders. A son of William and Ann NORTHCRAFT(24) was taken from his home, shot, and left by the side of the road 8 November 1862.<sup>13</sup>

In the summer of 1865, the three sons of John Meredith TURNER [John D.(38), Charles Daniel(39) and Thomas Lee(40)] and the one son of Daniel Meridy TURNER [James Daniel(20)] left Missouri for Oregon. The biographer of John D. TURNER states, "In 1865 they crossed the plains with ox teams to Oregon, being six months in making the journey." His son, Joseph A. TURNER, was born in August of 1865 on the Oregon Trail. John D. TURNER and James Daniel TURNER went to Yamhill County. Charles TURNER and Thomas TURNER settled in Clackamas County. The remainder of the third generation of the family stayed in northeast Missouri.

*Legman's History
Old Walla Walla Co
Vol II

BEN M. TURNER.

Ben M. Turner is a self-made man of Columbia county who from pioneer times has been identified with the agricultural development and with kindred interests in southeastern Washington. Starting out empty-handed, he possessed energy and determination, together with a keen sagacity that has enabled him to recognize and utilize opportunities which others have passed heedlessly by. He now resides on section 19, township 11 north, range 40 east, in Columbia county, and has become well known as a farmer, as a breeder of Belgian horses and as a grain dealer and warehouse man. He was born in Scotland county, Missouri, March 15, 1854, a son of John and Mary (Powers) Turner, the former a native of Virginia, while the latter was born in Indiana. They were married, however, in Missouri, having removed with their respective parents to that state in early life. In 1865 they crossed the plains with ox teams to Oregon, being six months in making the journey. On their arrival they located in Yamhill county, that state, where they lived for about six years and in March, 1871, came to Washington. They took up their abode on Whiskey creek, in what is now Columbia county but was then a part of Walla Walla county, and the father preempted a quarter section of land, upon which he continued to reside until called to his final home.

Ben M. Turner was educated in the district schools but his opportunities in that direction were quite limited. He was a youth of eleven years at the time of the emigration to the northwest and he became an active factor in assisting his father in the arduous task of developing and improving a new farm. Day after day saw him in the fields working to break the sod and cultivate crops, and on reaching his twenty-first year he began farming for himself. He purchased a quit claim to a preemption of one hundred and sixty acres, on which he proved up, and with that tract as a beginning he had extended his farm holdings until he was one of the largest landowners of this section of the state. Of recent years, however, he has disposed of all but two sections of land, which is now being operated by tenants. He retired from active farming, although for many years he was extensively and successfully engaged in the tilling of the soil. He not only brought his fields under a high state of cultivation and demonstrated the possibility of producing fine crops in this section of the state but he also engaged in the breeding of Belgian horses. He secured two of the best mares in the northwest and his horses afterward received awards at the Washington State Fair at North Yakima, the Walla Walla fair and the Cascade Stock Show at North Yakima. In fact he has won premiums on his stock at many fairs in the northwest. Since retiring from active farm work he has given his attention to the grain business and owns and operates an elevator at Turner and is also in charge of the warehouses of the Portland Milling Company at Turner, handling about two hundred and fifty thousand bushels of grain in 1916. He is thus connected with extensive and important business interests, which are carefully directed, for he is a man of sound judgment, keen discrimination and of unfaltering industry.

In January, 1905, Mr. Turner was married to Miss Anna Brofsky, of Dayton. He belongs to Columbia Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M., and Dayton Chapter, No. 5, R. A. M., and is a most worthy follower of the craft, exemplifying in his life its beneficent teachings concerning the brotherhood of mankind and the obligations thereby imposed. In politics he has always been a democrat but never has he sought public office, preferring to concentrate his energies and attention upon his business interests, which have gained him place among the most substantial citizens of southeastern Washington.

John Meredith<sup>2</sup> TURNER (John Meridy, 1). Born, 1787, in Fauquier, VA. Died, 15 Feb 1853, in Arbela, Scotland, MO, age 65 years.

He married Harriet COOKE, daughter of Charles COOKE and Mary LEGG, 3 Apr 1817, in Fauquier, VA by Rev. Thornton STRINGFELLOW, Baptist.<sup>31</sup> Born, 8 Jul 1799, in Fauquier, VA. Died, 8 Jan 1876, in Arbela, Scotland, MO, age 79 years 6 months. Both were buried in the Hickory Grove Cemetery.

The marriage bond, dated 29 March 1817, for John TURNER and Harriet COOKE was signed with John's mark and Charles COOKE'S signature. Since Harriet was not yet 18, Charles COOKE signed a consent for his daughter on the same day.<sup>32</sup> John TURNER was living with his mother in Fauquier on the 1810 and 1820 census. On the 1830 census he was listed with 2 sons and 4 daughters and no slaves.<sup>33</sup> The family was on the 1840 and 1850 census in Licking Co., Ohio and Harriet was on the 1860 census in Scotland Co., Missouri living with her daughter and son-in-law, Martha and Levi PRYOR.<sup>34</sup> In 1870 she was living with Samuel MARTIN and his family in Knox Co., Missouri after the recent death of her daughter, Kitty Ann MARTIN.<sup>35</sup>

On the 21 November 1850, John TURNER, age 66 years, a resident of Licking County, Ohio swore that he was "a private soldier in the company commanded by William DULING in the 84th regiment of militia commanded by Enoch RENO in the war with great Britain declared by the United States on the 18th day of June 1812, Drafted at Jermantown, Fauquier County, Virginia on or about the 15th day of June A.D. 1812 for the term of six months and continued in actual service in said war for the term of six months and was honorably discharged at Ellicoats Mills [Maryland] on or about the 15th day of December A.D. 1812." His purpose was to obtain bounty land granted by an act passed 28 September 1850. He signed by mark. He was awarded 40 acres.

On the 28 March 1855, Harriett TURNER, age 58 years, a resident of the County of Scotland in the State of Missouri, declared that "she is the widow of John M. TURNER deceased." Her declaration contained the same information, except she said that he had volunteered at German Town in Fauquier County 26 August 1814 and served until the end of November 1814. The statement from the Treasury Department dated 9 June 1851 had confirmed that John TURNER'S service was from 25 Aug. 1814 to 24 Nov. 1814.

"She further states that she was married to the said John M. TURNER in Fauquier County in the State of Virginia on the 3rd day of April AD 1817 by the Rev. Thorton STRINGFELLOW, a minister of the Gospel and that her name before her said marriage was Harriett COOK, that her said Husband died at the County of Scotland in the State of Missouri on the 11th day of February AD 1854, and that she is still a widow."

Her purpose was to obtain bounty land granted by an act passed 3 March 1855. She signed by signature "Harriet Turner." She was awarded 120 acres. Levi C. PRYOR and John M. T. SMITH, residents of Scotland County, made affidavit to her statement. The record in the Family Bible was used to prove the marriage and was sworn to by Charles D. TURNER.<sup>36</sup>

On the 21 February 1854 Harriet TURNER of Scotland County, Missouri deposed that her husband died without a will and that she would administer the estate. The heirs were Betsey CROSS, Mary MARTIN, Francis TROUT, Martha PRIOR, Kitty Ann MARTIN, John TURNER, Charles TURNER, Thomas TURNER and Harriet TURNER widow, all of whom resided in Scotland County and Harriet LIVINGSTON who resided in Licking Co., Ohio.

Included in the probate file was a handwritten agreement by John M. TURNER for a bond dated 26 December 1852 for a deed to David TROUT to a tract of land in Scotland County, the "west half of the southeast fourth of the northeast quarter of section 4, township 65, range 10 west." It was attested by Alexander SMITH.

118. Benjamin M.<sup>4</sup> TURNER (John D., 38). Born, 15 Mar 1854, in Scotland, MO. Died, Sep 1934, in Columbia, WA, age 80.

He married, first, Samima J. BOYLES, 14 Oct 1876, in Columbia, WA. Born, 1859, TX. They are on the 1880, 1885, 1887 census of Columbia, WA. On the 1900 census Benjamin TURNER is listed as widowed.

He married, second, Anna BOROFKY, Jan 1905, in Columbia, WA. The Columbia County News, 21 Jan 1905, reported that Anna was the eldest daughter of Mrs. VON CADOW. Her sister, Alma, was the bridesmaid and her brother John gave her away. Born, 1875. Died, 8 Jun 1943, age 68, Columbia, WA. They are both buried at the Dayton Cemetery.

"Ben M. TURNER is a self-made man of Columbia County who from pioneer times has been identified with the agricultural development and with kindred interests in southeastern Washington. Starting out empty-handed, he possessed energy and determination, together with a keen sagacity that has enabled him to recognize and utilize opportunities which others have passed heedlessly by. He now (1918) resides on section 19, township 11 north, range 40 east, in Columbia county, and has become well known as a farmer, as a breeder of Belgian horses and as a grain dealer and warehouseman.

Ben M. TURNER was educated in the district schools but his opportunities in that direction were quite limited. He was a youth of eleven years at the time of the emigration to the northwest and he became an active factor in assisting his father in the arduous task of developing and improving a new farm. Day after day saw him in the fields working to break the sod and cultivate crops, and on reaching his twenty-first year he began farming for himself. He purchased a quit claim to a preemption of 160 acres, on which he proved up, and with that tract as a beginning he had extended his farm holdings until he was one of the largest landowners of this section of the state.

Of recent years, however, he has disposed of all but two sections of land which is now being operated by tenants. He retired from active farming, although for many years he was extensively and successfully engaged in the tilling of the soil. He not only brought his fields under a high state of cultivation and demonstrated the possibility of producing fine crops in this section of the state but he also engaged in the breeding of Belgian horses. He secured two of the best mares in the northwest and his horses afterward received awards at the Washington State Fair at North Yakima, the Walla Walla Fair and the Cascade Stock Show at North Yakima. In fact he has won premiums on his stock at many fairs in the Northwest.

Since retiring from active farm work he has given his attention to the grain business and owns and operates an elevator at TURNER and is also in charge of the warehouses of the Portland Milling Company at TURNER, handling about two hundred and fifty thousand bushels of grain in 1916. He is thus connected with extensive and important business interests, which are carefully directed, for he is a man of sound judgment, keen discrimination and of unfaltering industry.

He belongs to Columbia Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M., and Dayton Chapter, No. 5, R. A. M., and is a most worthy follower of the craft, exemplifying in his life its beneficent teachings concerning the brotherhood of mankind and the obligations thereby imposed. In politics he has always been a democrat but never has he sought public office, preferring to concentrate his energies and attention upon his business interests, which have gained him place among the most substantial citizens of southeastern Washington."<sup>45</sup>

He is listed in the 1913 Atlas as a Farmer, Stockraiser and Breeder of Registered Belgium Horses.<sup>46</sup>

Ward RINEHART says that B. M. TURNER "was a leader wherever he lived. He was largely responsible for the railroad extension to his farm and for Turnerville which followed. He provided badly needed warehousing. He was an active churchman, especially after retirement."<sup>47</sup>

RINEHART also told about his own father in relation to Ben TURNER. "Michael D. RINEHART came from Arkansas in 1883 as an orphan with two married brothers and a single one. He was thirteen when the emigrant train landed them in Walla Walla. He made an immediate hit with Uncle Ben TURNER for whom he worked his first year out West.

Years later Uncle Ben told me a story about my father I think is worth repeating here. There were seven hired men living at the TURNERS that winter. They slept in the runway between two wings of the barn with their blankets spread out on loose straw. They were all inclined to be somewhat slow in getting out of a morning when Uncle Ben called them at four and hung the lantern on the wall. Finally he said to young Mike, "You'll never amount to anything Mike, until you learn to get out of bed without delay when you're supposed to." Mike said he would sure like to but it took so long to come to he sometimes went back to sleep while he was trying to rouse himself. Uncle Ben said, "If you'll do what I tell you you'll never have any more trouble getting up. As soon as I call jump right out in the hay and start bucking like a horse on your hands and knees. Put all you've got into it."

So the next morning after Uncle Ben called the boys, he stepped out of sight to watch what happened. Sure enough Mike plunged from between the covers to the loose straw in one move and landed on all fours. He bucked and wheeled and got so enthused he began to roar like a bucking bronc. One by one the others followed suit. Uncle Ben said it was one of the funniest sights he ever witnessed seeing seven men bucking and bawling in the half light from the lantern. But they were all at breakfast for the first time all winter."<sup>48</sup>

40. Thomas Lee<sup>3</sup> TURNER (John Meredith, 7). Born, 10 Jul 1840, in Licking, OH. Died, 12 Sep 1916, in Clackamas, OR, age 76.<sup>46</sup>

He married Nancy Elizabeth POWER, daughter of Benjamin POWER and Hannah EVICK, 4 Apr 1861, in Adair, MO. Born, 19 Sep 1844, in MO. Died, 19 Jan 1911, in Clackamas, OR, age 66.<sup>47</sup> They were both buried at the Bird Cemetery in Stafford. They were on the 1870 to 1910 census for Tualatin, Clackamas, OR. In 1910

it was reported that they had been married 49 years, had 11 children, 10 of whom were still living.

"Our subject's father, John M. TURNER, was born in Virginia, reared to manhood there, and in that State married Miss Harriett COOK, and after their marriage they removed to Ohio and settled on a farm. In the fall of 1851 they moved to Missouri, purchased land and established their home on it. There the father resided till the time of his death, which occurred in 1857. In religion he was a Baptist, and in politics a Democrat. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. His widow survived him till 1885, being seventy-three years old at the time of her death. They were the parents of ten children, nine of whom reached adult years, and six are still living. Thomas L. is the youngest in this family, and was only thirteen years of age when his father died. He remained with his mother on the farm and aided her in the management of it until he grew up to manhood, and in due time he purchased land for himself."

"April 4, 1861, Mr. TURNER married, Miss Nancy POWERS... They remained on the farm until 1865, and that year crossed the plains to Oregon. They had three children born in Missouri... These children they brought with them across the plains, being six months on their journey, and, upon their arrival in Oregon, came direct to the farm on which they have since resided, seven miles northeast of Oregon City. They purchased 160 acres of land, at $2.50 per acre, paying $500 down and going in debt for the rest, and in a log house on this farm they began their pioneer life in Oregon. As the years rolled by their honest industry was crowned with success. In 1869 a good frame residence took the place of their primitive log house, and Mr. TURNER not only paid for his first purchase of land but also added 300 acres more to it, making 460 altogether."<sup>48</sup> Children:<sup>49</sup>

39. Charles Daniel<sup>3</sup> TURNER (John Meredith, 7). Born, 1 Jan 1832, in Licking, OH. Died, 26 Nov 1917, age 85, in Buckeye Township, Spokane, WA, at the home of his daughter Mary EVANS. The funeral home was in Rosalia, Whitman, WA. He was buried at Dayton, WA according to his death certificate, but no cemetery record was found.

He married, first, Sarah Elizabeth CROWN, daughter of William Sterling CROWN and Mary Magdalene BURRIER, 28 Dec 1854, in Clark, MO by Rev. John J. MARTIN. Born, 18 Feb 1835, in Muskingum, OH. Died, 6 Jul 1866, in Stafford, Clackamas, OR. She was buried in the Bird Cemetery. Her daughter, Harriet TURNER, said that her mother became sick on the Oregon Trail and prayed that she would make it to Oregon so that she would not be buried on the Trail. She was 31 years old when she died.

Sarah Elizabeth CROWN grew up in a large family of 12 children living in Muskingum, OH adjoining Licking, OH where Charles TURNER was raised. Her family moved to Van Buren, IA [adjoining Scotland and Clark, MO] in 1841 and her parents died there in 1878 and 1887. In the settlement of both of their estates, their daughter, Sarah E. TURNER, is named as deceased with children living in Washington Territory whose names were not known.<sup>43</sup>

In the 1860 census, Charles and Sarah TURNER were in Salt River Twp, Adair, MO with Charles' younger brother, Thomas Lee TURNER. When the Civil War began in 1861, Charles TURNER'S sympathies were with the Confederacy. He moved his family to Sedalia, Pettis, MO as the Union Army held most of northern Missouri. He named his son Jefferson Davis TURNER, born on 8 Jan 1862. There was one Confederate muster-in-roll for Charles TURNER in Boone County dated 21 Sep 1862.<sup>44</sup> He told his grandchildren many years later, that he hid in the well when the Bushwhackers recruited in his neighborhood. He never told about fighting in any battles. In the summer of 1865 Charles, with his brothers John and Thomas, and a cousin, James, and all of their wives and children left Missouri for Oregon. Children:

- + 126 i. Harriet Tabitha<sup>4</sup> TURNER.
- 127 ii. Thomas D. TURNER. Born, 1859, in Knox, MO.
- + 128 iii. Jefferson Davis TURNER.
- + 129 iv. Mary Louisa TURNER.

He married, second, Marianna Eliza EVANS, daughter of William and Elizabeth EVANS, 3 Jan 1869, in Oregon City, Clackamas, OR.<sup>45</sup> Born, 28 Dec 1848, in MO. Died, 24 Jan 1889, in Columbia, WA, age 40. She was buried at the Bundy Hollow Cemetery. In 1870 they were living in Tualatin Precinct, Oregon City, Clackamas, OR. They moved to Columbia, WA, near Huntsville, about 1875, where Charles homesteaded. He later farmed near Turner. In the 1900 census he was living with his daughter, Lilly BIGGART, in Star Precinct., Columbia, WA. In 1910 he was living with his daughter, Mary EVANS, in Buckeye Township, Spokane, WA. Mary Louisa TURNER had married her step-mother's brother, John William EVANS, in 1881. The 1910 census has a question as to whether the person was a survivor of the Union or Confederate Army or Navy. Charles D. TURNER, age 75, was listed as "CA" Confederate Army. Children:

- 130 v. Anna I. TURNER. Born, 7 Apr 1870, in Oregon City, Clackamas, OR. Died, 21 Jun 1873, in Clackamas, OR, age 3. Buried at Bird Cemetery, Stafford, next to the Charles' first wife.
- + 131 vi. Lilly Lenora TURNER.
- + 132 vii. Edward Daniel TURNER.
- + 133 viii. Vivian Winfred TURNER.
- 134 ix. Stella M. TURNER. Born, 16 Feb 1882, in Columbia, WA. Died, 5 Aug 1882, in Columbia, WA. Buried at the Bundy Cemetery.

He married Nancy Elizabeth POWER, daughter of Benjamin POWER and Hannah EVICK, 4 Apr 1861, in Adair, MO. Born, 19 Sep 1844, in MO. Died, 19 Jan 1911, in Clackamas, OR, age 66.<sup>47</sup> They were both buried at the Bird Cemetery in Stafford. They were on the 1870 to 1910 census for Tualatin, Clackamas, OR. In 1910

it was reported that they had been married 49 years, had 11 children, 10 of whom were still living.

"Our subject's father, John M. TURNER, was born in Virginia, reared to manhood there, and in that State married Miss Harriett COOK, and after their marriage they removed to Ohio and settled on a farm. In the fall of 1851 they moved to Missouri, purchased land and established their home on it. There the father resided till the time of his death, which occurred in 1857. In religion he was a Baptist, and in politics a Democrat. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. His widow survived him till 1885, being seventy-three years old at the time of her death. They were the parents of ten children, nine of whom reached adult years, and six are still living. Thomas L. is the youngest in this family, and was only thirteen years of age when his father died. He remained with his mother on the farm and aided her in the management of it until he grew up to manhood, and in due time he purchased land for himself."

"April 4, 1861, Mr. TURNER married, Miss Nancy POWERS... They remained on the farm until 1865, and that year crossed the plains to Oregon. They had three children born in Missouri... These children they brought with them across the plains, being six months on their journey, and, upon their arrival in Oregon, came direct to the farm on which they have since resided, seven miles northeast of Oregon City. They purchased 160 acres of land, at $2.50 per acre, paying $500 down and going in debt for the rest, and in a log house on this farm they began their pioneer life in Oregon. As the years rolled by their honest industry was crowned with success. In 1869 a good frame residence took the place of their primitive log house, and Mr. TURNER not only paid for his first purchase of land but also added 300 acres more to it, making 460 altogether."<sup>48</sup> Children:<sup>49</sup>

ON THEIR DIAMOND WEDDING DAY . . . Seventy-five years of wedded bliss, spent in the log cabin home which they constructed themselves when they were first married, is the proud record of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Viroqua, Wis. They were married by a Methodist circuit rider and have four married children who live in the surrounding countryside. Mr. Turner is 96 and his wife, Mary Jane, is 92 years old.

Harry Turner of Dayton with part of his 1,000-piece collection of tools

Harry Turner spins a tale from any tool

Harry Turner looks at his life as a collection of experiences -- from his birthplace in Hogeve Country, to his schooling on Robinette Mountain and finally to his life-long affair with the land as a farmer

DAYTON — He started a collection of old tools when he got married about 63 years ago, and he has been collecting ever since.

Harry Turner, 87, who has been living at the Booker Annex Convalescent Center at 1012 S. Third St. since last December, points to items in his 1,000-piece collection and spins tales about the past.

Since the items are housed in a garage at his home, he uses pictures of the collection to recall memories of the old days.

"See these bull shoes," he says.

"There was an old bull driver up the North Touchet River who made these shoes. I can remember people hauling saw logs to town, using a team of

our senior citizens

oxen. The oxen were mighty powerful but awfully slow, so mostly they were used around the saw mill to drag logs in close.

"Oxen have split hooves, so they had to put two shoes on each foot."

He points to an old watch case filled with snake rattles.

"This was just an old case I no longer had any use for, so I filled it with rattles from snakes I killed around. I had a close call or two.

"I remember one time a rattler was in the brush along a trail up the creek. He was coiled and ready to strike. If I'd taken one more step, I would have been a goner, but I saw him just in time and hit him on the head with my walking stick."

He looks at a picture of his wrenches and other hand tools that cover one wall.

"I've got all sizes and descriptions. No two are exactly alike. There's what we called a body and fender hammer. The hammer part was real long so you could get at things.

"There's a hammer froe we used to make shingles. It has a long blade used to cut down through the shingle to make it long and thin. Those shingles lasted twice as long as any sawed shingle.

"We used these hatchets to hew out logs and make things like that.

"All the merchants had that light hammer over there. See that fork at the other end. In the early days, everything was shipped in boxes. The merchants used the forks to pull out the nails."

Turner moves on to a two-pronged metal device.

"That's what sheep shearers used to catch the sheep. It had a long handle, and they'd reach into the herd and wrap one of the prongs around a sheep's head and lead him out."

He looks at other souvenirs, ranging in size from an inch to a six-foot saw his father had used.

That silk carder came from my son, Gene. He brought it back from Japan after World War II.

"Right next to it is a metal stake soldiers used in General Custer's time to tether their horses. It's kind of like a big screw driver. They'd just stick it in the ground and begin to wind it into the dirt.

"There's my old grubbing hoe and a corn sheller and some antique barbed wire and a buck saw and a hay knife and a wagon jack and saw and part of some old riding harness and . . .

"A lot of friends and neighbors gave me their keepsakes, and I got to exchanging with people for things. Even a doctor in Walla Walla one time gave me a wrench.

"I got started when I had to fix up a house to live. I bought a saw and a square and a level and a hammer, and I saved them. It just went on from there."

His life has been like that, too — a collection of experiences.

The fourth of 13 youngsters, Turner was born in Hogeeye Country southwest of Dayton on Jan. 15, 1891. He was born at midnight, and his mother told him to take his pick, Jan. 14 or 15.

"There were so many of us kids that we kind of went to school by two's," Turner says. "I started out with my older brother when I was just over 5. We walked about a mile to Baldwin School."

Later, when his father, David, Turner, began farming way back on Robinette Mountain, the family went to a country school there.

Like so many youth of that time, Turner was too busy making a living to go on to high school. At 14½, the day after school was out, he got a job at Grupe Saw Mill, but the mill shut down a couple weeks later. Turner went to work for a man who had taken over his father's farming.

"Dad went to teaming," he explains. "He had his own team of big grey draft horses. He hauled logs and wheat. He even hauled wheat as far as Wallula. He brought back supplies, like sugar and flour, for the neighbors.

"I was doing anything there was to do on the farm. We used footburners to cultivate. They were only 16 inches wide, and we were behind them pushing. I even learned how to make sourdough light bread."

Turner went to southern Idaho to help build a log cabin for his older brother, who was homesteading. Since he was too young to take up a homestead, he came back home.

For six years, he farmed at Star for Joe Rose Sr. During those years he married a Dayton girl, Lois Mitchell. Their four children include two sons, Leslie R. and Gene Turner, who settled here.

The Turners bought a farm in Franklin County. They began with a 160-acre spread, which grew to several thousand.

"My first crop was in the rough," he remembers. "I got seven bushels to the acre that year. Land over there then was free for the taking. The best of it sold at $10 an acre. Homesteaders had starved out, and everything had gone to pieces.

"We hauled in water from the Snake River in 400-gallon tanks for the stock and for ourselves. We had an underground concrete tank for storage. It was good water. No one ever got sick from drinking it."

In the winter, Turner ran a coyote trapping line. He skinned the animals and sold the pelts for $8 apiece, a lot of money in those days. He got as many as 30 or 40 during a three-month run.

"They were used for women's coats," he says. "I set traps in the fields and waste land. I even killed one on my back porch that was after my little dog."

The Turners lived 24 miles from Pasco, and the only way the youngsters could go on to high school was to board out. In 1929, rather than to split up the family, they returned to Dayton.

Turner bought the Watrous Place near Star, now owned by Clark James, Route 1. He made three later moves — to a farm on Route 3, now owned by Ron Williams; to the Frank Porter Place, also on Route 3, and, about 12 years ago, to his home in Dayton. Turner's wife died in 1972.

Through the years, Turner's collection of experiences was funny at times, poignant at times.

"When I was 5, some Indians were traveling past our house," he pictures. "Mom saw them coming and hid us four kids under the bed. She told us to keep quiet, but they went on by without any trouble. I guess they were huckleberrying.

"There were lots of Indians in the country then. They'd work for corn and potatoes. The women did the work while the men hunted jackrabbits."

When Turner was about 20, he drove, for Rose, the first motorized combine in Columbia County.

As a young man, too, he remembers soldiers from Fort Walla Walla taking part in foot races and other sporting events in Dayton.

In Franklin County, the Turners lived five miles from the rail line. They rode their horses to the track, turned them out to pasture and rode by rail the 20 miles to town. They waited in a little shelter, and, when they saw the train coming, they waved a red flag to signal the locomotive to stop.

Turner, who broke his share and more of horses and mules, found out the old saying, "stubborn as a mule", is true.

He was trying to break a mule named Tom to ride, but Tom started running backwards, lickety-split.

"I couldn't get him to go forwards, so I just rode him backwards up a hill," Turner chuckles. "That brought him around."

The tales, the old tools, the worn diary within Turner's reach are all symbols of a man who has lived a full life and has treasured every moment of it.

Dayton Matron Lays Claim to Noted Kinship

On a recent visit to Dayton the Roving Reporter had the privilege of interviewing a woman who is without doubt deserving of national recognition among those who reverse direct family ties and blood connections with some great American patriot around Revolutionary periods. She is Maggie Ball Turner.

Mrs. Turner deserves recognition because it has been established that her family traces directly back to Martha Ball, wife of George Washington.

That alone places Mrs. Turner in a special category, but there is more to it than that. Her great-grandmother was Nancy Hanks, a cousin of another Nancy Hanks who was the mother of Abraham Lincoln. If anybody can match that rare family background, let him speak his piece.

The Hanks angle ties in with the late Uncle Dunham Wright, father of Grace Powers of Medical Springs.

Genuine Pioneers

Nearer home, Mrs. Turner's right to be called a member of the Oregon country pioneers cannot be challenged. Both her paternal and maternal forebears came to Oregon in 1852 and that date was early enough to give Mrs. Turner a pioneer heritage of the purest quality.

On her mother's side, the family making the trek in '52 included Mrs. Turner's grandfather and great-grandfather. The latter, who was Dr. Nathaniel Robbins, was drowned in the Tualatin river. The former, William Robbins, met a tragic death in a hunting accident. Her father's father was born in 1793, her father in 1827, in Illinois.

Father in Local Fight

Isaac Ball, Mrs. Turner's father, engaged in lumbering when he arrived at Oregon City in 1852, and for a time operated a ferry for Dr. John McLoughlin. He was attracted to California by the gold fever but was back in Oregon in 1855 in time to enlist in Company D, first Oregon volunteers.

As his companions did, Ball furnished his own horses and equipment for the expedition to the Walla Walla valley where the Indian war of 1855 was brewing.

Maneuvers in and around the Walla Walla valley during that brief but bitter conflict took Ball's outfit over the ground where Huntsville and Dayton now stand. He camped at both spots.

Among Isaac Ball's contributions to Oregon's development was his job of teaching school—the first school—at Bridgeport, a settlement now known as the Tualatin district.
Pioneer in Columbia

Mrs. Turner has made a habit of being a pioneer wherever she goes. She was one of 10 children, four of whom are living.

She was married to Dave Turner, who died about two years ago. She has mothered 13 children, seven of whom are living. Her residence in Columbia county has now stretched out to 64 years, something of a distinction in itself.

At the age of 84 she enjoys excellent health and keeps very busy. She likes to talk of her illustrious family background and for that she

Aunt Dies

Mrs. Dave Turner received word recently that an aunt, Mrs. Adline Bill, 91, pioneer of Aurora, Oregon, died in that city March 31. She is survived by four children. Funeral services were held last Sunday.

Officials Sworn In Monday . . .

Turner Is New County Chairman

CHAIRMANSHIP—Lawrence Turner is shown above Monday after being named the new Chairman of the Columbia County Board of Commissioners. He replaces Vernon Marll who has held the post the last two years. Turner will be chairman for 1975.

Elected chairman of the Columbia County Board of Commissioners at a special organizational meeting Monday was Lawrence Turner, Route 3.

Turner replaces Vernon Marll who has served as board chairman for the last three years. Marll nominated Turner for the chairmanship, a motion seconded by new third district commissioner Glen Preston Stedman, the position formerly held by Eugene Robinson.

Outgoing commissioner Robinson was presented, as a token for his past service, an old-fashioned pocket watch.

Turner, a Democrat who has completed two years as 2nd District commissioner, farms wheat land in the Turner area (homesteaded by ancestors) in partnership with his brother Jim, Jim's son Randy and his own son Rick. The farming enterprise is known as the Turner Brothers.

A 1946 graduate of Dayton High School, he is the son of the late Art Turner of Dayton. Turner's mother still resides in the area.

A 1946 graduate of Dayton High School, he is the son of the late Art Turner of Dayton. Turner's mother still resides in the area.

He is married to the former Betty Laughery, daughter of Marvin Laughery of Dayton.

Turner served as Columbia County Fair board chairman in 1971-72 and is a member of the Upper Whetstone Grange 1034, Walla Walla Elks Club, Dayton Eagles, the Columbia County Wheat Association, Dayton Chamber of Commerce and the Blue Mountain Snowmobile Club.

He is also an associate member of the Columbia County Cattlemen's Association.

Also Monday, Glen Preston Stedman was sworn in as new commissioner for District 3, replacing Eugene Robinson.

Mary J. Davis was sworn in as county clerk and Timothy Joel Wiefereich as justice of the peace. Mrs. Davis assumes the clerkship reins from Louise Nilsson who did not refile for the position last fall. Wiefereich was former pastor of the First Assembly of God church here, but submitted his registration the first of the year.

Ellis Heady, judge since September, 1966, elected as Justice No. 2 last November, will continue to serve in that capacity.

Turners host U.S.-Canadian family reunion

The families of George Rundell of Canada and the USA gathered at Lawrence and Betty Turner's home for a family reunion Aug. 22-26. Daughters Ada and Margaret Burnell immigrated to Turner, WA, to visit a brother who was working for Ben Turner. They soon met the Turner boys, Art and Lloyd, married and became naturalized citizens.

Betty reported they have these reunions every two years, alternating between Dayton and Canada, but this was the "granddaddy" of them all with 105 people attending dinner Saturday night including all the local cousins.

Of special interest to them was their first ride on a combine and seeing first-hand the beginnings of a loaf of bread.

Out of town guests included: George Burnell family and Ronald Brower family of Barrow, Ak.; Calvin Pritchett family of Williams Lake, B.C.; Judy King and girls of Calgary, Alta; Jack Milton's, Allan Fraser's, Tannis and Cameron; Jason Burnell, Marie Burnell of Kamloops, B.C.; Brad Woods family, Garth Fraser family, Lee Hutchens family, Earl Tomy family of Vancouver, B.C.; Ruby Burnell, Leverne Burnell family, Earl Tomy family of Clearwater, B.C.; Doug Baldwin family of Edmonton, Alta; Margaret Burnell of Lunsford's of Lakewood, Colo.; Trent Waldren family of Salem, OR; Dave Woodall's of Yakima, WA. The youngest present was Lierne Wood at six months, and oldest was Ada Turner at 87 years old.

Former Dayton Boy Riding In Big Time on Eastern Tracks--14,000 See Races

(By J. B. S.)

The old slogan of "local boy makes good" is still making the rounds of some of the younger former Dayton residents. Dayton boys have made names for themselves in everything from medicine to farmers, and at that they have only scratched the dirt.

Leonard Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Turner of this city, has been a boy horseman ever since he was a small chap. Several years ago he could almost always be found around the local stables during Dayton Days. And now from the east comes the flash that he has made big time and is riding his way to fame.

Wins Five Straight

The following article is taken from the Cleveland Plain Dealer, printed in Cleveland, Ohio, issue of May 31, 1935:

A swarthy-panned little apprentice riding tyke from out of the far northwest—Leonard Turner is the name; 18 is the age—made grand larceny of the inaugural hoofing program at Bainbridge yesterday as he scored with five of his six mounts and wowed an assemblage of approximately 14,000 patrons, the second heaviest gathering in the history of the track.

Scored with the whizzing Woodlander in the Decoration Day Handicap did Leonard Turner, and with Judge Urban, Dian, Grattan and Moratorium. And with all but Judge Urban, that knocked off the season's opener, under the silks of his contract holder, Mr. Butsy Hernandez of New Orleans.

He was the top jock at the recent Aurora meeting, this Leonard Turner did, and now the odds are whatever you will that there'll be no halting him on the Greater Cleveland merry-go-rounds.

$94,676 Is Handled

He'll be tops for a long time, regardless, with those of the folks who did their stringing with him in the merry mutuels, which handled a total of $94,676, the largest amount that's been tossed into the Bainbridge iron since the season of 1931.

This is only a section of the publicity that young Turner has received. On June 20, 1935, issue of the New York Press his picture appears with that of Lita Gray Chaplin, race queen; Tommy Lloyd, the "Royal Master" and Tommy McGinty, the Mayor of Sports in Cleveland.

Also in that issue of the New York Press, the following writeup appears: "The cerise silks with white 'H' and their wearer, the apprentice Leonard Turner, are on their way to dazzle the eyes of Bainbridge Park race fans with the parade to the winners' circle which characterized their appearance at Aurora and at New Orleans.

Butsey Hernandez, their owner, after seeing them finish in front four times out of four at Bainbridge on Memorial Day, voiced the determination to make it three meetings in a row at which he has been the leading owner-trainer. With all the enthusiasm of the Butsey who presided over New Orleans cabarets in the good old days, Hernandez attributed success to good horses and a belief he prophesies will become one of the leading jocks of the country.

Good Training

Efficient training and good luck in buying and claiming racing material his good judgment spots must be added factors. Examples are his Woodlander, Dian, Grattan and Moratorium which won early at Bainbridge. He only recently claimed Moratorium with lucky priority over rival's halter. He bought Dian at auction at Aurora for $525.

Turner, a Dayton (Wash.), boy of 18 who lives with Mr. and Mrs. Hernandez wherever they go. Turner's diet is supervised by Mrs. Hernandez. He is described by her as a model of good habits. He is respectful to all and dutiful to his father. He sends money home regularly and writes to brothers and sisters, who worship him and wait eagerly for newspaper clippings about his success.

Turner was a leading jockey at Aurora, was runner-up at New Orleans and has only eight months' experience. Turner has been riding in a sensational form at the Bainbridge meeting."

Child of 16 Mo. Drowned in Pond

Kathrynn Lynn, 16-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover R. (Buddy) Turner, was drowned Saturday morning about 10 o'clock. Her body was found in a fish pond at their country home on the Bill Rennewanz place.

Safety Engineer Ray Brown, Pinky Gates and Jim Burke rushed the community resuscitator to the scene and he and two local doctors worked for over 45 minutes, but were unable to resuscitate the child.

A slight abrasion on the temple indicated the child had fallen in the pond which is 18 to 20 inches deep and likely knocked unconscious and drowned before being found.

The tragedy as told by Brown, Buddy was working near the house and latched a gate to keep his daughter away from the pond and urged her to go in the house to her mother. Later Buddy was at another task and when returning noticed the gate was open but thought Kathrynn had gone to the house, and Mrs. Turner believed her daughter was with Buddy. It was reported that a short time had elapsed from the time Buddy saw his daughter playing in the yard and her body was found.

Kathrynn Lynn was born January 13, 1952, and besides her parents she leaves her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McBride and Mrs. Grover Turner, Sr.

MRS. CLARA PRICE.

Mrs. Clara Price died at her home in this city Saturday afternoon from pneumonia. She was 73 years old, and while she had enjoyed years of excellent health, she had not the resistance to withstand this dread affection, and was very low for some days before the end. Her funeral was held from the family home on Third street Monday afternoon at three o'clock with Rev. W. C. Gilmore, of the Congregational church, in charge, and as a mark of respect to this honored pioneer woman the business houses of Dayton closed during the hour of the service, while those who knew and loved her gathered to pay their last tributes.

Clara Jane Anderson was born February 19, 1850, in Scotland county, Missouri, where she lived for fifteen years. Her father having died when she was an infant, she crossed the plains with her step-father, John Turner, and family, and came to Oregon with them. The family first settled in Yamhill county, where they lived for six years, then they came to Walla Walla, and later to Columbia county, where many of them settled permanently. She was married February 23, 1873, to Alexander Price, who engaged in farming on an extensive scale during most of his life, and was very successful. Mr. Price died nearly twenty years ago, and since that time Mrs. Price has continued to make her home in Dayton.

Mrs. Price was a woman beloved by all classes of people. Her kind heart went out to everyone in need, and she was ever ready with deep sympathy and material assistance for those meeting sorrow or misfortune. Many a struggling school and college student has received the blessing of her kindly help, she has ministered to the sick and aged, and has been a great factor in the development of her church, the Congregational, with which she associated herself many years ago.

Mrs. Price was the mother of seven children, six of whom survive her, but one daughter, Alice, who died in early womanhood going before her. Besides her sons and daughters, George, Homer and Wilbur Price, Mrs. J. J. Edwards, Mrs. W. J. full responsibility of one of the ox teams in the wagon train in which the Turner family came west. The Turners first settled in Oregon, but came here two years later and purchased land on Whiskey creek.

Mr. Turner began farming for himself at an early age, and he was one of the first settlers in this part of the country to see the possibilities of growing wheat on hillside land, an industry which has made the county one of the richest in the state. He selected hilly ground in the district now known as Turner for one of his first farm sites, and there he tilled the rolling fields for many years and amassed wealth. As his holdings increased he developed a chain of warehouses, and these he operated until a few years ago when he disposed of them in order to be able to more fully enjoy the pleasures of travel and sightseeing. He was instrumental in bringing the railroad from its terminus in Dayton to the settlement which was named for him by the railroad company in appreciation of his ability and foresight in developing the vast territory which now yields thousands of tons of grain annually, and a wealth of livestock and other farm products. He was always keenly interested in the development of fine farm stock and beautiful race horses, and his farm home is one of the most beautiful and comfortable in the county. He was one of the founders of the Christian Science church in this city, and for years was a member of the board of directors. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and attended the Shrine many years ago.

Benjamin Turner and Miss Anna Borofsky were married in January, 1905, and although they have always maintained their home at Turner, which has been a center of gracious hospitality throughout their married life, they traveled widely, and of late years they have spent the greater part of each winter in southern California.

As a young woman she assisted her widowed mother in maintaining a home for her younger brothers, during her married life she reared a boy and a girl not her own, she tenderly cared for her mother during her declining years when she was a helpless invalid for a long period, and during her own illness she has spent every possible moment in returning kindnesses shown her. ## Little Lad Drowns In Shallow Pool

Falls Into One of Few Water Holes Left in Patit Creek Bed

Theodore Turner III, two years old, who had been visiting at the home of his great aunt, Mrs. J. A. Hubbard, was drowned in a shallow pool in the Patit Wednesday evening between the hours of five and six.

With his grandmother, Mrs. D. House, he came here about a month ago and was soon to have been taken by her to join her parents, Major and Mrs. Theodore Turner, formerly of Spokane but now of Denver, where Major Turner is stationed at Lowry Field.

The child had never before gone to the brink of the Patit, which is immediately back of the Hubbard home. He had been particularly cautioned against it although the bed of the stream has been dry all summer with the exceptions of one or two stagnant pools a few feet deep, and he had previously exhibited no curiosity about it.

He had been out of the house but a short time when his grandmother and aunt, Mrs. Rosanna Davis went in search of him. Some children playing on the lawn said he had gone to the creek and there the body was found by Mrs. Davis. A physician was summoned at once but efforts to restore him failed.

His parents were expected here from Denver today to make funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Sarah C. Tweedy

BOYS DROWN IN TOUCHET

Emil and Dwight Tweedy Meet Death in Swimming Hole

Emil Tweedy, aged 12 years, and his brother Dale, aged 10 years, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Tweedy, residents of Prescott the past four years, were drowned yesterday afternoon in a boys' swimming hole in the Touchet river near Prescott, according to word brought here last night by Coroner J. W. Cookerly, who was called to the scene.

The two boys had been in the water in company with other boys and after all had left the river, they returned alone again, evidently bent on learning how to swim, as neither had yet been able to master the art. Boy friends said they were unusually afraid of the water. The bank was high over the pool and it is thought likely that one of them slipped in and the other endeavored to rescue him. The water was only five feet deep and many could not understand why they were not able to make their way out of the hole, unless being frightened and they were unable to get back up the bank.

An inquest was held by Mr. Cookerly, the jury consisting of the following: J. P. Bradley, foreman; M. R. Hart, C. H. Hart, C. H. Brown, U. G. Knowlton, J. H. Hays and J. G. Carrick. Their verdict was accidental drowning.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Marcella Rogers, sister of the bridegroom, wore a frock of pale pink crepe, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and sweet-peas. Master Melvin Rogers carried the ring and the Bible, and little Misses Bernadine Sloop and Eloise Saager, in fluffy pink frocks were flower girls.

The program of nuptial music was played by the pianist, and the violinist, Miss Elizabeth Nix, and Burford Rogers of Lapwai, Idaho sang "O Promise Me." Estel Rogers of College Place acted as master of ceremony, and Clarence Rogers attended the bridegroom.

A reception followed the wedding, with more than 100 guests greeting the couple at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. O. W. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left immediately for Portland, where they will make their home while the former completes a course of study. The bride is a graduate of Cheney Normal, and has taught at Umapine the last five years.

Many guests from out of town attended the wedding, and among them were these from Dayton: Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Brown, Mr. Black, Mrs. Fred Rennewanz, Misses Dorothy, Bernadine and Mabel Jean Rennewanz, and Fred Rennewanz, Jr.

Lost His Arm.

T. D. Tweedy, who has charge of the Portland Flouring Mills Co.'s chop mill, while using a wrench to tighten a nut, lost the grip and thrust his arm into a core wheel, completely severing the arm between the left elbow and shoulder. Mr. Tweedy displayed considerable nerve and was able to walk out into the chop mill. Dr. Pietrzycki was called and had him conveyed to his office where the wound was dressed and at present the patient is resting easy with every prospect of speedy recovery.
